

VALUED-ADDED PROJECT WILL CALL FOR BEST FROM STUDENTS, FACULTY

The College's Value-Added Project, which will officially begin this semester, will "ask the best" from students and faculty alike. That was President Joseph Burke's message to Plattsburgh State's faculty and staff members at the annual fall faculty meeting on Wednesday afternoon.

After reviewing the Flexibility Bill passed by the New York State Legislature during the summer, Burke commented favorably on the five-year plans submitted by centers, departments, offices, and programs, calling them "surprisingly devoid of defensiveness," "surprisingly realistic," and exhibitiv of "a high level of faculty commitment to the pursuit of quality and diversity." He commented, "While you continue to strive to do better, everyone on campus — faculty, staff and students — should appreciate that you are already performing very well indeed."

Burke went on to say that the resource model of institutional quality insults faculty and staff "for it assumes that the success or failure of a college or university depends solely on what you receive rather than on how you perform." The quality of a college or university, Burke said, should be judged instead on its ability to assist its students to become the best they are capable of being.

The Value-Added Project will be implemented this fall, when all freshmen will take the ACT achievement test. At the end of their sophomore year, they will retake the test. Finally in their senior year, students will take a nationally normed examination in their major. Value-Added, Burke said, "links the progress of our students individually and collectively with our performance at the college, division, center and department levels." It is intended to improve performance, and "will require courage, commitment, and creativity from everyone on campus."

Burke concluded his speech by referring to the college's challenge and choice. "The challenge," he said, "is to make our college the best in the state and the country. The choice is to measure our success by the value we add to the intellectual and personal development of our students."

FALL SEMESTER OPENS WITH DEPOSIT GOALS MET; NEW MAJOR; NEW SCHOOL FOR BUSINESS

The fall semester began this week as new and returning students moved into the campus residence halls and prepared for the start of classes on Thursday.

Last Friday, Admissions Director Rich Higgins said that it appears the college's enrollment goals will be met. Admissions deposits had been received from slightly more than 1,800 students, of whom about 700 are transfers, 1000 are new freshmen, and the remainder are students returning after a leave of absence. Higgins said that 73% of the transfer students are from SUNY two-year colleges, an increase of 10% over last year. That increase, he said, is due to the numerous articulation agreements which have been arranged between Plattsburgh State and the SUNY two-year colleges over the past few years. He added that the persistence rate among returning students will apparently reach the projected 1% increase.

The Center for Business and Economics has become a separate School of Business and Economics. While a national search for a dean is conducted, Dr. Miles Martin, who was the Center director for the past three years, will serve as acting dean.

A new major program in criminal justice has been established and is now available to students. Dr. Jerome Supple, vice president for academic affairs commented, "The program has been established in response to a growing demand from persons in the area connected with the various correctional facilities. It will be geared primarily toward graduates of two-year criminal justice programs."

An articulation agreement signed recently with the Fashion Institute of Technology will allow students to attain a bachelor's degree from Plattsburgh and an associate degree from FIT in advertising design, fashion design, textile design, advertising and communication, apparel production and management, fashion buying and merchandising and textile technology by completing three years at Plattsburgh and one year at FIT.

The college's new telephone system is operational and a telecommunications office has been opened in Saranac Hall. The system provides numerous additional options to faculty and students alike.

Construction work is underway in several locations on the campus. Memorial Hall is undergoing a major safety rehabilitation, which includes a ramp for the handicapped and several exit stairways. Renovations are also underway in Sibley Hall, CV Hall and Hawkins Hall. Several special events are planned for the fall semester. They include a Fall Open House for Prospective Students on September 28; Parents' Weekend — October 4-6; dedication of the Beaumont Building — October 5; Homecoming Weekend — October 18-20; and dedication of the Redcay Building — October 19.

Welcome

JAMES CAMPBELL '76 APPOINTED TO COLLEGE COUNCIL

James J. Campbell, a 1976 Plattsburgh State graduate, has been appointed to the College Council by Governor Mario Cuomo for a term ending June 30, 1991.

Campbell, who lives in Albany, is a member of the legislative staff of Assembly Deputy Majority Leader Alan G. Hevesi and is director of the State Assembly's Task Force for the Disabled. Prior to assuming his current post, Campbell was legislative assistant to the Task Force. This assignment was preceded by a one-year term of service as intern and research aide to Assemblyman Andrew D. Virgilio (D-Brockport).

President Burke commented, "We are delighted to have the governor appoint a distinguished member of our alumni body to our College Council. Mr. Campbell already has such a depth of knowledge of our college that he will be an extremely valuable member."

During his undergraduate career at Plattsburgh State, Campbell was very active with the student government. He served the Student Association as a member of the finance board (1972), senator for communications and public relations (1973), vice president for activities coordination (1974) and president (1975). As SA president, he served as the student representative to the College Council.

In addition to his SA activities, Campbell was a member of the College Auxiliary Services Advisory Board, including one year as executive vice president. He also chaired the Homecoming Committee for two years, co-anchored a news and activities program on WPLT radio, was a summer orientation leader for two years, and held several offices in the social fraternity Alpha Chi Rho (then known as Sigma Tau Sigma).

DAVENPORT, LAFLEUR, WOLFE ASSUME NEW POSTS ON CAMPUS

Three new administrators have been named to posts on campus. They are Dr. Joanna Davenport, director of physical education, athletics, and recreational sports; Dr. Ingrun LaFleur, associate vice president of academic affairs, and Dr. Michael Wolfe, director of the Center for Teacher Education.

Davenport comes to Plattsburgh from Auburn University where she was director of women's athletics for nine years. She is a former chairperson of the physical education department at the University of Vermont and also served as an associate professor of physical education at the University of Illinois. Davenport has been active in national and international physical education organizations and has written extensively on the subject of women in sports. She holds a bachelor's degree from Skidmore, a master's degree from Smith, and a doctorate from Ohio State University.

Davenport

LaFleur

Wolfe

LaFleur, formerly associate professor and chair of the Division of General Studies at Stockton State College, earned a bachelor's degree in journalism at Northwestern, and her master's degree and doctorate in history from Columbia University. She is a specialist in the history of Russia and Eastern Europe. For eight years, LaFleur was a faculty member at William James College, an experimental interdisciplinary liberal arts unit of Grand Valley State College. She has also taught at CUNY's Staten Island College, Columbia University and Indiana University at Indianapolis. She has written numerous articles and papers on women's history.

Wolfe joins the Center for Teacher Education after two years as chair of the Department of Curriculum and Instruction at Texas Christian University. He also held, among others, the positions of chair of the Department of Teacher Education and Professional Development and chair of the department of student teaching at Central Michigan University. Wolfe has also taught on the high school level. He has written and spoken extensively on improvement of teaching and is co-author of two books, Critical Incidents in School Administration and School Focused Inservice: Description and Discussions.

KISSNER WINS MEDAL OF THE ORDER OF FRANCOPHONES OF AMERICA

Dr. Jeanne Kissner, associate director of the Center for the Study of Canada, has been named a recipient of the Medal of the Order of Francophones of America, one of the most prestigious awards given by the Canadian government. The award, conferred by the Conseil de la Langue Francaise, of the Province of Quebec Ministry of Culture, is bestowed each year in recognition of outstanding achievement in the promotion of the French language and culture in North America.

Kissner, and fifteen others (including only one other American) received the medal in July. Since the award was founded in 1978, only nine Americans have been so honored by the Conseil. During the same ceremony, the Conseil presented the Center for the Study of Canada a grant of $5,000 to acquire books on French Canada for the Feinberg Library.

Kissner, who is also an associate professor of French credits the entire Center staff for the award. "The Conseil recognized the work we've all been doing here at Plattsburgh," Kissner commented. "Our Center is considered by many Canadian government officials and educators to offer the best Canadian Studies program in the United States."

Kissner joined the Plattsburgh State faculty in 1977. She is President of the American Council for Quebec Studies and a past vice president of the Northeast Council for Quebec Studies. She has also served as an invited reviewer for the National Endowment for the Humanities and for Fulbright and Title VI programs.

DR. FOUAD EL TAHER, PROFESSOR OF BUSINESS AND ECONOMICS, DIES

Dr. Fouad El Taher, professor of business and economics, died on Sunday, September 1, 1985 at the age of 55. El Taher had been a member of the faculty at Plattsburgh State since 1968 and taught graduate and undergraduate courses in management, accounting, and economics. He also served for many years as a United Nations advisor in the United Arab Emirates and in East Africa. Born in Egypt, El Taher was educated at Cairo University. He came to the United States in 1960 and earned an MBA and a Ph.D. from the Wharton School of the University of Pennsylvania. He was active in various civic organizations, including the Rotary Club. He is survived by his wife and two children. Burial will take place in Egypt.

DR. DAVID EDGE TO BE DISTINGUISHED VISITING PROFESSOR

Dr. David Edge of the University Edinburgh will be on campus as a Distinguished Visiting Professor from September 4 through September 26. Edge is director of the Science Studies Unit of the University of Edinburgh and past director of Science Productions for the B.B.C. He is the author of several books, including Astronomy Transformed, a social history of astronomy in Britain. He is also editor of the journal Social Studies of Science, and a leading authority on the relation of science, technology and values. Edge will deliver three public lectures on September 9 (Is Science Inhuman), September 17 (Technology and Democracy), and September 23 (Technology and Metaphor). All lectures will be at 7:30 in the Hawkins small auditorium. Edge will also lecture in the Science and Society course.

DR. EDWARD REDCAY ESTABLISHES ROBERT FROST POETRY AWARD

An award for excellence in poetry has been established by Dr. Edward E. Redcay in honor of the late poet Robert Frost. The award, which will total approximately $200 annually, will be presented at the college's Honors Convocation to a student whose poetry is deemed outstanding. The award recipient will be selected by members of the English department faculty.

For 11 years, beginning in 1948, Robert Frost visited the campus as Dr. Redcay's guest. He would deliver a lecture in Hawkins Hall, then spend two or three days meeting with students. The two had met in 1927 when Dr. Redcay was a senior at Dartmouth College. They became good friends and visited each other's home until Frost's death in 1963.

Dr. Redcay previously donated his memorabilia concerning Frost to the Feinberg Library Special Collections.

weekly notes

A recent issue of Linden Lane Magazine featured a poem in Spanish entitled "Voy al agua" by Dr. Thomas J. Braga, associate professor in the department of foreign languages. His poem in Portuguese entitled "Demore" appeared in the September issue of Peregrinacao, a journal of Portuguese arts and letters, published in Switzerland. During the summer, Braga gave a poetry reading in Paris at Shakespeare and Company. . . Dr. Marilyn Chase, director of the Center for Human Resources, received a plaque in appreciation for her services as a member of the Major Appliance Consumer Action Panel. . . Dr. Peter Gore, professor of environmental science, spent two weeks in El Salvador during the summer doing a follow-up study on land reform for the State Department's Agency for International Development. . . Dr. Alexis Levitin's translation of selected poems by Eugenio de Andrade, entitled Inhabited Heart, has been published by Perivale Press. Levitin is an assistant professor of English. . . "Could Computers Have Rights," an article by Dr. David Mowry, associate professor of philosophy, has been accepted for publication in a fall issue of "Contemporary Philosophy," the journal of the Institute for Advanced Philosophic Research. . . Effective Teaching and Student Achievement by Dr. Nicholas Troisi, dean of professional studies, is abstracted in a recent edition of "The Best of ERIC on Educational Management." . . Photographs by Roger Williams, associate professor in the Center for Art, Music and Theatre, were included in two juried exhibitions this summer: "Contemporary Trends: Photo '85" at the Institute for Contemporary Arts in Michigan, and "National Aperture '85" in North Carolina. . . Jan Edwards, assistant to the president for enrollment management, and Nancy J. Church, instructor in the Center for Business and Economics, presented a panel of "Women in Management" at a meeting of the SUNY College Admissions Personnel Conference in June. . . "EPR Study of Temperature-Dependent Vibronic Effects in a Solid Mixed-Valence (Benzotriazolato) Copper (I,II) Complex," an article co-authored by Dr. Gerald Kokoszka, professor of chemistry, and two former students, Frank Padula and Cindy Goldstein, has been published in the Journal of Physical Chemistry. . . Drs. Gerhard Gruendling, Donald Bogucki, and Kenneth B. Adams, and Eileen Allen, from the Center for Environmental Science, attended the EPA Workshop "Regionalization of Aquatic Impacts Using the Adirondack Region as a Case Study," which was held at Paul Smith's College in August. The four presented a paper and a poster session entitled "Data Collection for Testing Alternative Hypotheses to Increased Acidification and Fish Population Declines in Adirondack Surface Waters." Gruendling, Bogucki and Adams also coordinated and led field trips to areas of the Adirondacks impacted by acid rain. . . The following students have been elected officers of the campus chapter of the National Student Speech-Language-Hearing Association: Doreen Burke, president; Eileen Green, vice president; Jeanne Haeffling, treasurer; Theresa Pryor, secretary; Paula Dumas, public relations.

this week on campus

Unless otherwise noted, all events are free and open to the campus and the public.

THURSDAY, SEPTEMBER 5

11:30 am - 1:30 & 5 - 5 pm — Shifting Gears: Resources for Adult Students. Open to the campus. Re-entry Student Drop-In Center, Angell Center.

12 noon - 3 pm — Commuter Student Reception sponsored by the Commuter Club. Open to the campus. Angell Center Commuter Center.

2 pm — Feinberg Library Tour. Open to the campus. Feinberg Main Lobby.

3:30 pm — The Opening Week Committee sponsors "Rendezvous for Booklovers" featuring Dr. Richard Robbins speaking on "How to Grade Your Professors and Other Unexpected Advice" by Jacob Neusier. Angell Center Cardinal Lounge.

3:30 - 4:30 pm — Study Skills Seminar sponsored by S.S.P. Open to the campus. Angell Center Conference Room.

7 pm — Spotlight On: Dr. Naomi McCormick speaking on "Date/Acquaintance Rape." Angell Center Ballroom.

8:30 pm — Battle of Plattsburgh — 1985 Champs, Wilson Hall vs. Faculty. Angell Center Cardinal Lounge.

FRIDAY, SEPTEMBER 6

11 am — Feinberg Library Tour. Open to the campus. Feinberg Library Main Lobby.

11:30 am - 1:30 pm — Shifting Gears: Resources for Adult Students. Open to the campus. Re-entry Student Drop-In Center, Angell Center.

3 pm — Survival on Campus: Resources for Students with Handicapping Conditions. Sponsored by the 504 Committee. Open to the campus. Angell Center Conference Room.

4 pm — Annual UUP Picnic. Open to members only at $1/person. Valcour Boat House.

10 pm — Orchard Room by Night Club — featuring the Jazz Quartet. Angell Center Orchard Room.

SATURDAY, SEPTEMBER 7

10 am — Opening Week Fun Run — 3.5 mile run. Open to the campus. Sign up at the Angell Center Desk. Memorial Hall.

12 noon — AuSable Chasm Tour: Experience the thrill of Ausable Chasm. Sponsored by the Opening Week Committee. Open to the campus. Tickets are $1, sign up at the Angell Center Desk. Bus departs from Memorial Hall.

1 pm — Courtyard Concert, "Full House" sponsored by ACB Bands in the Ballrooms. Open to the campus no charge. Angell Center Courtyard.

1 pm — Men's Soccer: PSUC vs. Plymouth State. Field House.

1 pm — Women's Tennis: PSUC vs. Potsdam State. Field House Courts.

SUNDAY, SEPTEMBER 8

4 pm — All Campus Picnic — cash and meal ticket basis. Sponsored by Marriott. Open to the campus. Memorial Field.

6:30 pm — Tree Planting Ceremony by the Class of 1989. Open to the campus. Hawkins Hall front lawn.

6:45 & 9:15 pm — Sunday Night Movie: "Witness." Sponsored by the Student Association Film Committee. Open to the campus. Student tickets are 50¢, faculty $1 and on sale at the Angell Center Desk. Hawkins Hall Large Auditorium.

MONDAY, SEPTEMBER 9

8 pm — Campus Poet Series presents An Open Reading. Sponsored by the Faculty of Arts and Science. Angell Center Cardinal Lounge.

TUESDAY, SEPTEMBER 10

4:15 pm — Regular meeting of Omicron Delta Kappa. Members only. Angell Center Amnesty Room.

5 pm — Greek Presidents Meeting sponsored by Campus Life. Open to members only. Angell Center Conference Room.

6 - 7 pm — Tour Guide Training Sessions. All interested students are encouraged to attend. Sponsored by the Admissions Office. Open to the campus. Angell Center Cardinal Lounge.

WEDNESDAY, SEPTEMBER 11

Noon - 1 pm — Informational meeting — Copeland Association. Sponsored by the Personnel Office. Open to the campus. Angell Center Cardinal Lounge.

6 - 7 pm — Tour Guide Training Sessions. All interested students are encouraged to attend. Sponsored by the Admissions Office. Open to the campus. Angell Center Cardinal Lounge.

THURSDAY, SEPTEMBER 12

11:15 am - 1 pm — Women's Study Forum sponsored by the Women's Studies Program. Angell Center Cardinal Lounge.

4:15 pm — First meeting of the Marketing Club. Information on coming events for the 1985-'86 academic year. Open to the campus. Angell Center Ballroom.

5 pm — Carnival organizational meeting sponsored by Campus Life. Open to the campus. Angell Center Conference Room.

CALENDAR NOTES

Good-Better-Best Aerobics beginning Monday, September 9, 1985. Monday through Thursday at 5 p.m., Friday at 3 p.m., Sunday at 3 p.m. Open to all, no charge. Angell Center Blue Room.

An Academic Planner is now available in the College Store. The weekly minder/calendar book shows the academic calendar, weekend activities, athletic events, and major campus activities. Students interested in participating in the Assembly Session Intern Program for the spring semester should contact Dr. Harvey Schantz in the political science department for information.

GALLERY EXHIBITIONS

Myers Fine Arts Gallery: "Contemporary Landscape Paintings of the Adirondacks/Champlain Valley"

Rockwell Kent Gallery: "Annual Art Faculty Exhibit" and "Graphic Arts of Rockwell Kent"

Myers Fine Arts Lobby: "I Love N.Y. Paper, PSUC Student Works on Paper"

CURRENT JOB LISTINGS

Department

Closing Date

Afro-American Studies

Instructor/Lecturer

10/15/85*

Biological Sciences

Assistant/Associate Professor (Plant Physiologist)

10/15/85

Business and Economics

Accounting and Management Faculty

Open

Foreign Languages and Literature

Part-Time Instructors (German, French & Spanish) Open

Upward Bound

Tutorial and Activities Coordinator

9/6/85

*Or until a qualified candidate is found.

Complete details are available in the Office of Personnel and Affirmative Action.

President Burke's Address to Faculty

Eight months ago, the Independent Commission on the Future of State University issued a dramatic report, entitled The Challenge and the Choice. This report challenged the political leaders of New York to make the choice to free State University from bureaucratic restrictions that made it "the most over-regulated university in the country" and hindered its campuses from achieving the highest level of quality. The governor and the legislature accepted the challenge and made the choice by approving the new flexibility law. This law gives the SUNY system and its campuses more autonomy to allocate resources in order to provide the highest quality educational services to the citizens of the state. The challenge and the choice now shifts from the capitol to our campus. The quality of our performance in the next few years will test whether we have the courage and the creativity to demonstrate that the purpose of both autonomy and accountability is identical — to ensure the highest quality educational services to students and society. We must show state officials that we want more autonomy, not to satisfy ourselves, but to serve society better.

The flexibility law does not guarantee more money, but it does grant the next best thing — it increases our ability to shift available resources to enhance our performance. Our budget submissions and those of the SUNY system will remain the same detailed spending plans as in the past. The Executive Budget Proposal and the final budget as approved by the legislature and the governor will continue to contain detailed appropriations for each campus. The dramatic change will occur in the distribution of appropriated funds and authorized positions. The law permits a campus — without prior approval of SUNY and state officials — to shift up to five percent of its resources among budget functions and categories. We will also have the freedom with the approval of the Board of Trustees — and without the approval of the Division of the Budget — to transfer positions among campus functions. The flexibility law authorizes the Trustees of State University to reallocate positions among campuses and to transfer up to 3% of a campus budget to other units. It also allows a campus to purchase — without prior approval — equipment, supplies, and services up to $20,000 and printing up to $5,000. This legislation does not grant all the autonomy recommended by the independent commission, but it does give considerable freedom to SUNY and its campuses to manage more effectively our resources.

The flexibility law does not grant a "blank check" to the SUNY system or its state campuses. It requires periodic reports to state officials in both the executive and legislative branches, which demand the reasons for allocations that deviate from the original budget appropriations. Though these reports are for the purpose of information and not approval, all of us should realize that political constraints are as real as legal restrictions. Though state officials have relinquished the right of prior approval of budget transfers, they retain annual control over budget levels. Before deciding to shift funds and positions, we should consider carefully whether the merits of such transfers will convince state officials as well as ourselves. The flexibility bill grants us the liberty to do better — not the license to do whatever we want. The challenge to SUNY and each of its campuses is to choose to use this new autonomy on behalf of a renewed accountability to supply the highest quality educational services to the citizens of this state.

We can best meet this challenge by choosing to implement the three goals for this college that I outlined in my speech to you, the faculty, two years ago.

GOAL ONE: To become and be perceived by internal and external groups as the best comprehensive college in State University.

GOAL TWO: To become and be perceived by internal and external groups as an attractive alternative to the large and complex university centers of State University.

GOAL THREE: To become and be perceived by internal and external groups as a high quality, low cost alternative to the private colleges and universities in New York State.

Acceptance of these goals asserts that we will use our autonomy to achieve the highest standard of accountability — to become the best college in the state — to utilize our talents and resources to become qualitatively better than, and distinctively different from, the other colleges and universities in the state. These goals anticipated by two years the mission for State University stated in the flexibility law.

"The mission of the State University system shall be to provide the people of New York educational services of the highest quality. . . . These services . . . shall be offered through a geographically distributed comprehensive system of diverse campuses which shall have differentiated and designated missions. . . ."

Quality and diversity constitute the goals for SUNY as well as our campus. We can best demonstrate that our campus is worthy of this new autonomy by renewing our commitment to quality and diversity in all of our programs, activities, and services.

These goals of quality and diversity constitute a campus-wide commitment that encompasses every division, center, and department and every member of the faculty and staff. Each center and department has developed a Five Year Plan, detailing how it intends to make its programs qualitatively better than, or distinctively different from, those offered by competing colleges and universities in New York State. The administration has reviewed each of these plans and discussed them with faculty in all but two of the centers and departments.

The development and discussion of these plans has absorbed considerable time and energy. I believe that both the process and the product were clearly worth the effort. These plans represented a serious and successful initial effort at assessing the competitive position of each department and center and at developing a realistic strategy to make its programs qualitatively better than, and distinctively different from, those offered at other colleges and universities in New York State. The plans were surprisingly devoid of defensiveness, though they stressed strengths more than weaknesses. They were surprisingly realistic, though a few assumed additional levels of funding and staffing that seem unlikely. Many of the plans made good use of recent reports from external evaluators. Most of all, the plans exhibited collectively a high level of faculty commitment to the pursuit of quality and diversity of our college and each of its components.

Departments and centers re-examined their curriculum, teaching techniques, and research and service activities with a view of improving their quality and differentiating them from those offered by other colleges and universities in the state. A number of plans proposed exciting new program initiatives, including new majors and minors that would utilize the expertise of current faculty from several disciplines. Some of these initiatives combined majors or minors in the liberal arts with those in professional areas to expand career options and ensure liberal learning for present and potential students. Centers and departments seem convinced that an undergraduate education should couple theoretical learning and practical experience. These plans proposed to expand and improve internships and field experiences for students. Academic advisement for all students and career planning and placement for all majors received special attention in these reports.

Centers and departments committed themselves to raising the academic standards of their courses and programs. You, the faculty, are convinced, correctly we think, that high but realistic expectations and standards improves student retention and recruitment. Many of the plans urged the faculty to set immediately the academic atmosphere on campus by scheduling assignments and tests during the first week of classes. The college has already planned a rich array of cultural and intellectual events for the opening week this fall. All of the plans from the departments and centers explored ways of developing closer relations between students and faculty, such as joint research projects, seminars and colloquia, and departmental clubs and honors programs. These plans contended that the active involvement of students with faculty and staff in academic and extracurricular activities constituted the critical component in student success and development. They also suggested a variety of ways of immersing our students in the cultural and intellectual life of our campus.

The Five Year Plans contained much more than catalogues of parochial concerns. Particularly pleasing were the repeated references to ways of cooperating with other departments and centers. All of the plans expressed an interest in improving general education and service courses for other majors as well as strengthening their own degree programs. Our new program in "Writing-across-the-curriculum" received repeated endorsement in departments and centers across the campus. All faculty agreed that all Plattsburgh graduates should write well. Departments and centers in the Faculty of Arts and Science stressed their interest in contributing more to professional programs at the college, while the units in the Faculty of Professional Studies voiced their willingness to assist in enhancing the career options of programs in the arts and sciences. The responses from departments and offices in Academic Affairs, Student Affairs, Maintenance and Operations, and General Institutional Services voiced their commitment to improving the quality of life and learning on campus.

These plans constitute a firm beginning on which to build a five-year strategy for our college and each of its components that responds to the challenge of increased external competition with increased internal creativity. They suggest that our programs are better than outsiders think and even better than we believe. We can hardly expect potential students and supporters outside the college to perceive the quality and distinctiveness of our campus and its programs and activities when our own faculty and staff do not appreciate the accomplishments of their colleagues in other divisions, centers, and departments. These Five Year Plans will help us articulate more clearly, both internally and externally, the true quality and distinctiveness of our programs and services. We should remember that making our college the best in the state and making each of our programs qualitatively better than and, distinctively different from, those in other colleges and universities in New York is a continuing goal and not a momentary task. We encourage all of the centers and departments to implement the creative suggestions in their reports and to continue to examine their operations and those of the college to discover new and better ways of improving academic quality and student involvement.

While you continue to strive to do better, everyone on campus — faculty, staff, and students — should appreciate that you are already performing very well indeed. While your accomplishments are too many to recount in a brief speech, a few examples will illustrate the range of your successes. Statistics suggest that academic standards have been strengthened and that grade inflation has subsided. At the same time, the college's retention rate of current students has been raised by 4% in the last two years. You have proved that increased standards and increased retention are complementary, and not conflicting, goals. Evidence abounds that our graduates compete well with those from other colleges and universities in the state or the nation. For example, our graduates in teacher education last year achieved a passage rate on the National Teachers Exam that far exceeded that projected for education graduates nationally. Twenty-five percent of our graduates who took the demanding examination for Certified Public Accountants passed, as opposed to a state-wide average of 14%. Ninety-five percent of our graduating class of 1984 are employed — with over seventy-six percent working in fields related to their college major. This placement record is not limited to graduates in a few popular fields. Graduates in all of our majors have done well in the job market; and the great majority of them insist that you have prepared them well for both life and careers. The recent publication by the Office of Sponsored Research shows your impressive record of scholarship. The receipt of a Guggenheim grant, a distinguished SUNY Professorship, and two Fulbright Fellowships for this year is remarkable given the size of our faculty. These and many more examples, too numerous to mention, testify to the quality of your activities in teaching, research and creative activities. Despite this outstanding record, your Five Year Plans voice a commitment to improving the quality of our performance at the department, center, and college levels.

Though your Five Year Plans leave no doubt about your commitment to quality, they do raise concerns about the meaning of "quality" in colleges and universities. It is astonishing but true that institutions of higher education, the oldest corporations known to society, have never developed an acceptable definition of "quality." In my speech to you last fall, I tried to address this crucial question. I noted that although academics often lament our "materialistic" and "acquisitive" society, we commonly use quantitative measures, or a "resource model," when judging the quality of colleges and universities. Conventional wisdom on campuses across the country assumes that the "best" colleges and universities have the most money, the most faculty with the most publications, the most library books, the most programs with the best SAT scores. This "resource model" of quality assumes that the greater the resources or the "inputs" the better the performance or the product of a college or university. It says nothing about student development or institutional impact. It confuses "quantity" with "quality" and conceives of the operation of a campus, like that of a computer, as merely a matter of good in — good out. Imagine manufacturers that only bragged about the raw materials used in their products and the high cost of production but said nothing about how the manufacturing process added to the value of their goods.

Such a resource model of quality can not survive the scrutiny of either scholars, students, or society. It appears alien to academics, for scholars always reject assumptions and assertions and insist on proof and evidence. Howard Bowen, the leading authority on the economics of higher education, recently studied funding and performance in colleges and universities across the country. His sample of institutions included some of the most prestigious private and public colleges and universities in the land. He discovered no relationship between the quantity of campus funding and the quality of student learning. The only conclusion he reached was that institutions of higher education always spend all of the money they receive or raise. He found no correlation between expenditures per student and the development of students during the college years.

The resource model of institutional quality insults faculty and staff. It belittles your contribution and creativity, for it assumes that the success or failure of a college or university depends solely on what you receive rather than on how you perform. The resource model also insults the intelligence of the brightest students. The best students demand the most from a college or university. The institution that can prove that it adds the most to the development of its graduates is likely to attract the best students. Such students are already bright; they want a campus that makes them even better.

The resource model also conflicts with the public's disbelief that quantity funding guarantees quality performance. Two years ago, a series of national reports criticized the quality of elementary and secondary schools despite their increasing costs. Last year, no less than three national reports, written by friends rather than critics of higher education, raised serious questions about the quality and effectiveness of undergraduate education in the United States, despite cost increases per student that far exceeded inflation rates. The current criticism of the quality of education at every level demonstrates the need to reject the old resource model of quality and to replace it with a new performance model of excellence. Current developments indicate that the public, and increasingly educational experts, will judge the quality of colleges and universities on their "outcomes" rather than on their "incomes."

The most thoughtful report on higher education came from the National Institute of Education, entitled Involvement in Learning. It raised the revolutionary idea that the quality of colleges and universities should be judged on their outcomes and outputs rather than on their incomes and inputs. Even more revolutionary was the insistence that institutions of higher education should present periodically to the general public and prospective students systematic evidence of their "institutional impact" on their graduates. This report insisted that the true test of institutional quality was the institutional contribution, or the "value added," to the intellectual and personal development of their students.

Our college anticipated the thrust of the N.I.E. report when it developed over a year ago its "Value Added Project." In my speech to you last fall, I predicted:

"External groups will insist on convincing evidence of our institutional impact, on the students we enroll and the society we serve. They will want to compare the accomplishments of our students when they entered with their improvement in performance by graduation. The true test of 'quality,' will become the institutional contribution, or the 'value added,' to the intellectual and personal development of our students. External publics will judge the quality of a college or university not on its capacity to recruit the brightest students and to receive the most resources but on its ability to assist its students to become the best they are capable of being."

This fall, we will begin implementing our Value Added Project. It will assess the institutional impact of our college and its programs and activities by measuring the intellectual and personal development of our students from their entrance to graduation through periodic surveys and nationally normed tests. This fall, we intend to have all full-time freshmen take the achievement test of the American College Testing Service. Two years later, they will retake the same test. The initial test will allow us to access the strengths and weaknesses of our incoming students. The collective results will enable us to tailor our curricula at the department, center, and college levels to meet the needs of our students. The individual results will assist academic advisors and advisees to choose courses that build upon student strengths and bolster their weaknesses. The second test at the end of the sophomore year will allow us to access the impact of our general education program and service courses on student development. It will also permit advisors to continue to work with advisees to improve their weaknesses and enhance their strengths. Finally, in the last semester of the senior year all students will take a nationally normed test in their major, which will help departments and centers to assess their programs in comparison with those offered at colleges and universities across the country. Periodic surveys of student perceptions of campus programs and activities will help us to improve all of our services from admissions to athletics, from counseling to career planning, from financial aids to food services, from registration to residences.

Value added provides a vital meaning of institutional quality and supplies the missing link between the goals of the college and those of every division, center, and department. It links the progress of our students individually and collectively with our performance at the college, division, center, and department levels. The tests will allow us to compare the preparation and development of our students with those of students across the country. They will enable us to assess the initial strengths and weaknesses of individual students in order to help them become by graduation the best that they are capable of being. They will assist the evaluation of the effectiveness of the curriculum of the college and each of its departments and centers so that we can plan our courses and programs to meet the needs of our students.

The purpose of the Value Added Project is not to find fault with ourselves or our students but to improve performance — both ours and theirs. Value added will fail miserably, if it not only begins but ends with the testing of students. The tests are a means, not an end. The true test will be whether we use their results creatively to raise our performance and that of our students to the highest level of excellence. We must be prepared to change our attitudes and approaches, just as we expect students to change theirs, when the test results show the need for change. Value added will require courage, commitment, and creativity from everyone on campus — students, faculty, and staff. The goal is clearly worth the effort — to ensure that all Plattsburgh graduates have learned to become the very best persons and professionals they are capable of being.

Our college was founded almost a century ago. During its long history, it has met many difficult challenges and made many courageous choices. But none of these challenges or choices can match those required by the Value Added Project. Even the momentous change from a single-purpose teacher training institution to a multi-purpose university college did not present such a profound challenge and choice. It came as a dictate from the capitol and not as commitment from this campus. No action can do more than Value Added to help us become qualitatively better than, and distinctively different from other colleges and universities.

The passage of the flexibility law shifts the challenge and the choice from the State Capitol in Albany to each campus in SUNY. Our challenge is clear; our choice is certain. The challenge is to make our college the best in the state and the country. The choice is to measure our success by the value we add to the intellectual and personal development of our students. Our performance during the next few years will prove whether we have the commitment, courage, and creativity to set a new standard of quality for ourselves and for all of higher education. This standard insists that the "best" college or university is the one that teaches all of its students to become the best that they are capable of being. Value added asks the best from our students. Surely, we can ask no less than the best from ourselves.

TEN FACULTY MEMBERS PROMOTED, THREE TO FULL PROFESSOR

Ten members of the college faculty have been promoted effective this semester, three of them to full professor. They are Ann Fleury, associate professor, computer science; Dr. William Gaeddert, associate professor, psychology; Dr. Edwin Hamblet, professor, foreign language and literature; Dr. William Krueger, professor, chemistry; Dr. Daphne Kutzer, associate professor, English; Dr. Richard Lamb, associate professor, Center for Earth and Environmental Science; Dr. Sarah Lord, associate professor, Center for Human Resources; Dr. Harvey Schantz, associate professor, political science; Dr. Eleanor Stoller, professor, sociology; and Susan Viscomi, assistant professor, PEARS.

Gaeddert

Hamblet

Krueger

Kutzer

Lamb

Lord

Schantz

Stoller

Viscomi

Fleury, a member of the computer science department since 1973, holds degrees from the University of Wisconsin and Rutgers. She has completed all requirements for her Ph.D. except her dissertation and is currently on leave doing graduate work in computer science at the University of Wisconsin at Madison. She chaired the computer science curriculum committee for six years and is currently a member of the FAS committee on courses and programs.

Gaeddert has been a faculty member since 1981. He holds degrees from SUNY at Fredonia and Iowa State University. He is a recent recipient (with Dr. Henry Morlock) of a SUNY Grant for the Improvement of Undergraduate Education to develop a program teaching writing using computer technology. Gaeddert has done extensive research and writing on the subject of sex and sex-role effects on achievement behavior.

Hamblet, who received degrees from Bowdoin, Middlebury, and Pennsylvania State University, has been a member of the faculty since 1968. He is a member of the Canadian Studies faculty and co-directs the summer French Canadian Institute which is funded by the NEH. Hamblet has received three NEH fellowships for post doctoral seminars and is a past president of the American Council for Quebec Studies.

Appointed to the Plattsburgh faculty in 1968, Krueger earned his degrees from the University of Notre Dame and the University of New Hampshire. He has done considerable research on nitrenes from vinyl nitro compounds, the addition of trialkyl phosphites to nitroalkenes, nitrosamines, and nitrosoimines. Krueger's research has been supported by several grants from the American Chemical Society and the SUNY Research Foundation.

A member of the English department since 1979, Kutzer also teaches in the Women's Studies program, and has written numerous articles on various aspects of children's literature. Kutzer taught one of the first two Honors Seminars offered in the fall of 1984. She has served on the Faculty Senate and is a member of the Writing Across the Curriculum Committee. She received her degrees from Mount Holyoke and Indiana University.

Educated at SUNY Buffalo and the University of Chicago, Lamb has taught geography courses at Plattsburgh State since 1981. He previously taught at the SUNY College at Geneseo and at West Virginia University. He is the author of one book, Metropolitan Impacts on Rural America, and several articles on planning issues. He has also conducted planning studies for numerous municipalities. This past summer, Lamb was contracted by the Temporary State Commission on Tug Hill to do regional planning work in connection with the Fort Drum expansion near Watertown.

Lord joined the college's home economics faculty in 1979 after receiving degrees from the University of Montana and Oregon State University. Last year she received (with Dr. Warren Bentzen) a SUNY Faculty Grant for the Improvement of Undergraduate Instruction to develop a course on drama techniques to teach large groups. Lord is presently a member of the Future Homemakers of American National Teacher Education Task Force and also of the Regional Team for the Piloting of the Home and Career Skills curriculum in public schools. She recently served as a team leader for curriculum development for the NYS Education Department.

Schantz holds degrees from Brooklyn College and Johns Hopkins University. He became a member of the college's faculty in 1979. On campus he supervises the placement of interns in the NYS Assembly. Schantz has published several articles on American politics in scholarly journals. He is currently on leave and will spend the 1985-86 academic year as a Visiting Fellow at Yale University.

Stoller joined the sociology department in 1973. She holds degrees from Grinnell College and Washington University. She has done considerable research on the aging and recently completed work funded by a three-year $330,000 grant from the Administration on the Aging. Stoller has also done research on death and dying and has published several articles in both areas of specialization.

Viscomi, who has coached the women's soccer team to a 43-16-1 record over the past five years, joined the physical education faculty in 1980. She also serves as assistant track and field coach and directs the Summer Soccer Camp on campus. Viscomi earned her degrees from the SUNY College at Cortland and Colgate University.

SKOPP WINS FULBRIGHT GRANT FOR RESEARCH IN WEST GERMANY

Dr. Douglas Skopp, chairman of the history department, has been selected to receive a Fulbright Grant to lecture and do research at the University of Hannover in West Germany. The Fulbright Program functions under the authority of the Mutual Educational and Cultural Exchange Act of 1961 and is operated by the Council for the International Exchange of Scholars.

Skopp will spend two full semesters in Germany as a guest professor. While there, he will continue his research on German professions, focusing on the German medical profession between 1900 and 1945.

Skopp joined the faculty at Plattsburgh State in 1972 as an assistant professor, and has since been promoted to associate professor (1976) and full professor (1983). He chaired the history department in 1981-82 and returned to that position in 1983 after spending one year as acting associate vice president for academic affairs.

He is a recipient of several SUNY research grants and has written extensively on the German educational system. He earned his bachelor's degree from Dartmouth College in 1963, his master's degree from Connecticut College in 1964, and his doctorate from Brown University in 1974. He also studied at the University of Freiburg.

SPORTS UPDATE; FALL SPORTS SEASON UNDERWAY

The Cardinal athletic teams opened up the 1985-86 season to mixed results last week.

The men's and women's cross country teams opened the 1985 season on a successful note by finishing first and second, respectively, at the St. Michael's Invitational on Saturday. The men outdistanced second place Potsdam 41-76 and were paced by a fourth place effort by Sophomore Michael DeVivo. The women's second place finish was paced by Ellen Kissane's 20:26 fourth place time.

Chris Waterbury's debut as men's soccer coach was marred by a pair of defeats last week. The Cards lost to Vermont 5-1 last Wednesday with Senior Donovan Scott scoring PSUC's lone goal. On Saturday the Cardinals were blanked 3-0 by nationally ranked Plymouth State. The women's tennis team routed Potsdam 8-1, making Diana Alexander's debut as head coach a successful one.

The women's soccer team tuned up for the regular season by playing in the Plymouth State pre-season tournament. The Cardinals lost to nationally ranked Division I power Massachusetts 1-0 and tied both the University of Rhode Island and Plymouth 1-1. Sue Viscomi's squad opens the regular season Friday at home against New Paltz at 4:00.

ACADEMIC PROGRESS OF STUDENTS RECEIVING FINANCIAL AID TO BE CLOSELY MONITORED

Academic progress will now be monitored after each semester to evaluate students' continued eligibility for federal and state aid programs, according to Suzanne Sokolowski, director of financial aid. Students who fail to complete twelve credits and earn a minimum 2.0 g.p.a. in any semester may be jeopardizing their ability to continue to receive federal and/or state aid.

The Financial Aid Office will apply two tests to determine continued eligibility for federal Title IV aid. Programs covered by this law include College Work-Study, Guaranteed Student Bank Loan, National Direct Student Loan, Pell Grant, and Supplemental Educational Opportunity Grant.

The first test coincides with the current college policy on credit hours completed and expected minimum grade point average. The second test calculates the number of credits which must be earned each year based on a minimum time frame of six years of full-time study. Students who fail to meet the guidelines will be permitted to appeal the decision regarding loss of Title IV eligibility. Students who can document mitigating circumstances and whose appeals are successful will be allowed a one-year probationary period during which time they will still be considered to be making satisfactory progress toward a degree. Students who withdraw during a semester without proof of mitigating circumstances will lose their financial aid for the first semester they return unless they have taken course work at another school which results in their having made academic progress.

Students who are initially academically dismissed and readmitted and students on probation will be granted probationary status for one year if they qualify under the mitigating circumstance clause above.

Students whose appeals have been denied or who have not appealed and who choose to remain enrolled at PSUC without receipt of Title IV federal student assistance may request a review of their academic records after the summer, fall, or winter terms for a determination of whether the course work taken in those periods has brought them up to the appropriate standard. If the standard is met with the inclusion of the course work, eligibility for receipt of Title IV federal student assistant may be restored for subsequent terms in that year.

Continued eligibility for state aid in the form of TAP and Regents Scholarship awards must also be monitored, but on a different scale. The state standards depend on the number of credits completed in any semester, the total degree credits accumulated, and the gpa achieved as measured against the number of student aid payments already received. Failure to meet the standard results in cancellation of the award for at least a semester. Students who fall below the minimum standards may ask for and be granted one waiver during their undergraduate career. Students are expected to make minimum progress thereafter.

COLLEGE AUXILIARY SERVICES DONATES $5,000 TO COLLEGE FOUNDATION

The Board of Directors of College Auxiliary Services voted at its last meeting to make a $5,000 contribution to the Plattsburgh College Foundation. Stan Supinski, executive director of CAS, said, "CAS has for a long time provided programming money for the campus. We support various student-oriented activities. For example, we've helped pay for speakers to come to campus, we help pay for commencement activities, and we've contributed to the beautification efforts on campus. A gift to the Foundation to help support students in completing their education is just one more way in which CAS can give something back to the campus."

COHEN WINS THREE-YEAR GRANT FROM NSF TO CONTINUE RESEARCH ON MAYA

Dr. Mark Cohen, professor of anthropology, has been awarded a three-year renewal of a grant from the National Science Foundation to continue his research project on the health of the Maya in Belize. The grant, in the amount of $143,000, will support two additional seasons of excavation in that country and three years of laboratory work on the Plattsburgh campus by Cohen and his research team. Cohen, who recently won a John Simon Guggenheim Memorial Foundation Fellowship, is currently working on a book on the impact of civilization on human health, which is based on his research with the Mayan skeletons already excavated.

Cohen has been a member of the faculty since 1972. He is the author of two books, The Food Crisis in Prehistory, and Paleopathology at the Origins of Agriculture, and the senior editor of a third, Biosocial Mechanisms of Population Regulation. He will spend the 1985-86 academic year as a visiting scholar in the department of archaeology at Wolfson College of Cambridge University in London, England.

DR. JOHN THOMPSON NAMED A DISTINGUISHED VISITING PROFESSOR IN HISTORY DEPARTMENT

Dr. John Thompson, executive director of Universities Field Staff International, will spend the fall semester as a Distinguished Visiting Professor in the college's history department. Considered to be an expert on Soviet history and U.S.-Soviet relations, Thompson is the author of six books, including Revolutionary Russia 1917, which was named one of the Outstanding Academic books of 1982 by Choice magazine. He has taught at Rutgers University, Columbia University, Indiana University, the University of California, the University of Maine, the U.S. Air Force Academy, and the University of Hawaii. Thompson will be teaching regular classes and will also give several lectures which will be open to the campus and the public.

weekly notes

Dr. Shakeh Agajanian, professor emeritus of English, had two books published in August. A Scholarly, Philosophical, Theological, Historical and Literary Evaluation of Elizabeth Barrett Browning's 'Sonnets from the Portuguese' was published by Philosophical Library Publishers and a collection of her original poems written in Armenian was published by Voskedar Publications. . . Dr. Helen Deresky, assistant professor in the School of Business and Economics, presented two papers to the 45th Annual Academy of Management meeting held in August in San Diego. The papers were entitled "The Strategic Contingency in the General Manager's Role" in the Business Policy and Planning Division and "Advances in Research on Executive Work and Behavior: Challenges for Management Education" in the Management Education and Development Division. . . John Duncan, technical specialist with the Technical Assistance Center, presented a speech on the Adirondack Economic Base at a conference entitled "Wildlife and Man in the Adirondacks: Past, Present and Future," which was held to commemorate the 100th anniversary of the Adirondack Forest Preserve. . . "Receptor Damage from Airborne Residuals: Problems in the International Transfer of Research Results," a paper by Dr. Walter Page, professor in the School of Business and Economics, has been accepted for presentation this week at the "First Conference on Environmental Economics in Mexico and Latin America." The conference is being held in Mexico and is sponsored by the United Nations Environment Programme and the Mexican Secretariat for Urban Development and Ecology. . . Dr. Prem Gandhi, professor in the School of Business and Economics, has been appointed by SUNY Chancellor Clifton R. Wharton, Jr. as a Faculty Fellow of the Nelson A. Rockefeller Institute of Government for a five-year term. . . Dr. Thomas Rumney, assistant professor in the Center for Earth and Environmental Science, published a book review of William Cronon's Changes in the Land: Indians, Colonists and the Ecology of England in The Professional Geographer.

this week on campus

Unless otherwise noted, all events are free and open to the campus and the public.

THURSDAY, SEPTEMBER 12

9 am - noon and 1 - 4 pm — Student Employment/Registration Session (non-college work study). Sponsored by the office of Student Employment and Financial Aids. Open to enrolled PSUC students. Angell Center Conference Room.

11:30 am - 12:45 pm — Women's Study Forum: "What is Women's Studies?" A panel of students with Mary Connolly, Eric Paikoff, Carol Reynolds, Donna Vola and Heidi Zucker. Sponsored by the Women's Studies Program. Angell Center Cardinal Lounge.

7:30 and 8:30 pm — "Ephemeris" Planetarium Show. Free tickets are available weekdays in Hudson Hall 101.

FRIDAY, SEPTEMBER 13

4 pm — Women's soccer vs. New Paltz. Field House.

1:30 - 2:30 and 4:30 - 5:30 pm — Informational meeting — E.F. Hutton. Sponsored by the office of Personnel. Open to the campus. Angell Center Cardinal Lounge.

4:15 pm — First meeting of the Marketing Club. Information on coming events for the 1985-'86 academic year. Open to the campus. Refreshments will be served. Angell Center Ballroom.

5 pm — Carnival organizational meeting sponsored by Campus Life. Open to the campus. Angell Center Conference Room.

SUNDAY, SEPTEMBER 15

2 pm — Women's soccer vs. Cortland. Field House.

6:45 and 9:15 pm — S.A. Film Committee presents "Blazing Saddles." S.A. member tickets are 50¢, faculty $1 and on sale at the Angell Center Desk. Hawkins Hall Large Auditorium.

8 pm — Sabra and Shatilia Memorial sponsored by the Students for Peace. Angell Center Ballrooms.

MONDAY, SEPTEMBER 16

8 pm — Environmental Action Committee "If You Love This Planet" film. Angell Center Ballroom.

TUESDAY, SEPTEMBER 17

1 - 2 pm — Informational meeting — Copeland Association sponsored by the Personnel Office. Open to the campus, no charge. Angell Center Cardinal Lounge.

3 pm — Career Life Planning and Placement Services Workshop. Open to the campus. Angell Center Conference Room.

4:15 pm — Faculty Senate Meeting. Open to the campus. Angell Center Orchard Room.

4:15 pm — Workshop on "How to Improve Your Lecture Notetaking Skills" sponsored by S.S.P. Open to the campus. Angell Center Conference Room.

6 pm — Open House Tour Guide Training Session sponsored by Admissions. All interested students are encouraged to attend. Angell Center Cardinal Lounge.

7 pm — Whale Watch Informational Mandatory meeting sponsored by Campus Life. Angell Center Cardinal Lounge.

7:30 pm — Dr. David Edge will lecture on "Technology and Democracy." Hawkins Hall small auditorium.

8 pm — Champlain Chamber Music Series presents Kathryn Stuart, Fortepiano. Hartman Theatre.

WEDNESDAY, SEPTEMBER 18

10 am - 3 pm — CVPH Blood Drive. Angell Center Ballrooms.

3 pm — Resumes and Cover Letters Workshop sponsored by the office of Career Life Planning and Placement. Open to the campus. Angell Center Conference Room.

4 pm — Women's soccer vs. Clarkson. Field House.

4:15 pm — Workshop on "How to Improve Your Lecture Notetaking Skills" sponsored by S.S.P. Open to the campus. Angell Center Conference Room.

5 pm — Yoga Exercise and Relaxation. New members welcome. Memorial Hall Recreation Room (lower level).

6 pm — Open House Tour Guide Training Session sponsored by Admissions. All interested students are encouraged to attend. Angell Center Cardinal Lounge.

8:30 pm — Gay Alliance at Plattsburgh — GAP first organizational meeting. Angell Center Meeting Room 2.

THURSDAY, SEPTEMBER 19

11:30 am - 12:45 pm — Women's Studies Forum features Sharon Gonsalves speaking on "The Politics of Women's Issues from Campus to Community." Sponsored by the Women's Studies Program. Angell Center Cardinal Lounge.

2:30 pm — Study Abroad Informational sponsored by the Center for International Education. Open to the campus. Angell Center Cardinal Lounge.

3 pm — Targeting Your Job Search Workshop sponsored by the Office of Career Life Planning and Placement. Open to the campus. Angell Center Conference Room.

7:30 pm — New and Renew Evening sponsored by the Faculty Women's Organization. Open to members only, no charge. Angell Center Cardinal Lounge.

CALENDAR NOTES

Good-Better-Best Aerobics beginning Monday, September 9, 1985. Monday through Thursday at 5 pm, Friday at 3 pm, Sunday at 3 pm. Open to all, no charge. Angell Center Blue Room. Information and applications for Fulbright grants for graduate study abroad for 1986-87 are available in Hudson Hall 101. The campus deadline for applying is Oct. 1, 1985. Basic eligibility requirements include: U.S. citizenship; a bachelor's degree or equivalent before fall, 1986; language proficiency suitable to carry out study in a foreign country; and good health.

The Office of Personnel and Affirmative Action will sponsor presentations from three companies authorized to offer Tax Sheltered Annuities to faculty and staff. The representatives from these companies will discuss the specific details of the program which they offer. The companies and dates are as follows: Copeland Associates, Sept. 17, 1 pm in the Cardinal Lounge; E.F. Hutton, Sept. 12, 1:30 & 4:30 pm in the Cardinal Lounge; TIAA/CREF, Oct. 7, 12 noon in the Cardinal Lounge.

Applications for the 1986 In Vitro Cell Biology & Biotechnology Program are currently being accepted. The deadline receipt date of applications is October 25. An informational meeting and tour of the college science facilities at Miner Center will be held Sept. 27 at 1 pm. For further information, arrangements for visits and applications contact the Biology secretary in Beaumont 207 (564-3155) or Dr. William Graziadei, Miner Center (1-8846-7144).

Adirondack Dance Theatre classes begin September 9. We offer ballet, jazz, tap, middle eastern and dance fitness. 10% discount for PSUC students, faculty and staff. Pick up brochure at Room 127, Hawkins Hall or call 564-2052.

Galleries Exhibits

Myers Fine Arts Gallery: "Contemporary Landscape Paintings of the Adirondacks/Champlain Valley"

Rockwell Kent Gallery: "Annual Art Faculty Exhibit" and "Graphic Arts of Rockwell Kent"

Myers Fine Arts Lobby: "I Love N.Y. Paper, PSUC Student Works on Paper"

CURRENT JOB LISTINGS

Department

Closing Date

Afro-American Studies

Instructor/Lecturer

10/15/85*

Biological Sciences

Assistant/Associate Professor (Plant Physiologist)

10/15/85

Bursar

Clerk

9/14/85

Business and Economics

Accounting and Management Faculty

Open

Foreign Languages and Literature

Part-Time Instructors

(German, French & Spanish)

Open

*Or until qualified candidate is found

Complete details are available in the Office of Personnel and Affirmative Action.

FOUR TO BE INDUCTED INTO HALL OF FAME

A former coach who also directed Plattsburgh's intercollegiate athletic program for 25 years, two athletes whose academic and competitive performances combined earned them recognition as the best in SUNY, and a basketball star who led Plattsburgh to its only SUNYAC title and to the final four in the NCAA championship tournament have been selected for induction this fall to the college's Sports Hall of Fame.

The new members of the Hall of Fame are:

Professor Emeritus Joseph Jastrab of Sarasota, FL, the college's original athletic director, mentor and friend to generations of Plattsburgh State students, who will be remembered particularly for his coaching expertise in basketball (16-year won-lost record of 215-120) and golf; Robert Maher '74, of Peekskill, school administrator, who starred in basketball and baseball at Plattsburgh and whose undergraduate honors included selection as SUNY's Scholar Athlete of the Year and as an NCAA Outstanding College Athlete in America (both in 1974) and who received his alma mater's Alumnus of the Year Award in 1978;

Dr. Richard Semmler '68, of Annandale, VA, professor and chairman of the mathematics and computer science departments at Northern Virginia Community College, outstanding performer at Plattsburgh in track and cross country and the first athlete in SUNY selected to receive the Chancellor's Scholar-Athlete Award; and Larry Parker, Jamaica, Queens, member of the class of '78, currently a controller with a brokerage firm in New York City, who, in addition to being the catalyst for Coach Norm Law's '75-'76 Cinderella Cardinals, established season field goal percentage (63%) and rebound (514) records that still stand and who, in 1974-75, his freshman year, led the nation in rebounding (18.6 per game) and finished third in field goal percentage nationally (62%) to earn ECAC Rookie of the Year honors and a place on the ECAC All-Conference team.

Jastrab, Maher, Semmler and Parker will return to campus for formal induction in ceremonies scheduled for 9:30 a.m. on Sunday, October 20 in the ballroom of the Angell Center. The program, preceded by brunch, is the concluding event in Homecoming Weekend '85 festivities.

The Plattsburgh State Hall of Fame, instituted a year ago, is sponsored by the Cardinal Booster Club in cooperation with the Alumni Association. It was created to "give recognition to individuals who have participated in the college's intercollegiate athletic program and whose achievements and contributions exemplify the ideals of good citizenship."

COLLEGE SETS NEW REQUIREMENTS: 2.0 IN MAJOR COURSES NEEDED FOR GRADUATION

Last spring, President Joseph C. Burke approved a policy recommended by the Faculty Senate, that requires students to have a minimum "C" average (2.0) in courses taken within their major department or program, in order to graduate.

Tom Corigliano, assistant to the vice president for academic affairs, explained it, "The policy, in effect for students entering the college beginning in the fall of 1985, requires a "C" average in all courses offered for graduation, which were taken from the student's major department or program. For example, a history major would need a 2.0 grade point average in all history courses taken, not just those required, in order to qualify for graduation."

CENTER FOR STUDY OF CANADA WINS GRANTS WITH UNIVERSITIES OF MAINE AND VERMONT

The Center for the Study of Canada, in conjunction with the University of Maine at Orono and the University of Vermont, has been awarded a three-year grant from the U.S. Department of Education. The grant, from which the Center will receive $39,500 for the first year, will assist with staffing the Center, library acquisitions, Canada Day activities, the Quebecois Folk Festival, faculty travel, honoraria for guest speakers, office supplies and the expanding internship program. Dr. Richard Beach, Center director, commented, "While the amounts in each category are not large, we received 20% more funds than during the second year of the previous grant from the Office of Education."

PLATTSBURGH GRADUATES PERFORM WELL ABOVE STATE AVERAGE ON CPA EXAM

Plattsburgh State graduates have performed well above the state average on the latest Certified Public Accountants' Examination. The four-part examination is noted for its difficulty and only 14% of the 7,901 candidates who took the test state-wide passed the latest one, which was given in November, 1984. Of the 52 Plattsburgh State graduates who took the test, 25% passed. Following a year of auditing experience under supervision, those alumni will be eligible for permanent certification.

Presently, more than 1,400 students are enrolled in programs in the Center for Business and Economics, which encompasses the accounting major. This fall, the Center becomes a formal School of Business and begins the procedure of qualifying for accreditation by the American Assembly of Collegiate Schools of Business.

NEW FACULTY AND STAFF MEMBERS ADDED TO COLLEGE COMMUNITY

Fifty-three fulltime teaching faculty, non-teaching professionals and staff members have joined the college community. New teaching faculty include:

Phyllis Belt-Beyan, lecturer, Center for Teacher Education (CTE); Dr. James Bonner, assistant professor, Center for Earth and Environmental Science (CEES); Judy Charland, lecturer, CTE; David Curry, lecturer, nursing; Suzanne Daley, lecturer, business and economics; Marcia Dickson, lecturer, English; Jane Ellis, lecturer, mathematics; Dr. Herbert Espinoza, assistant professor, foreign languages; Dr. George Flynn, assistant professor, physics; Dr. David Franz, assistant professor, CEES; Dr. Mohamed Gaber, assistant professor, business and economics; Dr. Cheryl Gowie, associate professor, CTE; Catherine Heaton, instructor, mathematics; Dr. Sylvie Henning, assistant professor, foreign languages; Patricia Hoffer, assistant professor, nursing; Dr. Glenna Howell, visiting assistant professor, CTE; Syed Abul Hyat, lecturer, business and economics; Dr. Jonathan Jacobs, assistant professor, philosophy; Dr. John Kellermeier, assistant professor, mathematics; Dr. Jin Kim, assistant professor, communications; Dr. Thomas Konda, assistant professor, political science; Dr. Rick Melberth, assistant professor, political science; Nora Montanaro, lecturer, CTE; Dr. Joseph Mosca, lecturer, business and economics; Don Osborn, associate professor, CAMT; Dr. Paul Popp, visiting professor, business and economics; M. Zubaidur Rahman, associate professor, business and economics; Zoanne Schnell, visiting assistant professor, nursing; Dr. Bonnie Seidel, assistant professor, biology; Dr. Pirouz Shoar-Ghaffari, assistant professor, communications; Dr. Eric Stroud, assistant professor, mathematics; Robert Treece, lecturer, computer science; Dr. Peter Vaughn, assistant professor, computer science; Christopher Waterbury, assistant professor, PEARS; Dr. Robert Weiss, assistant professor, sociology; and Richard Zielinski, instructor, CAMT.

New non-teaching professionals include: Diana Akey, technical specialist, telecommunications; Claire Barnett, economic development specialist, TAC; Gordon Burdo, TV engineer, Instructional Engineering and Maintenance; Robin Dembo, residence hall director; Dr. Bernice Dicks, academic coordinator, EOP; John Duncan, technical specialist, TAC; Leah Monger, assistant librarian, Feinberg Library; Kevin Mundy, technical assistant, Media Distribution; Noreen Murphy, admissions counselor, Admissions; Anne Rowland, assistant librarian, Feinberg Library; and Margaret Yund, residence hall director.

New staff members include: Danelle Bell, typist, Maintenance and Operations; Joann Benware, telephone operator, Public Safety; Marlene Cummings, typist, Admissions; William Long, laboratory mechanic, Arts and Science; Alisa Miller, clerk, Bursar; and Robin Wing, typist, computer science.

AREA GUIDANCE COUNSELORS INVITED TO CONFERENCE ON CAMPUS NEXT FRIDAY

Northern New York guidance counselors have been invited to campus to attend a conference on "Career Preparation and the College Experience" on Friday, September 17. The conference is sponsored by the Cooperative Education Office in conjunction with Admissions, Career/Life Planning and Placement, and the Center for Lifelong Learning. Dr. Ann Hasting said the conference is intended to provide the guidance counselors with assistance for distributing occupational, education, and career information to their students. Topics to be discussed include "Future Jobs: Local, State and National," "Careers and the Liberal Arts," "Cooperative Education, Internships and Career Goals," and "Employer Perspectives." More information is available from Hasting in the Cooperative Education Office.

weekly notes

Correction: The correct title of Dr. Shakeh Agajanian's recently published book is 'Sonnets from the Portuguese' and the Love Sonnets Tradition. . . "Crisis in Governance," an article by President Joseph C. Burke, has been published in the July/August issue of AGB Reports, the journal of the Association of Governing Boards of Universities and Colleges. . . Dr. Donald Adams, professor in the Center for Earth and Environmental Science, has had three co-authored articles accepted for publication. "A Headspace Equilibration for Measurement of Dissolved Gases in Sediment Pore Water" will appear in the "International Journal of Environmental Analytical Chemistry," and "Early Sediment Changes and Element Mobilization in a Manmade Estuarine Marsh" and "Early Diagenesis of Organic Matter in the Recent Sediments of Lake Erie and Hamilton Harbor — I. Carbon Gas Geochemistry" will appear in the "Journal of Environmental Geology and Water Science." . . Nancy Church, lecturer in the School of Business and Economics has been invited to serve on the editorial board of a new journal entitled "Journal of Direct Marketing," which is being published by the Direct Marketing Association. . . Dr. Padmini Gulati, assistant professor in the Center for Human Resources, was elected to the editorial board of the "Journal of Sociology and Social Welfare" during the Society for Solution of Social Problems Conference in August. Gulati also attended the American Sociological Association meeting which followed. . . Dr. Charles List, assistant professor of philosophy, presented a paper in August to the Second International Social Philosophy Conference in Colorado. The paper, entitled "Scientific Fraud: Social Deviance or the Failure of Virtue?" will be published in the journal "Science, Technology and Human Values." . . Dr. Richard Sudds, professor of microbiology, was an invited speaker at the July Medical Technology Commencement of Union College-St. Peter's Hospital. . . Dr. Roberta Wacker, assistant professor of hearing and speech science, recently received a research award for investigation of "Pragmatic, Semantic and Syntactic Influences on Children's Inconsistent Misarticulations." The award was presented by the American Speech-Language-Hearing Foundation and Psi Chi XI Sorority in their sixth annual award competition for research into communicative disorders. . . Dr. David Bedworth, coordinator of health education, and Dr. Joseph Basile, assistant professor of health education, have been selected by the New York State Education Department as reviewers of the new Health Education Syllabus: Grades K-12. The syllabus is designed to be implemented by fall, 1986. . . Reference librarians Carla List and Dennis Kimmage contributed a case study of Library Research Skills (LIB 101) to the book Teaching Library Skills for Academic Credit by Mignon Adams and Jacquelyn Morris, which was published this summer by Oryx Press. . . Drs. Donald Bogucki and Gerhard Gruendling, professors in the Center for Earth and Environmental Science, participated in a technical workshop sponsored by the Environmental Protection Agency at the Environmental Research Laboratory in Oregon. The workshop concentrated on seismic profiling of soils in watersheds to determine the impact of acid rain on the chemistry of lakes.

CARDINAL SPORTS UPDATE; VOLLEYBALL TEAM SCORES BIG WIN

The PSUC volleyball team opened its 1985 season in convincing fashion by sweeping three matches at Skidmore College on Saturday. The Cardinals defeated North Adams State, Union College and the hosts without yielding a single game.

Sue Viscomi's women's soccer team opened its regular season by defeating New Paltz State 5-0 and tying Division I power Cortland State 1-1 in double overtime.

The men's soccer team rebounded from a disappointing start by winning two games last week. PSUC defeated Castleton State 2-1 in overtime and New Paltz 1-0. The New Paltz contest opened SUNYAC play for the Cards.

The women's tennis team continued its torrid play by crushing Siena College 9-0. Kelly Penfield led the way by defeating the Indians' Lori Burton 6-1, 6-4. In two meets the Cardinals have won 17 out of the 18 matches played.

Both cross country teams had impressive outings in their home opener despite missing key runners who were sidelined with injuries. The men's team came in second, losing to Vermont and defeating Hartwick. Freshman Andy Guay missed his second straight race with a foot injury. Junior Glen Dow paced the Cardinals with a fifth place time of 28:34 over the 5.1 mile course. The women, who were without the services of senior captain Ellen Kissane, defeated Hartwick 27-32. Freshman Kathy Kane led PSUC with a second place time of 22:44.4 while another freshman, Tina Nicholson recorded a 22:52.6 fourth place finish.

GMAT AND GRE SCHEDULED FOR OCTOBER

The next national Graduate Management Admission test date has been set for Saturday, October 19. The nearest test centers are in Burlington and Montreal. Students may register until September 23 with a late fee.

The next Graduate Record Examination will be Saturday, October 12. Only the subject tests will be offered in New York State. The General Examination will be given in Burlington and Montreal. The GRE General Exam will be given in New York State on December 14. Students may register through the Ticketron System up to a day before the test or the Teletron System up to 10 days before the test. "Walk-in" registration has been discontinued.

Further information and application forms are available from Tom Corigliano, Kehoe 314.

WOMEN'S RIGHTS ACTIVIST TO SPEAK

"The Politics of Women's Issues From Campus to Community" will be the topic of former political candidate Sharon Gonsalves, a 1980 Plattsburgh State graduate, when she speaks at a Women's Studies Forum on Thursday at 12:15 p.m.

Gonsalves, who will speak in the Cardinal Lounge of the Angell Center has spent several years as a women's rights leader in the Albany area. She was a candidate for county legislator in 1983, and helped to organize the Women's Encampment for a Future of Peace and Justice. Currently she is attending a women's technical school in Boston to further her education in electronics. The forum is free and open to the public, and coffee and donuts will be served.

this week on campus

Unless otherwise noted, all events are free and open to the campus and the public.

THURSDAY, SEPTEMBER 19

11:30 - 12:45 pm — Women's Studies Forum features Sharon Gonsalves speaking on "The Politics of Women's Issues from Campus to Community." Angell Center Cardinal Lounge.

2:30 - 5 pm — Study Abroad Informational sponsored by the Center for International Education. Open to the campus. Angell Center Cardinal Lounge.

3 pm — Targeting Your Job Search, a workshop sponsored by the office of Career/Life Planning and Placement. Open to the campus. Angell Center Conference Room.

7:30 pm — New and Renew Evening, sponsored by the Faculty Women's Organization. Open to members only. Angell Center Cardinal Lounge.

FRIDAY, SEPTEMBER 20

5 pm — Graduate Student Social sponsored by Campus Life and Academic Affairs. Open to the campus, no charge. Angell Center Cardinal Lounge.

8 pm — WPLT Dance Party. Tickets are 50¢ and on sale at the door. Angell Center Ballroom.

SATURDAY, SEPTEMBER 21

9 am - 6 pm — Montreal Bus sponsored by Campus Life. Tickets are $8 and on sale at the Angell Center Desk. Bus departs from Memorial Hall at 9 a.m.

11:30 am — Women's cross country vs. Middlebury.

12 noon — Men's cross country vs. Middlebury.

noon - 1 pm — CSEA Workshop. Open to members only. Angell Center Orchard Room.

1 pm — Women's tennis vs. Albany State.

2 pm — Women's soccer vs. Oneonta State. Field House.

SUNDAY, SEPTEMBER 22

6:45 & 9:15 pm — Student Association Film Committee presents "Cotton Club." Tickets for students are 50¢, faculty tickets are $1 and on sale at the Angell Center Desk. Hawkins Hall Auditorium.

MONDAY, SEPTEMBER 23

4 pm — Dr. L. Interrante (RPI) speaking on "The Design and Synthesis of Organometallic Precursors to Refractory Ceramic Material." Hudson Hall 104.

7:30 pm — Public lecture on Science and Technology by Dr. David Edge, Distinguished Visiting Professor. Hawkins Hall Small Auditorium.

TUESDAY, SEPTEMBER 24

3 pm — Interview Techniques workshop sponsored by the office of Career/Life Planning and Placement. Open to the campus. Angell Center Conference Room.

4:15 pm — Workshop on "Reading Your Textbook: Increase Your Concentration, Motivation and Comprehension." Sponsored by S.S.P. Open to the campus. Angell Center Conference Room.

6 pm — Volleyball: PSUC vs. Siena. Field House.

WEDNESDAY, SEPTEMBER 25

9 am - 4 pm — Volunteer Fair sponsored by Campus Life. Angell Center Lobby.

3 pm — Women's tennis: PSUC vs. St. Michaels. Field House courts.

3 pm — Considering Graduate School. A workshop sponsored by the office of Career/Life Planning and Placement. Open to the campus. Angell Center Conference Room.

3 pm — Women's tennis vs. St. Michael's.

4:15 pm — Workshop on "Reading Your Textbook: Increase Your Concentration, Motivation and Comprehension." Sponsored by S.S.P. Open to the campus. Angell Center Conference Room.

5 pm — Yoga Exercise and Relaxation. New members welcome anytime. Memorial Hall Recreation Room (lower level).

7 pm — Students for Peace meeting. Angell Center Meeting Room 6.

7 pm — Sociology Club Reception. Open to the campus. Angell Center Cardinal Lounge.

THURSDAY, SEPTEMBER 26

11:30 am - 12:45 pm — Women's Studies Forum features Ann White, Nurse Practitioner, speaking on "Pre-Menstrual Syndrome." Angell Center Cardinal Lounge.

3 pm — A workshop sponsored by the office of Career/Life Planning and Placement. Open to the campus. Angell Center Conference Room.

4:30 pm — Ice Cream Social. Open to all majors within Center for Human Resources. Sponsored by PHEA. Ward Hall Lounge.

7 pm — Hospice Certificate Program sponsored by the Center for Lifelong Learning — $20. Contact the Center office, 564-2050 for more information. Angell Center Ballroom.

7 pm — Film "Cry the Beloved Country." Discussion to follow. Sponsored by the Political Science department. CL 202.

8 pm — Joel Sternfeld, Photographer. Sponsored by the Visual Artist Series. Angell Center Cardinal Lounge.

CALENDAR NOTES

Good-Better-Best Aerobics Monday through Thursday at 5 p.m., Friday at 3 p.m., Sunday at 3 p.m. Angell Center Blue Room.

Adirondack Dance Theatre classes in ballet, jazz, tap, middle eastern and dance fitness now open. 10% discount for PSUC students, faculty and staff. Pick up brochure at Room 127, Hawkins Hall or call 564-2052.

The Office of Campus Life seeks candidates for Summer Orientation leaders for 1986. Application forms including details on qualifications, job responsibilities, etc. are available at the Angell Center Main Desk. Applications must be completed and submitted to the Office of Campus Life, Angell Center Room 110, no later than 4:30 pm, Friday, October 11, 1985.

The University Senate will sponsor a conference on "The New Liberal Arts" on Sept. 27-28 in Buffalo. For information, contact Dr. Joan Lynch (564-4234).

The Educational Opportunity Program tutoring service needs tutors in all subjects. Pay is $4 per hour up to 5 hours per week. Interested students should apply at the EOP office, Angell Center room 118, 8:30 am - 4:30 pm M-F.

Applications are now available for the Rhodes Scholars Program (deadline October 31) and the Luce Scholars Program (deadline November 1). For information and/or applications, contact Dr. David Mowry, Honors Center, Hawkins Hall 123 (564-3075) or Al Mihalek, Hudson Hall 101 (564-3150).

The Rotary Foundation is offering scholarships to graduate or undergraduate students for one year at any institution in any country where there are Rotary clubs. The deadline for submission is September 25. Information and application are available in Hudson Hall 101.

New college catalogs have been sent to faculty members during the last week. Any faculty member who has not received a copy should call the Office of the Vice President for Academic Affairs (564-2080).

The Fall Open House for Prospective Students will be held on Saturday, September 28. Details will appear in next week's WEEKLY.

GALLERY EXHIBITS

Myers Fine Arts Gallery: "Contemporary Landscape Paintings of the Adirondacks/Champlain Valley"

Rockwell Kent Gallery: "Annual Art Faculty Exhibit" and "Graphic Arts of Rockwell Kent"

Myers Fine Arts Lobby: "I Love N.Y. Paper, PSUC Student Works on Paper"

WEEKLY is published by the Office of College Relations each Wednesday while classes are in session. Notice of events to be listed in "This Week on Campus" must be submitted to Melanie Wheatley (564-3824) by Thursday the week prior to publication. News items will be accepted by Carolee Smith (564-2090) until noon on Monday of the week of publication.

State University of New York College of Arts and Science at Plattsburgh is an Equal Employment Opportunity Affirmative Action Employer

CURRENT JOB LISTINGS

Department	Closing Date
Afro-American Studies		Foreign Languages & Literature
Instructor/Lecturer	10/15/85*	Part-Time Instructors
Biological Sciences		(German, French & Spanish)
Asst./Assoc. Professor (Plant Physiologist)	10/15/85	Open
Business & Economics		Maintenance & Operations
Accounting & Management Faculty	Open	(2) Carpenters
College Relations		(2) Masons
Director of Annual Giving	10/11/85	(1) Plumber/Steamfitter
		*Or until qualified candidate is found

Complete details are available in the Office of Personnel and Affirmative Action.

BURKE NAMED ACTING PROVOST AT SUNY; SUPPLE ACTING PRESIDENT

President Joseph C. Burke has been appointed Acting Provost of the State University of New York. Burke's appointment was confirmed Tuesday by the SUNY Trustees on the recommendation of SUNY Chancellor Clifton R. Wharton, Jr. He will serve as Provost from November 1, 1985 through March 31, 1986.

The position of Provost is the third highest position in the SUNY Central Administration. As Acting Provost, Burke will be responsible for the Academic Affairs Division within the university system, and will oversee the offices of Academic Programs, Policy and Planning; Employee Relations and Educational Services; and Research, Graduate Studies and Professional Programs.

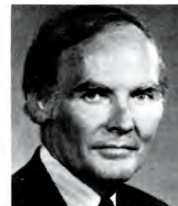

"I am very pleased that the Chancellor and the SUNY Trustees have offered me this opportunity," Burke commented. "This is an exciting time for the State University as we prepare to implement the new flexibility legislation which will take effect on April 1. As a long-time proponent of that legislation, I look forward to being able to assist directly with its implementation."

The SUNY Trustees also designated Dr. Jerome Supple, vice president for academic affairs, to serve as acting president during Burke's absence from the campus. "We are fortunate to have such an outstanding vice president to step into the position," Burke said. Supple served as acting president during the fall, 1981 semester when Burke was on a semester long leave as a Scholar-in-Residence at the Rockefeller Foundation's study center in Bellagio, Italy.

Dr. Supple's duties as vice president for academic affairs will be shared by Dr. Nicholas Troisi, dean of professional studies; Dr. Houngh Liu, dean of arts and science; and Dr. Richard Robbins, former associate vice president for academic affairs.

Burke became president of Plattsburgh State in 1974 after serving one year as vice president for academic affairs. Before coming to Plattsburgh, he was academic vice president at Loyola University in Montreal for three years, and earlier taught history at Ohio Wesleyan University and Duquesne University. He is a graduate of Kentucky's Bellarmine College and holds an M.A. and a Ph.D. from Indiana University.

Supple assumed the vice presidency in 1978, following several years of teaching and one year as dean for general and special studies at the SUNY College at Fredonia. He has a B.S. and an M.S. from Boston College and a Ph.D. from the University of New Hampshire.

Burke

Supple

OPEN HOUSE FOR PROSPECTIVE STUDENTS SCHEDULED FOR SATURDAY

The College's annual Fall Open House for Prospective Students will be held on Saturday, October 28 and about 450 visitors are expected to attend. The day will begin at 9:30 a.m. in the Angell Center Ballroom with welcomes by President Joseph C. Burke and Student Association President Bill Mattar. The visitors will then be taken to the departments of their choice to talk with faculty and students about academic programs. Campus tours and brunch in a dining hall will follow. Workshops will be presented on "The Admissions Process," "Financial Aid Opportunities at Plattsburgh State," and "Campus Life" during the afternoon.

COOPERATIVE EDUCATION PROGRAM FUNDED FOR FOURTH YEAR AT $94,000

The college's Cooperative Education Program has been awarded $94,000 by the Department of Education for its fourth year of operation. Cooperative Education Director Ann Hasting said that the growth of the program is continuing on the up-swing, with over 500 students placed since the program was established. Faculty participation has also increased as faculty sponsors supervise and award academic credit for the learning experiences. Hasting also said that the majority of students are earning academic credit as well as money. Student earnings, as stipends or salaries, have gone well over the three million dollar mark for the first three years of operation.

LEVITIN PUBLISHES BOOK OF TRANSLATIONS OF PORTUGUESE POEMS

Dr. Alexis Levitin, assistant professor of English, has published a book entitled The Inhabited Heart: The Selected Poems of Eugenio de Andrade, which is the first translation of this popular Portuguese poet's work into English. The book contains translations of 42 poems, many of which have appeared in such journals of "Modern Poetry Studies," "Confrontation," "New Letters," "Translation," and "The Portland Review." Levitin completed most of the work on the book under a summer research grant from the SUNY Research Foundation.

Levitin, a member of the English department faculty for four years, has been translating for eleven years and has placed his work in more than 80 journals and various anthologies, including Latin American Literature Today, Women Poets of the World, and New Directions. He is currently completing work with deAndrade on two additional volumes of the poet's work.

NORM LAW TO BE ONE OF FIRST INDUCTEES IN BROCKPORT'S HALL OF FAME

Norm Law, assistant professor of physical education and long-time varsity basketball coach, will be one of the charter inductees in the SUNY College at Brockport's Eagle Sports Hall of Fame. Law will be formally inducted, along with 15 other charter members, during ceremonies to be conducted at Homecoming Weekend on the Brockport campus. The Eagle Sports Hall of Fame has been instituted "to recognize those individuals who as athletes and/or coaches and/or administrators have made outstanding contributions to the intercollegiate program at the State University College at Brockport."

Law received both his bachelor's and master's degree from Brockport, in 1960 and 1968 respectively. During his undergraduate years, Law was a member of the freshman basketball team, the varsity basketball team (3 years), and the varsity baseball team (4 years). He captained both teams during his senior year and in 1960 received the ECAC Outstanding Student-Athlete award.

Law joined the faculty at Plattsburgh State in 1969, following several years of teaching and coaching at Mynderse Academy (where he was three times named coach of the year in the Wayne-Finger Lakes League) and Smithtown Central School. In addition to teaching various physical education courses, he has coached numerous varsity and intramural teams, and directs the college's summer basketball camps. Law was named SUNYAC Basketball Coach of the Year in 1976, when the Cardinals were SUNYAC tri-champions. His 1975-76 team also won the Northeastern Regional title and placed fourth nationally in the NCAA Division III Tournament.

STUDENT CHEMICAL SOCIETY TO BE CHARTERED ON OCTOBER 2

A Plattsburgh Student Affiliate Chapter of the American Chemical Society will receive its official charter during a ceremony at 7:30 p.m. on October 2. Professor R. Patel of Clarkson University will present the charter. The American Chemical Society is a society of professional chemists which fosters and encourages the safe growth of the chemical sciences. As student affiliate members, the college's chemistry majors may participate in the ACS conventions and receive society journals at modest cost. This year, the Chemistry Club has already planned trips to IBM and Seagrams's and secured ten speakers for a lecture series.

Following the charter presentation, Dr. Russell Drago of the University of Florida will present a seminar on "Metal Binding and Activation of Dioxygen."

PLATTSBURGH TO HOST ANNUAL COLLEGE NIGHT PROGRAM

Plattsburgh State will host the annual North Eastern New York Counselors Association (NENYCA) College Night Program on Wednesday, October 2, 1985. The program will take place in the College Field House from 7 p.m. to 9 p.m. The College Night Program offers an opportunity for high school juniors, seniors and their parents to meet with college representatives to obtain a better understanding of admission requirements, curriculum specialities, financial costs and student life issues pertinent to each institution. Approximately 130 institutions will be represented. Twenty-three high schools from Clinton and Essex counties will encourage students to attend this program.

CENTER FOR ART, MUSIC AND THEATRE SPONSORING TWO SPECIAL EVENTS

The Center for Art, Music and Theatre will sponsor presentations next week by photographer Joel Sternfeld and fortepianist Malcolm Bilson. Sternfeld, who uses a large 8 x 10 view camera to produce candid photographic images, will speak at 8 p.m. on September 26 in the Cardinal Lounge. His photographs "reveal with subtle irony and formal clarity the man-altered ecology of the contemporary landscape."

Bilson will present a concert at 8 p.m. on October 3 in the Hartman Theatre. Bilson has achieved international recognition as an interpreter of Mozart, Haydn, Beethoven and other masters of the classical period.

SPORTS UPDATE: WOMEN'S SOCCER TEAM WINS TWO

The PSUC women's cross country team upset highly regarded Middlebury College 26-31. The Cards were paced by senior Ellen Kissane's second place time of 22:31.0. Sophomore Kathy Kane came in right behind with a 22:31.2 third place time. Freshman Tina Nicholson turned in a 23:33.4 performance for fourth place. The men's team faced a veteran Middlebury squad and lost 18-41. Junior Mickey DeVivo turned in the top Cardinal effort with a fifth place time of 28:05.1. On Saturday PSUC hosts the Cardinal Classic. Race time is 12:00 for the women and 12:45 for the men.

Sue Viscomi's women's soccer team improved its record to 3-0-1 with a pair of impressive shutout victories. On Wednesday the Cardinals scored three first half goals and coasted to a 3-0 win over Clarkson. On Saturday PSUC defeated SUNYAC foe Oneonta State 4-0. The Cards were led by sophomore Beth Campbell's 2 first half goals. In its lone contest last week, the men's soccer team traveled to Cortland State for an important SUNYAC contest under the lights. Despite playing their best game of the year, PSUC lost 1-0.

The women's tennis team suffered its first loss of the season, falling to Albany State 8-1. Junior Rhanda Kader scored the lone Cardinal victory, winning her match 6-1, 6-1. Earlier in the week the Cards defeated Clarkson 6-3.

The volleyball team continued its winning ways, scoring four victories during the week. After scoring easy wins over Clarkson and St. Lawrence, the Cards traveled to Green Mountains College for a triangular meet. In their first match the Cards trounced the hosts 15-7, 15-4. Against Union, a team defeated easily earlier in the season, PSUC faced its toughest match to date. After splitting the first two games the Cards found themselves trailing 14-11 in the deciding game. The team rallied to win 18-16 giving coach Joanne Johnson an unblemished 7-0 record.

DR. JAMES BARKER TO TALK ON ALCOHOLISM

Dr. James P. Barker from the Reno, Nevada Veterans Administration Hospital/Alcohol Dependence Treatment Program, will spend three days on campus next week. Barker will lecture at 4 p.m. on October 2 in the Cardinal Lounge on "Alcoholism: Internal versus External Change Among Hospitalized Alcoholics." Barker will also address the anthropology club on October 3 on the subject of practicing anthropology outside the academic setting. His visit is co-sponsored by the departments of anthropology, nursing, psychology, and sociology, and the Center for Human Resources.

weekly notes

Dr. Francis Bethlen, professor of business and economics, attended a scientific conference in Budapest, Hungary at the request of the Hungarian Agro-Industrial Institute and the Academy of Sciences. Bethlen presented a paper on "Mexico's Agrarian Problems," which was published in the Proceedings of the Meetings, entitled Main Trends in the Development of World Agriculture. . . Dr. Stewart A. Denenberg, associate professor of computer sciences, has been invited to present a version of his paper "A Service Project from Computer Science to Psychology: Implementing SOLO in LOGO" at the Third Annual Conference on Microcomputers and the Learning Process at Clarkson University in October. . . Dr. Len Fontana's article "Cliques Formation in a Regional Health Planning Agency" has been published in the journal Human Relations. Fontana chairs the sociology department. . . Don Garrant, assistant to the president for college relations and development, has been named to the Northeastern New York Health Care Consortium Employers' Advisory Committee, sponsored by Blue Cross of Northeastern New York. . . Dr. Roy Malpass, professor of behavioral science, has been appointed to the editorial board of the International Journal of Intercultural Relations, which is published by Pergamon Press and is an official publication of SIETAR: the Society of Intercultural Education, Training and Research. Malpass is presently editor of the Journal of Cross-Cultural Psychology. . . Drs. Paul Szydlak and Fritz Kissner, professor and associate professor of physics respectively, recently co-authored a paper titled "Evaluation of the Performance of Solar Energy Retrofits and Hot Water Heaters in New York State." The paper was presented and included in the proceedings of the Annual Congress of the International Solar Energy held in June in Montreal.

this week on campus

Unless otherwise noted, all events are free and open to the campus and the public.

THURSDAY, SEPTEMBER 26

11:30 a.m. - 12:45 p.m. — Women's Studies Forum features Ann White, Nurse Practitioner, speaking on "Pre-Menstrual Syndrome." Angell Center Cardinal Lounge.

3 pm — Career/Life Planning and Placement workshop. Open to the campus. Angell Center Conference Room.

4 pm — Club Canada reception. Open to the campus. Angell Center Cardinal Lounge.

4:30 pm — Ice Cream Social — All majors for Center for Human Resources are invited. Sponsored by the Plattsburgh Home Economics Association. Ward Hall Lounge.

7 pm — Hospice Certificate Program sponsored by the Center for Lifelong Learning. $20. Contact the Center office at 564-2050 for more information. Angell Center Ballrooms.

8 pm — Joel Sternfeld, Photographer sponsored by the Visual Artist Series. Angell Center Cardinal Lounge.

FRIDAY, SEPTEMBER 27

9 am — "Career Preparation and the College Experience." Conference for local and regional counselors.

8 pm — Concert by Judy Gorman-Jacobs, feminist, peace activist and folk singer. Tickets are 50¢ and on sale at the door. Hawkins Hall Auditorium.

SATURDAY, SEPTEMBER 28

9 am - 4 pm — Garage Sale to benefit the Scholarship Fund. Sponsored by The Faculty Women's Organization. 45 Cogan Avenue.

1 pm — Men's and Women's Cross Country Teams host the Cardinal Classic. Field House.

2 pm — Men's Soccer: PSUC vs. Oneonta State. Field House.

SUNDAY, SEPTEMBER 29

11 am — Sixth Annual Campus/Community Carnival sponsored by the Office of Campus Life. Angell Center Plaza.

6:45 & 9:15 pm — Student Association Film Committee presents "Karate Kid." Student tickets are 50¢, faculty $1 and on sale at the Angell Center Desk. Hawkins Hall Auditorium.

7 pm — New Foreign Student Orientation/Reception. Sponsored by the International Relations Club. Open to students only. Angell Center Cardinal Lounge.

MONDAY, SEPTEMBER 30

8 pm — The National Theatre of the Deaf presents "In a Grove" and "Farewell My Love." Sponsored by C.O.A.C.C. Student tickets are $5, public tickets are $7. Hawkins Hall Auditorium.

7 pm — Kappa Delta Pi organizational meeting. Dr. Michael Wolfe will speak on the future of teacher education. Members only. Sibley 106.

10:15 pm — Student Association Senate Meeting. Angell Center Conference Room.

TUESDAY, OCTOBER 1

10:30 am - 2 pm — Army National Guard Mountain Company Recruitment. Angell Center Lobby.

3 pm — Men's Tennis: PSUC vs. St. Michaels. Macdonough Courts.

3 pm — Resumes and Cover Letters Workshop. Sponsored by the Office of Career/Life Planning and Placement. Open to the campus. Angell Center Conference Room.

4:15 pm — A Workshop on "How to Write an 'A' Paper" sponsored by SSP. Open to members only. Angell Center Conference Room.

WEDNESDAY, OCTOBER 2

3 pm — A Workshop, "Targeting Your Job Search" sponsored by the office of Career/Life Planning and Placement. Open to the campus. Angell Center Conference Room.

4 pm — Dr. James Barker, "Alcoholism" Internal vs. External Change Among Hospitalized Alcoholics." Angell Center Cardinal Lounge.

4:15 pm — A Workshop on "How to Write an 'A' Paper" sponsored by SSP. Open to members only. Angell Center Conference Room.

5 pm — Yoga Exercise and Relaxation. New members welcome. Hawkins Hall gym, room 153.

7 pm — Take part in your future at a Students for Peace meeting. Angell Center Meeting Room 6.

7:30 pm — Dr. R. Drago, University of Florida, speaking on "Metal Binding and Activation of Dioxygen." Sponsored by the Plattsburgh State Student Chemical Society. Hudson Hall 106.

7:30 pm — Support Group Meeting for Anorexia Nervosa and Bulimia. Sponsored by the Health Service. For more information call 564-2187. Angell Center Conference Room.

8 pm — Assertiveness Training Workshop: to teach students how to say, "no" to a variety of pressure situations (drugs, alcohol, sexual activity, etc.). Sponsored by Planned Parenthood and Resident Assistant, Chris Angland. Wilson Hall Main Lounge.

THURSDAY, OCTOBER 3

11:30 a.m. - 12:45 p.m. — Women's Studies Program presents a panel discussion on "Re-Entry Women" with Anna Casola, Karen Norton, Nancy Preston and Carol Reynolds. Angell Center Cardinal Lounge.

3 pm — A workshop, "Interview Techniques" sponsored by the Office of Career/Life Planning and Placement. Open to the campus. Angell Center Conference Room.

7 pm — Sexual Harassment Prevention sponsored by Campus Life. Angell Center Cardinal Lounge.

8 pm — Music Artists Series presents Malcolm Bilson, internationally known fortepianist. Hartman Theatre.

CALENDAR NOTES

Good-Better-Best Aerobics — Monday through Thursday at 5 pm, Friday at 3 pm and Sunday at 3 pm. Open to all no charge. Angell Center Blue Room.

Third Annual Great Balloon Get Away! Purchase your balloon at the Angell Center Desk for 50¢. Win a dinner for two at the Butcher Block. Sponsored by the Office of Campus Life and Phi Eta Sigma. For more information call 564-3824.

Psychological Services Center is recruiting undergraduates from any discipline to become trainers in the Stress-Management Program for 1985-86. Selected students will receive academic credit for 2 - 4 hours per week, supervised by Dr. Jacquelyn Connelly. Applications are available at Psychological Services Center, College Health Center. Application deadline: October 11, 1985.

Wanted: Summer Orientation Leaders for 1986. Application forms and details available at the Angell Center desk. Application deadline no later than 4:30 pm, Friday, October 11, 1985.

Students planning to graduate in December should apply at the Registrar's office by November 1, 1985.

Adirondack Dance Theatre classes offering ballet, jazz, tap, middle eastern and dance fitness. 10% discount for PSUC students, faculty and staff. Pick up a brochure at Room 127, Hawkins Hall or call 564-2052.

The political science department will host a retreat to Twin Valleys Sept. 27 - 29 for up to 20 members of the college community. Food, transportation and overnight accommodations will be provided. Hiking, sports, a film and a discussion on South African apartheid will be included. Participants are asked to pay $10 each to defray costs. To sign up, contact the political science department, Hawkins 111, 564-3825.

Applications for the 1986 In Vitro Cell Biology & Biotechnology Program are currently being accepted. Deadline is October 25. An informational meeting and tour of the college science facilities at Miner Center will be held Sept. 27 at 1 pm. For further information, arrangements for visits and applications contact the Biology secretary in Beaumont 207 (564-3155) or Dr. William Graziadei, Miner Center (1-846-7144).

The next National Teacher Examination (NTE) test date will be Saturday, October 26, 1985. This administration will include only the three core Examinations. The Specialty Examinations will be given on November 9th. All tests will be given in Plattsburgh.

Advanced registration deadline is September 30th (with a late fee) or, students may register through the Ticketron System (until the day before the test) or Teletron System (until ten days before the test). Day-of-test "walk-in" registration has been discontinued in New York State. Further information and application forms are available from Thomas Corigliano, A-314.

GALLERY EXHIBITIONS

Myers Fine Arts Gallery, through October 30th:
"Selections '85-'86"

Rockwell Kent Gallery, through October 15:

"Graphic Arts of Rockwell Kent"

"Annual Art Faculty Exhibit"

Myers Fine Arts Gallery Lounge, through October 14th:

"Steina Vasulka: The West"

WEEKLY is published by the Office of College Relations each Wednesday while classes are in session. Notice of events to be listed in "This Week on Campus" must be submitted to Melanie Wheatley (564-3824) by Thursday the week prior to publication. News items will be accepted by Carolee Smith (564-2090) until noon on Monday of the week of publication.

State University of New York College of Arts and Science at Plattsburgh is an Equal Employment Opportunity Affirmative Action Employer

CURRENT JOB LISTINGS

Department	Closing Date	Foreign Languages & Literature
Afro-American Studies		Part-Time Instructors
Instructor/Lecturer	10/15/85*	(German, French & Spanish) Open
Biological Sciences		History
Asst./Assoc. Professor (Plant Physiologist)	10/15/95	Instructor/Assistant Professor 11/4/85
Business & Economics		Maintenance & Operations
Accounting & Management Faculty	Open	(2) Carpenters
College Relations		(2) Electricians 9/27/85*
Director of Annual Giving	10/11/85	(1) Plumber/Steamfitter
Computer Science		(1) Mason
Instructor/Assistant Professor	12/15/85*	*Or until qualified candidate is found

Complete details are available in the Office of Personnel and Affirmative Action

SALLY KENT GORTON RECEIVES DISTINGUISHED SERVICE AWARD

Sally Kent Gorton, widow of the late Rockwell Kent, was awarded the college's Distinguished Service Award during a ceremony Sunday afternoon at her Asgaard Farm home in Ausable Forks. Following a brief speech by President Joseph C. Burke, Wayne H. Byrne, vice chairman of the College Council, made the award presentation. The award read in part, "You conceived, organized, and donated the collection of paintings, prints, drawings, and ephemera of Rockwell Kent housed and continuously exhibited on this campus. . . . Your trust and vision have permanently enhanced the quality of the total art resources of this college. The Kent Collection, because of the international reputation of its creator, but also because of your generosity, will serve lastingly to attract to Plattsburgh experts in the world of art who, in turn, will contribute immeasurably to the education process."

Upon receiving the award, Mrs. Gorton said, "I've always believed that everyone deserves one perfect day during their lifetime. This is mine." She continues to direct the Rockwell Kent Legacies at the Asgaard Farm, where the artist lived for many years.

The Rockwell Kent Collection, which is housed in the Feinberg Library, was created in 1974, following the death of the internationally recognized North Country artist, and officially opened in 1978. Originally valued at approximately $250,000, the collection is now considered to be worth nearly one million dollars and has gained national recognition as a major repository of the late artist's work.

College Council Vice Chairperson Wayne Byrne presents the Distinguished Service Award to Sally Kent Gorton. President Joseph C. Burke is at right.

PARENTS' WEEKEND SCHEDULED FOR OCTOBER 4-6

A record crowd is expected to visit the campus this weekend for the Third Annual Parents' Weekend. Activities begin on Friday as parents are invited to visit classes and/or meet with faculty members. Students should make individual arrangements and appointments for these meetings. A planetarium show, preliminary Burghy Games competition, and an evening of light entertainment in the Orchard Room by Nite Club with the college's jazz quartet are also on the Friday schedule.

On Saturday, students and their parents may opt for campus tours, Burghy Games, a volleyball game, a women's tennis match or a men's soccer game. Parents of students who achieved a 3.5 grade point average during one semester of their freshman year will attend an induction ceremony for Phi Eta Sigma, the national honorary society for freshmen.

At 1:30 and again at 2:30 p.m., several workshops will be conducted. They will include "How to Help Your Son or Daughter Make the Most of College," "Pressure, Stress and Freshmen," "College and the Commuter Student," and "Cooperative Education, Internships and Student Work Experiences." Rosilan Leahy, executive director of the Clinton County Chamber of Commerce will present a workshop at 4 p.m. on the surrounding area. President and Mrs. Burke will host a reception (cash bar) and dinner in the early evening. The Cardinal Singers will make their debut before dinner and comedian Jack Swersie will entertain after dinner. The evening will conclude with a Sing-A-Long in the Point.

On Sunday, tours of the Plattsburgh Air Force Base and Ausable Chasm are scheduled. Reservations for events may be made through Friday noon at the College Relations Office (Kehoe 806).

BEAUMONT HALL TO BE DEDICATED ON SATURDAY AS PART OF MEDICAL HISTORY SYMPOSIUM

The William Beaumont Hall will be formally dedicated at 11 a.m. on Saturday, October 5. Opened in 1972, Beaumont Hall was named in honor of physician and medical pioneer William Beaumont who served as a surgeon's mate in the Battle of Plattsburgh, then practiced medicine in this area from 1816 to 1820. The ceremony will be moderated by President Joseph C. Burke with State University Trustee Judith L. Duken unveiling the plaque. Dr. Eugene Link, professor emeritus of history, will present a copy of Beaumont's book Experimentation and Observations on the Gastric Juice and Physiology of Digestion to the college. The college community is invited to attend.

The dedication ceremony will take place as part of the Fourth Champlain Valley Symposium co-sponsored by the UVM Medical Alumni Association, the College at Plattsburgh, the Clinton County Medical Society and the Clinton County Historical Association. This year's subject is "The Bicentennial of William Beaumont, M.D., 1785-1853." Presentations on Friday will take place at UVM, with Saturday's program being conducted on the Plattsburgh campus. Further details are available from Dr. James Dawson, Center for Earth and Environmental Science.

CARDINAL BOOSTER CLUB MEMBERSHIP DRIVE UNDERWAY

The Cardinal Booster Club's 1985 membership campaign begins this week. The organization, an affiliate of both the Alumni Association and the College Foundation, has been challenged to generate $8,300 in contributions. A year ago the club raised $7,849 in donations from a record 170 members, with gifts ranging from the $25 minimum membership level to $500. Cardinal Boosters are alumni, faculty and staff, members of the business community and other friends of the college who share a commitment to fostering excellence in intercollegiate athletics at Plattsburgh State. Among its activities and projects during 1984-85, the Booster Club, in cooperation with the Alumni Association, initiated the Plattsburgh State Sports Hall of Fame; provided the funding required to renovate locker facilities at Memorial Hall and at the Field House ice arena; sponsored the third annual Sports Night Banquet and Recognition Program for all intercollegiate athletes; provided funds to augment coaches' recruitment budgets; and initiated a newsletter for distribution to members. Incentives for members include a substantial reduction in admission prices to regular season home basketball and ice hockey contests in addition to the opportunity to participate in club-sponsored social activities. Further information may be obtained by contacting Dennis Doyle in the office of College Relations (2090). Prospective members are invited also to attend the Cardinal Booster Club's annual "Meet the Coaches Night" program scheduled for Wednesday, October 9, from 7 - 9 p.m. in the Orchard Room of the College Center.

CAMPUS EOP HAD HIGHEST SPRING PERCENTAGE OF SENIORS IN ARTS AND SCIENCE COLLEGES

Plattsburgh's Educational Opportunity Program has the highest percentage of seniors enrolled at an Arts and Science College or a University Center in the SUNY system, according to the 1984-85 Spring Enrollment Report. The report lists 25.8% of Plattsburgh's EOP spring enrollees as seniors. The statewide average is 17.3% for Arts and Science Colleges and 21.3% at University Centers.

EOP was created in the late 1960's to assist educationally and economically disadvantaged students to complete a college degree. The program provides counseling and tutoring support along with financial aid. Currently, the Plattsburgh EOP program has 210 students on campus, with 46 listed as seniors. Additionally, 86.7% of the EOP students have cumulative grade point averages above the 2.0 mark, the highest percentage since the program began on campus in 1969.

PHI ETA SIGMA TO INDUCT NINETEEN MEMBERS ON SATURDAY

The campus chapter of Phi Eta Sigma, the national honorary society for freshmen, will induct nineteen new members in a ceremony to be conducted at 4 p.m. on Saturday, October 5 in the Angell College Center. Membership in the honor society is open to students who achieve a grade point average of 3.5 (out of a possible 4.0) or better during at least one semester of their freshman year. Students to be inducted in this ceremony include: Cordelia Avery, Plattsburgh, psychology; Tim Blow, Watertown, accounting; Donna Carroll, Saugerties, nursing; Carman Chan, Plattsburgh, business management; Colleen Coady, Morrisville, undeclared; Neil Feder, Middletown, undeclared; Leslie Fredette, Plattsburgh, computer/math; Michelle Godsey, North Papillon, Nebraska, nursing; Kimberly Haldane, Pulaski, nursing; Laura Howard, Fort Covington, biochemistry; Kelly Hughes, Sayville, accounting; Mario LaFranca, Carmel, engineering; Donald Leventhal, Roslyn Height, environmental science; Mariann Lucente, Saugerties, computer science; Drew Martin, Sea Cliff, business management; Laurie Ramie, Ogdensburg, psychology; David Robinson, Smithtown, biology; Cynthia Sargent, South New Berlin, nursing; and Toni Tormos, Hopewell Junction, English.

VISITING POETS AND WRITERS SERIES TO HOST ELISAVIETTA RITCHIE ON OCTOBER 7.

Elisavietta Artamonoff Ritchie, writer/poet/translator/teacher/editor, will be the special guest of the English Department's Visiting Poets and Writers Series for a poetry reading at 8 p.m. on Monday, October 7 in the Cardinal Lounge. She has published five books of poetry, including Tightening the Circle Over Eel Country, which won the Washington Writers Publishing House competition, Raking the Snow, and Moving to Larger Quarters. Her poems have been published in a wide variety of journals and have won numerous prizes. Ritchie's visit is funded by the Literature Program of the NYS Council on the Arts.

HEARING AND SPEECH SCIENCE DEPARTMENT TO HOST WORKSHOP ON STUTTERING IN CHILDREN

The Plattsburgh State Chapter of the National Student Speech-Language-Hearing Association and the Department of Hearing and Speech Science will sponsor a day-long program on Friday, October 4 on Stuttering in Children. Dr. Edward G. Conture, Professor Communicative Disorders at Syracuse University, Syracuse, New York will present "Stuttering in Children 3 - 12 Years of Age — The Research, Evaluation and Treatment." Registration will begin at 8:30 a.m. on October 4 in Sibley Hall Cafetorium. Registration forms may be obtained at the Speech and Hearing Center, Sibley Hall 224 or by calling the Center at (518) 564-2170.

Conture is an international authority on childhood dysfluencies. He received his doctorate in speech pathology in 1972 from the University of Iowa and has been awarded the Certificate of Clinical Competence from the American Speech-Language-Hearing Association and holds New York State Licensure. Dr. Conture has been awarded several grants to further his research in stuttering.

CATHARINE STIMPSON TO SPEAK ON CAMPUS NEXT THURSDAY

Catharine Stimpson, acting dean of graduate studies at Rutgers University, will present the Women's Forum, "Women's Studies: State of the Art," on Thursday, Oct. 10. Stimpson will also talk with faculty on integrating the humanities into the curriculum and will make a presentation on "Tell Me A Riddle" by Tillie Olsen, at the Paine Memorial Library in Willsboro at 7:30 p.m. on the same date. Stimpson is listed in Who's Who of American Women and serves on many boards and committees, among them the national council of the National Emergency Civil Liberties Committee, review panels and committees of the National Endowment for the Humanities, and the Committee on the Status of Women for the United States National Commission for UNESCO. She earned her Ph.D. with distinction from Columbia University and was a senior fellow in American Studies at Yale University. Stimpson's visit is funded in part by the College Auxiliary Service and the New York State Council on the Humanities.

SPORTS UPDATE; CARDINAL WOMEN TIE FOR FIRST IN CARDINAL CLASSIC

The men's and women's cross country teams hosted the Cardinal Classic Saturday and both squads turned in fine results. The women's team tied Albany State for top honors with 34 points. Ellen Kissane led the Cardinals with a third place finish. The men wound up fourth behind champion Mt. Royal Track club with 109 points. Glen Dow paced the Cardinals with an 18th place time of 28:17.6.

The women's soccer team suffered its first two defeats of the season, losing to St. Lawrence 3-0, and Colgate 2-1. Sophomore Beth Campbell scored for the Cardinals against Colgate.

Chris Waterbury's men's soccer team dropped a pair of tight matches last week. PSUC lost to St. Lawrence 3-1 and by the same score to Oneonta State. The Oneonta contest went to overtime before the Red Dragons scored two quick goals. Rich Stolen scored the lone goal for the Cardinals.

The women's tennis team rebounded from a loss to Albany State by defeating St. Michael's College 7-2. Kelly Penfield led PSUC with a 6-3, 6-0 win in her match.

The volleyball team had a rough week, losing three times while winning only once. Early in the week the Cards visited Siena where they were defeated 16-14, 15-5. On Saturday PSUC lost to Potsdam 15-5, 16-14 and to Albany State 17-15, 11-15, 16-14. They defeated New Paltz 15-11, 15-2.

weekly notes

Apologies to the college librarians, who, of course, are faculty members and should have been listed as such in an earlier issue of "Weekly." . . Lawrence Arcarese, associate professor of communication, has been elected President of the Industrial Training and Education Division of the Association for Educational Communications and Technology. AECT has a membership of more than 15,000. . . "The Research Interview," an article by Dr. Gary Brannigan, professor of psychology, is included in Effective Interviewing, edited by Alexander Tolor. . . Nancy Church, lecturer in the School of Business and Economics, is currently in Saudi Arabia attending the 9th National Computer Conference of Saudi Arabia. The conference is sponsored by Aramco. Church will present a paper on "Computer Simulations of Consumer Decision Making." . . Richard Higgins, admissions director, has been elected vice president of the North Eastern New York Counselors Association for the 1985-86 academic year. . . A recent article in both the "Detroit News" and the "Whig-Standard" (Kingston, Ontario) quoted Dr. Roy Malpass, professor of behavioral science, and discussed his research on facial recognition. . . Dr. Naomi McCormick, associate professor of psychology, recently made two presentations to local audiences. She discussed "Addictive Love Relationships" at the CVPH Medical Center and "Sex Roles and Psychological Strengths and Problems" at a Planned Parenthood workshop. McCormick also refereed an article for the "British Journal of Cognitive Psychotherapy." . . Dr. Noel Smith, professor of psychology, refereed a book for Holt, Rinehart and Winston, and also refereed an article for "Psychological Record."

this week on campus

Unless otherwise noted, all events are free and open to the campus and public.

THURSDAY, OCTOBER 3

11:30 am - 12:45 pm — Women's Studies Program presents a panel discussion on "Re-Entry Women" with Anna Casola, Karen Norton, Nancy Preston and Carol Reynolds. Angell Center Cardinal Lounge.

3 pm — A workshop, "Interview Techniques" sponsored by the Office of Career/Life Planning and Placement. Open to the campus. Angell Center Conference Room.

3:30 pm — College Council meeting. Kehoe sixth floor board room.

4 pm — United University Professions Chapter meeting. Members only. Angell Center Cardinal Lounge.

7 pm — Sexual Harassment Prevention sponsored by Campus Life. Angell Center Cardinal Lounge.

7 pm — Students for Peace meeting. Angell Center Meeting Room 2.

8 pm — Music Artists Series presents Malcolm Bilson, internationally known fortepianist. Hartman Theatre.

FRIDAY, OCTOBER 4

1 pm — Chemistry Seminar. Dr. Donna Muscarella, PSUC '76, will lecture on "How Animal Cells Regulate Ribosome Biogenesis." Hudson 317. Sponsored by Miner Institute.

7 pm — Repertory Cinema Film. Student tickets are 50¢, public is $1 and on sale at the door. Yokum 200.

7:30 & 8:30 pm — Planetarium Show: "Autumn Skies." Free tickets are available in Hudson Hall main office beginning September 30. Hudson Hall 106.

10 pm — Bands in the Ballroom presents "Atrilogy." Tickets for students are $2, public is $4 on sale at the Angell Center Desk. Angell Center Ballroom.

SATURDAY, OCTOBER 5

1 pm — Women's Volleyball vs. St. Michael's. Field House.

1 pm — Women's Tennis vs. Middlebury. Field House Courts.

2 pm — Men's Soccer vs. Binghamton State. Field House.

4 pm — Phi Eta Sigma Induction. Angell Center.

SUNDAY, OCTOBER 6

6:45 & 9:15 pm — Student Association Film Committee presents M*A*S*H (the original). Student tickets are 50¢, faculty $1 and on sale at the Angell Center Desk. Hawkins Hall Auditorium.

7 pm — Alpha Phi Gamma Fall Rush. Angell Center Cardinal Lounge.

MONDAY, OCTOBER 7

Noon - 2 pm — Informational Meeting — TIAA/CREF sponsored by the Personnel Office. Angell Center Cardinal Lounge.

7 pm — The Accounting Club presents a speaker. Angell Center Ballroom.

8 pm — Poets and Writers Series features a Poetry Reading by Elisavietta Ritchie. Angell Center Cardinal Lounge.

10:15 pm — Student Association Senate Meeting. Angell Center Conference Room.

TUESDAY, OCTOBER 8

3 pm — "Considering Graduate School" sponsored by the office of Career/Life Planning and Placement. Open to the campus. Angell Center Conference Room.

4 pm — Men's Soccer vs. Skidmore. Field House.

4:15 pm — Omicron Delta Kappa meeting. Members only. Angell Center Amnesty Room.

4:15 pm — Tuesday Reflections presents Alexander Leggett, University of Toronto speaking on "Robertson Davies and the Comedy of Frustration." Angell Center Cardinal Lounge.

4:15 pm — "Conquer Your Midterm Exams: Test-taking Skills," a workshop sponsored by S.S.P. Angell Center Conference Room.

4:15 pm — Faculty Senate Meeting. Orchard Room.

7 pm — Women's Volleyball vs. St. Lawrence and U.V.M. Field House.

9 pm — Alpha Delta Theta Rush. Open to the campus. Angell Center Amnesty Room.

WEDNESDAY, OCTOBER 9

3 pm — Career/Life Planning and Placement Workshop. Open to the campus. Angell Center Conference Room.

3 pm — Women's Soccer vs. U.V.M. Field House.

4:15 pm — "Conquer Your Midterm Exams: Test-taking Skills," sponsored by S.S.P. Angell Center Conference Room.

5 pm — Yoga Exercise and Relaxation. Hawkins Hall Gym, Room 153.

8 pm — Spyro Gyra (fusion jazz) in Concert sponsored by the Council of the Arts of Clinton County. Tickets are $9 for students, public $11 on sale at the Angell Center Desk. Field House.

8 pm — Film: "Killing Us Softly" Advertising's Image of Women." A discussion on sex role stereotypes to be held following the film. Sponsored by Planned Parenthood and R.A. Karen Bink. DeFredenburgh Hall Main Lounge.

THURSDAY, OCTOBER 10

11:30 am - 12:45 pm — Women's Studies Forum features Catharine Stimpson of Rutgers University speaking on "Women's Studies: State of the Art." Angell Center Cardinal Lounge.

1 - 3 pm — Mr. Joseph Rizzo, Director, School of Medical Technology, Rochester General Hospital, will discuss careers in Medical Technology. For details contact Dr. Suds, Beaumont, 320. Beaumont Room 205.

7 pm — Students for Peace Meeting. Angell Center Meeting Room 2.

7:30 pm — Film: "Black Orpheus" sponsored by Latin American Studies and Campus Life. Yokum 200.

9 pm — Spur of the Moment Vacation sponsored by Campus Life. Open to the campus. Admission ticket is $5 and on sale at the Angell Center Desk. Angell Center Ballrooms.

9 pm — Pi Alpha Nu Rush. Open to the campus. Angell Center Sundowner.

CALENDAR NOTES

Good-Better-Best Aerobics — Monday through Thursday at 5 pm, Friday at 3 pm and Sunday at 3 pm. Angell Center Blue Room.

Psychological Services Center is recruiting undergraduates from any discipline to become trainers in the Stress-Management Program for 1985-86. Selected students will receive academic credit for 2 - 4 hours per week, supervised by Dr. Jacquelyn Connelly. Applications are available at Psychological Services Center, College Health Center. Application deadline: October 11, 1985.

Applications for the 1986 In Vitro Cell Biology & Biotechnology Program are currently being accepted. Deadline is October 25.

The Office of Campus Life is seeking candidates for positions as Summer Orientation Leaders for 1986. Application forms and details are available at the Angell Center desk. Application deadline is 4:30 pm, Friday, October 11, 1985.

All sociology and criminal justice students interested in criminal justice related internships for the spring semester 1986 are requested to attend an orientation meeting on Monday, October 7, at 4:00 pm at the Sociology Lounge, Redcay Building.

Alpha Chi Rho will sponsor a bottle drive to benefit the United Way from 8 am to 4 pm on Saturday, October 5. They'll collect bottles on campus and throughout the community.

The Center for the Study of Canada and Club Canada will sponsor a Trip to Quebec City October 18-20. The trip is open to students, faculty and staff. Details are available at the Center, 133 Court Street.

GALLERY EXHIBITIONS

Myers Fine Arts Gallery, through October 30
"Selections '85-'86"

Rockwell Kent Gallery, through October 15
"Graphic Arts of Rockwell Kent"
"Annual Art Faculty Exhibit"

Myers Fine Arts Gallery Lounge, through October 14
"Steina Vasulka: The West"

CURRENT JOB LISTINGS

Department	Closing Date	Central Heating Plant
Academic Computing		Assistant Stationary Engineer	10/8/85
Typist	10/5/85	College Relations
Afro-American Studies		Director of Annual Giving	10/11/85
Instructor/Lecturer	10/15/85*	Computer Science
Biological Science		Instructor/Assistant Professor	12/15/85*
Asst./Assoc. Professor (Plant Physiologist)	10/15/85	Foreign Languages & Literature
Business & Economics		Part-Time Instructors
Accounting & Management Faculty	Open	(German, French & Spanish)	Open

*Or until qualified candidate is found

Complete details are available in the Office of Personnel and Affirmative Action

HOCKEY PROBE OVER; MOST CHARGES 'GROUNDLESS'

The College announced Tuesday that the results of extensive, independent investigations of its ice hockey program by three athletic conferences indicate that nearly all charges of violations are unfounded.

More than a year ago, several anonymous letters were sent to local news media and to coaches throughout New York State alleging infraction of NCAA rules in the operation of its ice hockey program, its booster club and its financial aid program. The allegations were investigated by the State University of New York Athletic Conference (SUNYAC), the National Collegiate Athletic Association (NCAA) and the Eastern College Athletic Conference (ECAC). The three have authorized the College to comment publicly on the findings.

The College at Plattsburgh had conceded from the beginning that it violated inadvertently the NCAA rule prohibiting part-time students from practicing with the hockey team. One student, carrying 11 credit hours — one credit hour less than a full-time load — did practice occasionally with the team during the Fall of 1984.

All three conferences also considered whether a scrimmage involving some college players on September 15 violated the NCAA rule prohibiting "pre-season practice" "directed and supervised by, any member . . . of the coaching staff. . . ." and the NCAA rule prohibiting "tryouts" that the institution "shall conduct or have conducted." Though all three conferences concede that the College coaches did not direct or supervise the scrimmage and that the institution neither conducted nor had it conducted, the NCAA felt that the presence of the coach for a portion of the scrimmage constituted a violation of both the provision on pre-season practice and that on tryouts. SUNYAC and the ECAC found a violation of the tryout rule but not of the regulation on pre-season practice.

All three Conferences also investigated thoroughly the financial aid programs at the College, and unanimously concluded that no violation had occurred. A letter from Clayton Chapman, associate commissioner of the ECAC, to President Burke states the finding of that conference.

" . . . the policies and practices of the financial aid office of the University in awarding financial aid to student-athletes, including the awarding of Board Grants to alien student-athletes, did not constitute a violation of the Division III membership criteria outlined under NCAA By-law 11-3-(a). The Committee noted, in particular, that the composition of financial aid awards made to various ice hockey players at Plattsburgh was consistent with the composition of financial aid awards made to students in general at the University, and further, that the percentage of the total dollar value of institutionally administered grants awarded to student-athletes was essentially equivalent to the percentage of student-athletes within the student body.

SUNYAC, based on its findings of a violation of the two NCAA By-laws on practice by a part-time student and pre-season tryouts, determined:

1. That the College's ice hockey team will start its practice one week later on October 22, 1985;
2. That the ice hockey team will be ineligible to participate in the 1986 SUNYAC Championship.

The ECAC and the NCAA decided to impose no further team penalties, which means that the College's ice hockey team will be eligible to participate in the ECAC and NCAA Championships.

College President Joseph C. Burke called the SUNYAC penalty "harsh," given the nature of the violations.

"We are disappointed that our ice hockey team will be unable to defend its SUNYAC Championship, which it won last March. It is a difficult penalty to accept, since neither the ECAC nor the NCAA felt that the violations were so serious as to prohibit our participation in their post-season tournaments."

ANNUAL ALUMNI PHONOTHON UNDERWAY TO RAISE $35,000

The Annual Alumni Phonothon began last week and Alumni Director Mal Lavery hopes to double contributions to the alumni fund through calls to several thousand alumni during the next several weeks. Lavery said that the goal for the 1985 phonothon has been set at $35,000, with a secondary goal being to greatly increase the number of alumni who contribute to the fund. Four teams of ten student volunteers, plus some alternates, are devoting their evenings to the task. During the first three nights of calling, Lavery said the students raised $5,535 from 249 donors. "The enthusiasm of these students is contagious," Lavery said. "The success of our phonothon for the last three years is due solely to their efforts."

The overall goal of this year's alumni fund is $65,000, and more than $39,000 has been raised to date from alumni contributors.

HARRIS GRAPHICS DONATES INDUSTRIAL COMPUTERS, VALUED AT $37,000, TO COLLEGE

Harris Graphics Corporation has donated three PDP 11/23 microcomputers to the College Foundation for use by the computer science department. The gift, which includes a large number of industrial modules, is valued at $37,000. Dr. John McCormick, associate professor of computer science and one of the people involved in obtaining the equipment, explained that the computer equipment is designed to operate other types of industrial equipment and will add a new dimension to the computer science department. "With this new equipment, our students will have access to a new computer-controlled systems track which has recently been approved within the department." McCormick added that the department intends to set up a model train set to be used with the new computers. The installation is expected to be fully operational by spring.

Plattsburgh President Joseph C. Burke expressed the college's gratitude for the gift, saying, "We are very appreciative to Harris for this gift. It gives us the opportunity to offer our students some practical experience in a highly specialized area. The Harris Corporation has been especially generous to our college in the past and we are grateful for their continued support.

Harry Mowry, vice president of Harris Graphics (l) and John Manley, manager of Harris' electronic systems (r.) conveyed the new equipment to Dr. John McCormick and Daniel Stearns, both associate professors of computer science.

SEFA CAMPAIGN KICKS OFF ON CAMPUS, WITH $25,000 GOAL

The annual State Employees Federated Appeal Campaign is underway, according to campus chairperson Mayerlyn Miller. The campus goal for the 1985 campaign has been set at $25,000, and in the first five days of the campaign, college employees pledged just over $5,000. Miller said that this year's campaign is slightly different from last year's. The departmental and office representative system has been eliminated. This year, employees received contribution cards in the October 2 paycheck envelope. The cards should be returned to the Office of Personnel and Affirmative Action by October 16. Duplicate cards may be obtained in that office. Offices and/or departments with 100% participation will receive a certificate.

The SEFA Campaign was instituted several years ago to concentrate fund-raising efforts of state employees into one campaign. Campaign federations include the United Way of Clinton County, the Clinton County Health Council, Health Agencies of New York, International Service Agencies and an unaffiliated agency, Child Find. Each federation represents several member agencies and undesignated contributions are shared among all. Contributors may designate their gift to go to any one or to several specific agencies.

"We would like to encourage employees to consider making a payroll deduction pledge," Miller said, "and to try to give a 'fair share' amount. Sooner or later, at least one of the organizations under the SEFA umbrella will touch nearly everyone's life. The cost of a cup of coffee a day isn't much to one individual, but that same amount can mean a great deal to an agency dedicated to helping others." Employees may also make a contribution by check or be billed directly with several options for pledge payment.

BURKE ON SUNY 'GETTING BETTER MEANS GETTING SMALLER'

"For SUNY, getting better means getting smaller." That was the message of President Joseph C. Burke at a meeting last week of the SUNY deans of arts and science.

Referring to the passage of the "Flexibility Law," which grants the State University system more autonomy, Burke said the law had issued a challenge and a choice to SUNY. "The challenge," he said, "is to enhance the quality of the State University in a period of declining enrollments and restrained resources. The only choice," he continued, "is to choose quality over quantity."

Burke went on to say that the choice, definitely a courageous one, would be especially difficult for SUNY, since the system has, since its inception in 1948, pursued a plan of "greatness through growth." However, during the 1970's, a dramatic shift in fiscal prospects and public perceptions altered the situation. "A nation that once believed it could shape its future by pursuing every possibility now realized that its prospects depended on setting priorities."

Faced with declining budgets, SUNY "tried to do the impossible," Burke continued. "We attempted to do more with less. We expanded tremendously not our enrollments, but the range and number of our programs, activities, and services during a period of heavy funding and staffing cuts. We pursued quantity at the price of quality."

Now, Burke suggested, faced with a dramatic decline in the traditional college-age population, SUNY should ask the governor and the legislature to continue the current level of funding, but approve smaller enrollments. SUNY, however, must also look inward to solve its problems, he said, and suggested the development of a system-wide plan with three components — realistic enrollment projections, realistic budget expectations and realistic campus missions.

"Adequate funding for universities," he said, "is an equation composed of two components — funding and enrollment levels. If you cannot raise the first, you must do the next best thing, cut the second. . . . The alternative choice of clinging to impossible enrollment levels in the face of the demographic depression will be disastrous. The time has come," he concluded, "for SUNY to face its most crucial challenge of declining enrollments and diminished resources by making the critical choice of quality over quantity. For SUNY, getting better means getting smaller."

GWENDOLYN BROOKS TO GIVE POETRY READING ON BLACK POETRY DAY

Pulitzer Prize winning poet, Gwendolyn Brooks will give a reading of her poetry to celebrate Black Poetry Day at 7:30 p.m. on October 17 in the Angell Center Ballroom. Brooks won the Pulitzer Prize for poetry in 1950 for Annie Allen and was the first Black woman to receive the coveted prize. In 1968, she was named Poet Laureate of Illinois, a position once held by Carl Sandburg. She has received many other awards and holds more than 40 honorary doctorates. Brooks has written several books of poetry, among them Bronzeville Boys and Girls, Family Pictures, and To Disembark, and one novel Maud Martha. Her visit is sponsored by the Clinton-Essex-Franklin Library System, with partial funding from the Literature Program of the NYS Council of the Arts through Poets and Writers, Inc. and other funding assistance from a NYS Library Services and Construction Fund.

SPORTS UPDATE: UPS AND DOWNS FOR THE CARDINAL TEAMS

The women's volleyball team defeated a fine St. Michael's squad by game scores of 13-15, 15-10, 15-8, 15-10. The Cardinals, who are 10-3 this season, were led by Michelle Everleth's 10 points, nine kills, four blocks, three aces and one kill.

Jim Nichol's men's and women's cross country teams traveled to Syracuse to run in the LeMoyne Invitational. Freshman Andy Guay made his PSUC debut a successful one by winning the junior varsity race. In the varsity race, the men finished 14th out of 18th teams. The women, led by senior Ellen Kissane's 13th place effort, came in fifth out of 14 teams.

The men's tennis team lost to St. Michael's College 7-1. Karl Runkle picked up the lone Cardinal victory, winning his match 6-3, 6-4. Diana Alexander's women's tennis team suffered a 5-4 loss to St. Lawrence University. The Cardinals were leading 4-2 after the singles matches, but all three PSUC doubles teams lost giving the Larries the win.

The women's soccer team defeated St. Michael's 3-0, but lost to Ithaca College by that same count. Against the Purple Knights, three different players scored. Karen Wiley scored in the first half while Barb Abigail and Darlene LeVielie tallied second half scores for the 4-3-1 Cardinals.

The men's soccer team continues to have difficulty putting the ball in the net. The Cardinals tied Potsdam State 1-1. Senior midfielder Andrew Aguirre scored the game's first goal before the hosts tied the contest minutes later on a penalty kick. Neither team was able to mount many scoring chances during the overtime. On Saturday PSUC faced nationally ranked Binghamton State and lost 4-0. John Van Pelt had 12 saves for the Cardinals.

weekly notes

Dr. William Graziadei, professor of biological sciences, has been selected for inclusion in the most recent edition of Who's Who in America. Who's Who provides authoritative and comprehensive biographical data on persons whose positions in, and contributions to, society have made them subjects of national reference interest. . . Lendall Haskell, associate professor in the Center for Teacher Education, conducted an inservice workshop at the Tenth Annual Adirondacks Conference for Teachers and Administrators at the Sagamore Conference Center in Raquette Lake. . . Dr. Naomi McCormick, associate professor of psychology, made a presentation on "Sexual Harassment of Students: Implications of Survey Research for College Policies" at a meeting of the Society for the Scientific Study of Sex. McCormick's article "Encouraging Rural Youth to be Sexually Responsible" has been published in the Research Notes of the November, 1985 SIECUS Report. . . Dr. Richard Sudds, professor of biological science, has been invited to be a participant in a panel discussion on "Allied Health Student Recruitment" to be held during a SUNY Conference on Allied Health Professions Education next week. Sudds is the representative for the medical technology programs in the SUNY four-year colleges. . . Dr. David Bedworth, associate professor, and Dr. Michael Wolfe, director of the Center for Teacher Education, conducted an inservice program for the teachers and administrators in the Ticonderoga School District in September. . . An article co-authored by Dr. William Gaeddert, associate professor of psychology, and two former students, Todd Yando and Karen Nigolean, entitled "Motivation of Video Game Players," has been published in Psychological Reports. . . Gaeddert, McCormick and Sonja Perrin recently made a presentation on "Power and College Students' Contraceptive Decisions" at a meeting of the Society for the Scientific Study of Sex. . . Elizabeth Pasti, director of the Special Services Project, and Vivian Papson, director of the Upward Bound Project, recently attended the fourth annual conference of the National Council of Educational Opportunity Associations.

this week on campus

Unless otherwise noted, all events are free and open to the campus.

THURSDAY, OCTOBER 10

11:30 am - 12:45 pm — Women's Studies Forum features Catharine Stimpson, of Rutgers University speaking on "Women's Studies: State of the Art." Angell Center Cardinal Lounge.

1 - 3 pm — Mr. Joseph Rizzo, Director, School of Medical Technology, Rochester General Hospital, will discuss careers in Medical Technology. For details contact Dr. Sudds, Beaumont 320. Beaumont Room 205.

4 pm — Reception for adult students sponsored by Campus Life. Open to the campus. Angell Center Conference Room.

7 pm — Students for Peace meeting. Angell Center Meeting Room 2.

7:30 pm — Film: "Black Orpheus" sponsored by Latin American Studies and Campus Life. Yokum 200.

9 pm — Spur of the Moment Vacation sponsored by Campus Life. Open to the campus. Admission ticket is $5 and on sale at the Angell Center Desk. Angell Center Ballrooms.

9 pm — Pi Alpha Nu Rush. Open to the campus. Angell Center Sundowner.

FRIDAY, OCTOBER 11

7 pm — "A Clockwork Orange," a film sponsored by Repertory Cinema. Tickets are 50¢ for students and 75¢ for public and on sale at the Angell Center Desk. Yokum 200.

SATURDAY, OCTOBER 12

11 am — Women's Soccer vs. Plymouth State. Field House.

2 pm — Men's Soccer vs. St. Michaels. Field House.

MONDAY, OCTOBER 13

6 pm — Environmental Action Committee meeting. Hudson Hall 028.

10:15 pm — Student Association Senate meeting. Angell Center Conference Room.

TUESDAY, OCTOBER 15

4 pm — Women's Soccer vs. Skidmore. Field House.

4:15 pm — Dr. Eugene Link, Plattsburgh Emeritus, speaking on "Nicaragua: A First Hand Report." A Tuesday Reflections presentation. Angell Center Cardinal Lounge.

7 pm — International Relations Club general meeting on the Homecoming Float. Members only. Angell Center Conference Room.

7:30 pm — An Information Session with the Peace Corps. Sponsored by the office of Career/Life Planning and Placement. Angell Center Cardinal Lounge.

9 pm — Pi Alpha Nu Rush. Open to the campus. Angell Center Sundowner.

WEDNESDAY, OCTOBER 16

11 am - 3 pm — CVPH Blood Drive sponsored by Alpha Phi Gamma. Angell Center Ballroom.

3 pm — Men's Soccer vs. R.P.I. Field House.

4 pm — Gamma Theta Upsilon presents "Journey Through the Revolution in Nicaragua." Cardinal Lounge.

7:30 pm — "Reagan's Dirty Little War in Central America." Sponsored by Students for Peace. Angell Center Ballroom.

8 pm — Film: "Big Boys Can Cry: The Changing Image of American Men." A discussion on sex role stereotypes to follow film. Sponsored by Planned Parenthood and R.A. Ed Asselin. Open to the campus. Kent Hall Main Lounge.

8 pm — Alpha Phi Gamma Fall Rush. All women invited to attend. Angell Center Cardinal Lounge.

9 pm — Alpha Delta Theta Rush. Open to the campus. Angell Center Conference Room.

THURSDAY, OCTOBER 17

11:30 am - 12:45 pm — Women's Studies Forum presents "Feminist Issues Past, Present and Future: A Roundtable Discussion with PSUC Faculty." Angell Center Cardinal Lounge.

11:45 am — Music Brown Bag Concert sponsored by the Center for Art, Music and Theatre. Angell Center Blue Room.

3 pm — Resumes and Cover Letters — A workshop sponsored by the office of Career/Life Planning and Placement. Open to the campus. Angell Center Conference Room.

8 pm — Black Poetry Day featuring Gwendolyn Brooks. Sponsored by the Clinton, Essex, Franklin Library, the Department of English and Akeba. Angell Center Ballroom.

CALENDAR NOTES

Good-Better-Best Aerobics — Monday through Thursday at 5 pm, Friday at 3 pm and Sunday at 3 pm. Open to all no charge. Angell Center Blue Room.

The Office of Campus Life is seeking candidates for positions as Summer Orientation Leaders for 1986. Application forms including details on qualifications, job responsibilities, etc. are available at the Angell Center main desk. Applications must be completed and submitted to the Office of Campus Life, Angell Center Room 110 no later than 4:30 pm, Friday, October 11, 1985.

The Office of Campus Life announces that applications for 1986-87 Resident Assistant positions will be available at the Angell Center Desk commencing Monday, October 21, 1985. Complete details of the application and selection process will be reviewed at General Information meetings on Monday, October 28 and Tuesday, October 29 both at 4 pm in the Angell Center Cardinal Lounge. Interested students should plan to attend one of these meetings.

Applications for the 1986 In Vitro Cell Biology & Biotechnology Program are currently being accepted. Deadline is October 25.

GALLERY EXHIBITIONS

Myers Fine Arts Gallery, through Oct. 30

"Selections '85-'86"

Rockwell Kent Gallery, through October 15

"Graphic Arts of Rockwell Kent"

"Annual Art Faculty Exhibit"

Myers Fine Arts Gallery Lounge, through Oct. 14

"Steina Vasulka: The West"

CURRENT JOB LISTINGS

Department

Closing Date

Afro-American Studies

Instructor/Lecturer

10/15/85*

Biological Sciences

Asst./Assoc. Professor (Plant Physiologist)

10/15/85

Business & Economics

Accounting & Management Faculty

Open

College Relations

Director of Annual Giving

10/11/85

Computer Science

Instructor/Assistant Professor

12/15/85*

Foreign Languages & Literature

Part-Time Instructors

(German, French & Spanish)

Open

Health Services

Technical Assistant P/T

10/11/85

Human Resources

Stenographer P/T

* 10/10/85

Mathematics

Assistant/Associate Professor

12/01/85

*Or until qualified candidate is found

Complete details are available in the Office of Personnel and Affirmative Action

BEQUEST PROVIDES MORE THAN $200,000 TO SUPPORT MUSIC

A bequest from the estate of Louise Heisler, a life-long performing musician and supporter of the arts, will provide in excess of $200,000 to support music at Plattsburgh State. The bequest to the College Foundation is to be used "to establish a memorial scholarship or scholarships . . . for the benefit of deserving students at State University College, Plattsburgh, whose major or concentration is in music."

In addition to money for scholarships, the bequest included a grand piano, some household furniture and furnishings, silver, a mortgage, other personal belongings and some biographical and genealogical materials. Attorney Robert Booth and Dr. James Mapstone, executor of the estate, conveyed the gift to the Foundation.

Curtis Shipman, vice president of the College Foundation, said, "The Foundation is grateful to receive such a major bequest from a long-time community resident and friend of the college. We are very pleased with this demonstration of faith in, and support for, both the Foundation's mission and the College at Plattsburgh."

Richard Probert, Director of the Center for Art, Music and Theatre, commented, "we are delighted to receive the Heisler bequest for establishing music scholarships for both majors and non-majors coming to SUNY Plattsburgh. This gift will have a dramatic effect upon music performance at our college and in our community for many years." He added that the gift comes at a very propitious time since the college's music major and minor have recently been revised and revitalized. The revision of the BA Music Degree dramatically increases the required number of performance credits and raises the required number of credits to 59. The bequest combined with the demands of the revised major, makes this degree among the most demanding in the state system.

Louise Honsinger Heisler was born and raised in Plattsburgh and lived much of her life on Brinkerhoff Street. She received a degree in music from Syracuse University and taught music at various levels. Following her marriage, she and her husband moved to Summit, NJ, where she became well known as both a performer and an instructor. She was a member of the honorary music society, Mu Phi Epsilon. She returned to Plattsburgh after her husband's death and served as an organist to several area churches. Mrs. Heisler frequently attended cultural events on the Plattsburgh campus.

REDCAY HALL TO BE FORMALLY DEDICATED DURING HOMECOMING WEEKEND

The Drs. Edward E. and Lillian B. Redcay Building will be formally dedicated on Saturday (Oct. 19) in ceremonies beginning at 3:30 p.m. in front of the building. Dr. Joseph C. Burke will preside. Several alumni and faculty members, including Judith Duken '59, Dr. Edgar Barton, Robert Furlong '79, Annamarie Grasberger Kelly '54, Dr. Thomas Rooney '46, and Dr. Lary Shaffer, will "remember the Redcays." Council Chairperson Louis E. Wolfe will officially name the building and Dr. and Mrs. Xenophon Damianos '51/'50 will assist Dr. Redcay with the unveiling of the plaque. Following the response from Dr. Redcay, the newly formed Cardinal Singers, under the direction of Richard Zielinski, will perform the long-unsung "Alma Mater." A wine and cheese reception will follow the dedication.

Dr. Edward E. Redcay has been a faculty member and administrator at the college since 1939, and has served in various capacities, including Dean of Students and Acting President. Although he officially retired in 1969, he maintains an office on campus and continues to counsel and advise students. He has received the college's Distinguished Service Award and a Presidential Award of Honor and is a charter member of the Hall of Fame. Dr. Lillian B. Redcay was a member of the Class of 1942 and taught in the psychology department from 1938 until 1973. The Redcay Endowment and the Redcay Trust Fund together represent the largest individual gift to date to the Plattsburgh College Foundation.

HOMECOMING '85 TO FEATURE HALL OF FAME INDUCTION

Several special events scheduled for this weekend are attracting large numbers of alumni back to their alma mater for Homecoming '85. Alumni activities begin Friday evening with a class reunion buffet from 7 to 9 p.m. in the Angell Center Orchard Room. The Homecoming Parade will begin at 10 a.m. on Saturday and members of the honored alumni classes (years ending in 0 or 5) will participate. Class luncheons for those classes will be held in various locations. A special reunion luncheon for classes from 1938 to 1949 will be held at Dr. Edward E. Redcay's home.

At 3:30 p.m., the Drs. Edward E. and Lillian B. Redcay Building will be formally dedicated. During the dedication ceremony, several alumni who were former students of the Redcays, will speak. A reception will follow the ceremony.

At 4:30 p.m., home economics graduates will be guests at a reception in the Home Management Living Lab in Banks Hall.

President and Mrs. Burke will host a reception for all alumni from 6:30 to 7:30 p.m. in the Blue Lounge, and the annual Homecoming Dinner Dance will follow at 7:30 p.m. Music will be by the 18-piece Dutchess Community College Jazz Ensemble.

On Sunday morning, a former director of athletics and three former Cardinal athletes will be inducted into the Plattsburgh Hall of Fame. Joseph Jastrab, former director of athletics, Robert E. Maher '74, Larry Parker '78, and Richard Semmler '68 will be honored following a brunch which begins at 9:30 a.m.

Welcome Alumni

COMMUNICATIONS DEPARTMENT WINS OVR AWARD FOR DEVELOPMENT OF VIDEOTAPE

The North District Office of Vocational Rehabilitation has presented the college's communication department with an appreciation award for the development of a videotape presentation which promotes OVR services to various agencies and organizations around the North Country. The award was presented to the department during the Annual OVR Awards Luncheon last week. Lawrence Arcarese, who teaches the course in "Advanced Non-Studio Television" explained that three students wrote and produced the 12-minute tape to fulfill a class requirement during the spring semester. The three students involved were Kevin Hunter '85, Kristen Patch '85, and Brent Rickert '86. Portions of the videotape, according to a spokesperson from OVR, will be used in a promotional tape being developed on a state level.

ACSUS INSTALLS DR. RICHARD BEACH AS PRESIDENT

Dr. Richard Beach, director of the Center for the Study of Canada, was installed recently as president of the Association for Canadian Studies in the United States (ACSUS) for a two-year term. ACSUS is the largest organization of its kind in the world and numbers among its 1200 members lawyers, business leaders and government officials, as well as educators. As president, Beach will be responsible for the administration of the Secretariat in Washington, DC, a quarterly journal, newsletters, special publications and liaisons with government officials and the business community. He formerly served as executive councilor for four years, and as vice president for two years.

Plattsburgh State had the largest representation of any university in the country at the conference. Drs. Martin Lubin, Suzann Buckley, Bruce Butterfield, and Prem Gandhi, made presentations, and Dr. Jeanne Kissner (current president of the American Council for Quebec Studies) conducted meetings. Also in attendance were Drs. Phil Reines, Dennis Kimmage, David Stolloff, and Ed Hamblet, as well as several Canadian Studies students.

NEW YORKER WRITERS TO BE FEATURED SPEAKERS IN DISTINGUISHED VISITING PROFESSOR SERIES

Six well known writers, all of whom write for "The New Yorker," will be the featured guests during a series of campus visits by Distinguished Visiting Professors of Journalism. The six will conduct workshops, visit joint sessions of journalism classes, hold faculty forums, and give readings from their own works at public appearances.

The series begins October 21-22 with Anthony Bailey, who also writes for "The Observer" and "The Sunday Times." Bailey is the author of America, Lost and Found and England, First and Last. Calvin Trillin, author of the "New Yorker" column "U.S. Journal," will lecture on October 29. His books include An Education in Georgia, American Fried: Adventures of a Happy Eater, and Alice, Let's Eat. John Brooks, the author of a number of notable books on business and Wall Street, including Business Adventures, The Go-Go Years and Showing Off in America will visit the campus on November 18-19. Jane Kramer, who has for several years written the "Letter from Europe" column will appear on December 3. Kramer's book The Last Cowboy won the American Book Award (formerly the National Book Award) in 1981 for general nonfiction in paperback.

Two other "New Yorker" authors will speak as part of the series during the spring semester. The series is sponsored by the Distinguished Visiting Professor Selection committee and is being coordinated by Dr. Janet Groth of the English department, who is a former "New Yorker" editor.

GET READY FOR ADVISEMENT

The advisement and course selection period for the spring semester will begin on Monday, October 28 and continue until Tuesday, November 12. Students should schedule early appointments with their advisors and should do some planning (review the Master Schedule) prior to their meeting. Those students with a G.P.A. of less than 2.0 should ask their advisors about the academic probation guidelines.

Students may turn in their completed registration cards beginning October 28 in the College Center lobby. All registration cards must be turned in by Tuesday, November 12. After all cards are collected, the students will be registered by class priority. Students are urged to indicate alternate class sections, and to select alternate courses at the time they register.

Questions concerning advisement, or academic policies and procedures, can be directed to Tom Corigliano, assistant to the vice president for academic affairs, A-314, phone 2080.

Questions regarding the registration process can be directed to Evelyn Skopp, assistant registrar, A-304, phone 2095.

FACULTY WOMEN'S ORGANIZATION OFFERS $500 SCHOLARSHIP

The Faculty Women's Organization has contributed $500 for a scholarship which it would like to award for the spring '86 semester. An eligible applicant must be a full-time student at PSUC; have junior, senior or graduate status; have a minimum cumulative 3.0 grade point average for undergraduate, 3.5 for graduate; and demonstrate financial need. To apply, file a letter of application, indicating career objectives, progress to date toward same, and need; have a Financial Aid Form on file with the Financial Aid Office. (These applications, if not already on file, may be obtained from and returned to the Financial Aid Office.); and enclose supporting recommendations from an academic advisor and a professor in an academic major. Please submit the letter of application and recommendations to: Faculty Women's Organization, Attention: Ms. Joanne Domenico, c/o Dr. Raymond Domenico, Hearing and Speech Science, Sibley 226. The deadline for applications is November 15, 1985. Notification of the scholarship recipient will be made by December 31. Further inquiries may be directed to Denise Lacki, Financial Aid Office (2072).

GUGGENHEIM WINNER COLETTE INEZ TO READ POETRY ON CAMPUS OCTOBER 23

Poet Colette Inez will present a reading of her own work at 8 p.m. on October 23 in the Cardinal Lounge. Inez, winner of NEA, Rockefeller and Guggenheim awards, is currently on the faculty of Columbia University. She is the author of The Woman Who Loved Worms, Alive and Taking Names and Eight Minutes from the Sun. Her poetry has appeared in numerous anthologies and other publications. Her visit is sponsored by the Poets and Writers Series and funded by the Literature Program of the NY State Council on the Arts.

SPORTS UPDATE: CROSS COUNTRY TEAMS HEADING TO SUNYAC CHAMPIONSHIPS

The volleyball team won three out of five matches last week. On Wednesday night the Cardinals swept Vermont and St. Lawrence. PSUC finished third at the Oneonta State tourney, defeating Stony Brook and Russell Sage while losing to RIT, Union and the hosts in the semi-finals.

The men's soccer team suffered through another difficult week. The Cards tied Skidmore 1-1 before losing to Johnson State and St. Michael's 2-1 and 5-1 respectively. In the St. Michael's game, John Van Pelt made 10 saves despite playing with a 102 degree fever.

Sue Viscomi's women's soccer team split two contests last week. The Cards lost to Division I Vermont 2-0 before coming back to defeat highly regarded Plymouth State 1-0. Darlene LeVielle scored her fifth goal of the season midway through the second half to give the Cardinals the victory.

The men's tennis team participated in the SUNYAC championships in Albany this past weekend. The Cards scored 8½ points to finish in sixth place behind team champion Albany State.

The men's and women's cross country teams were idle this weekend. On Saturday Jim Nichols' harriers will run in the SUNYAC championships at Brockport State.

weekly notes

Correction: Dr. Henry Morlock, professor of psychology, is the co-author, with Todd Yando and Karen Nigolean, of the article "Motivation of Video Game Players." . . President Joseph C. Burke recently presented a speech entitled "The Academic-Business Partnership: Problems and Possibilities" to the National Association of Technical Assistance Centers. . . Dr. Charles Mitchell, professor in the Center for Teacher Education and Educational Services, has published an article entitled "Leaf Printing" in this month's issue of Science and Children. . . Dr. H. Griffin Walling, director of the Center for Lifelong Learning, recently presented a seminar on "Managing Conflict" to 80 administrative staff members of the CVPH Medical Center. . . Dr. Michael Wolfe, director of the Center for Teacher Education and Educational Services, has published an article entitled "Partnership in Education: A Working Model" in this month's issue of The Texas Association for Supervision and Curriculum Development Journal.

this week on campus

Unless otherwise noted, all events are free and open to the campus and public.

THURSDAY, OCTOBER 17

11:30 am - 12:45 pm — Women's Studies Forum presents "Feminist Issues Past, Present and Future. Angell Center Cardinal Lounge.

11:45 am — Music Brown Bag Concert sponsored by the Center for Art, Music and Theatre. Angell Blue Room.

3 pm — Resumes and Cover Letters — A workshop sponsored by the office of Career/Life Planning and Placement. Open to the campus. Angell Center Conference Room.

7 pm — Students for Peace meeting. Angell Center Meeting Room 2.

8 pm — Circle K meeting. Meeting Room 1 of the Angell Center.

8 pm — Black Poetry Day featuring Gwendolyn Brooks. Sponsored by the Clinton, Essex, Franklin Library, the Department of English and Akeba. Angell Center Ballroom.

8 pm — Homecoming King and Queen Coronation sponsored by the Student Association. Open to the campus. Angell Center Blue Room.

FRIDAY, OCTOBER 18

7 pm — Film: "Jaws" sponsored by Repertory Cinema. Student tickets are 50¢, public 75¢ and on sale at the Angell Center Desk. Yokum 200.

7:30 & 8:30 pm — Planetarium show "The Legacy." Pick up free tickets in Hudson Hall Room 101.

9 pm — Akeba King and Queen Coronation/Party. Student tickets are $1.50, public $2 and on sale at the Angell Center Desk. Angell Center Sundowner.

SATURDAY, OCTOBER 19

9:30 am — ODK Alumni Breakfast/Reception. Members only. Angell Center Cardinal Lounge.

10 am — Homecoming Parade: Plattsburgh State's Cartoon Follies '85. Parade begins at Zayre's Plaza and ends behind Memorial Hall.

10 pm - 2 am — Semi-Formal: "Night in Vivid Animation." Student tickets are $1.50, couples $3 and on sale at the Angell Center Desk. Field House. The S.A. bus will provide transportation.

SUNDAY, OCTOBER 20

11 am — Generic Road Rally sponsored by the Commuter Club. Automobile Road Rally Questions and Answers. Tickets are $5 and on sale at the Angell Center Desk from Oct. 11 to Oct. 18. Myers Fine Arts Parking Lot.

6 pm — Forensic Union Awards. Open to the campus. Angell Center Cardinal Lounge.

6:45 & 9:15 pm — Student Association Movie: "Return of the Jedi." Student tickets are 50¢, faculty $1 and on sale at the Angell Center Desk. Hawkins Hall Auditorium.

10 pm — "Coping With College Stresses Through Relaxation." A workshop sponsored by R.A.P. RAs Karl Diehl and Gina Marsh. Open to the campus. Whiteface Hall Sunshine Room.

MONDAY, OCTOBER 21

10 am - 2 pm — Crime Prevention Display sponsored by the Department of Public Safety. Angell Center Lobby.

11:30 am — The Department of Business and Economics sponsors a workshop for Canadian Businessmen. Contact Dr. Miles Martin for more information. Angell Center Ballroom.

6 pm — Environmental Action Committee meeting. Hudson 028.

7 pm — Alpha Phi Gamma Fall Rush. All women invited to attend. Angell Center Conference Room.

8 pm — Distinguished Visiting Professors of Journalism Series presents a public reading by Anthony Bailey. Blue Room.

8 pm — Campus Poets Series presents Robert Casper. Angell Center Cardinal Lounge.

10:15 pm — Student Association Senate meeting. Angell Center Conference Room.

TUESDAY, OCTOBER 22

8 am — Workshop in Reality Therapy sponsored by the Center for Lifelong Learning. Register at the Center for Lifelong Learning. Angell Center Ballroom.

10 am - 2 pm — Crime Prevention Display sponsored by the Department of Public Safety. Angell Center Lobby.

3 pm — Targeting Your Job Search — A workshop sponsored by the office of Career/Life Planning and Placement. Open to the campus. Angell Center Conference Room.

7:30 pm — Film: "War Without Winners" sponsored by the Students for Peace. Angell Center Ballroom.

8 pm — The Champlain Chamber Music Series presents the Champlain Trio in concert. Hartman Theatre.

WEDNESDAY, OCTOBER 23

10 am - 2 pm — Crime Prevention Display sponsored by the Department of Public Safety. Angell Center Lobby.

3 pm — Men's Soccer vs. Clarkson. Field House.

3 pm — Interview Techniques — A workshop sponsored by the office of Career/Life Planning and Placement. Open to the campus. Angell Center Conference Room.

5 pm — Yoga Exercise and Relaxation. New members welcome anytime. Hawkins Hall Gym Room 153.

8 pm — R.A.P. workshop on "Stress Relaxation." Kent Hall Main Lounge.

8 pm — "Dating, Relating and Mating" — A discussion on relationships and how to. Sponsored by Planned Parenthood and R.A.s Tom Gonyea and Ann McLaughlin. Open to the campus. Moffitt Hall Main Lounge.

8 pm — Poetry Reading featuring Colette Inez, winner of the Guggenheim Award. Sponsored by the Poet and Writer's Series. Angell Center Cardinal Lounge.

THURSDAY, OCTOBER 24

10 am - 2 pm — Crime Prevention Display sponsored by the Department of Public Safety. Angell Center Lobby.

11:30 am - 12:45 pm — Women's Studies Forum presents Penny Clute, D.A. candidate, speaking on "The Only Problem With You is That You are a Woman: Women Running for Political Office." Angell Center Cardinal Lounge.

3 pm — Considering Graduate School — A workshop sponsored by the office of Career/Life Planning and Placement. Open to the campus. Angell Center Conference Room.

7 pm — Students for Peace meeting. Angell Center Meeting Room 2.

7 pm — A guest speaker sponsored by the Plattsburgh State Weight Training Club. Open to the campus. Angell Center Amnesty Room.

8 pm — Circle K meeting. Meeting Room 1 of the Angell Center.

8 pm — A lecture by Sandy Skogland, photographer sponsored by the Visual Artist Series. Angell Center Ballroom.

9 pm — Pi Alpha Nu Rush. Open to the campus. Angell Center Sundowner.

CALENDAR NOTES

Good-Better-Best Aerobics — Monday through Thursday at 5 pm, Tuesday and Wednesday at 7 pm, Friday at 3 pm and Sunday at 3 pm. Open to all no charge. Angell Center Blue Room.

The Office of Campus Life announces that applications for 1986-87 Resident Assistant positions will be available at the Angell Center Desk commencing Monday, October 21, 1985. Complete details of the application and selection process will be reviewed at General Information meetings on Monday, October 28 and Tuesday, October 29 both at 4 pm in the Angell Center Cardinal Lounge. Interested students should plan to attend one of these meetings.

There will be a Montreal Bus on Saturday, October 26 sponsored by Campus Life. Tickets are $8.00 round trip and on sale at the Angell Center Desk beginning Monday, October 21. The bus departs campus at 9 a.m. and leaves Place Bonaventure at 6 pm. The Office of Academic Computing and College Auxiliary Services are offering special discount prices on several computers, including a Data General DG/One Portable Computer. Anyone connected with PSUC as student, faculty, staff or alumnus is eligible for the discounts. For complete details, contact the Office of Academic Computing.

The Circle K club will sponsor a 4 x ½ mile relay race to benefit the Muscular Dystrophy Association on November 9, with competition in eight divisions. Details and registration materials are available at the Angell Center Desk.

GALLERY EXHIBITIONS

Myers Fine Arts Gallery, through October 30
"Selections '85-'86"

Myers Fine Arts Lobby, through December 20
"I Love N.Y. Paper: PSUC Student Works on Paper"

CURRENT JOB LISTINGS

Department	Closing Date	Foreign Language & Literature
Business & Economics		Part-Time Instructors
Accounting & Management Faculty	Open	(German, French & Spanish)	Open
Computer Science		Mathematics
Instructor/Assistant Professor	12/15/85*	Assistant/Associate Professor	12/1/85

*Or until qualified candidate is found

Complete details are available in the Office of Personnel and Affirmative Action

FOUNDATION LEADS SUNY COLLEGES IN TOTAL PRIVATE SUPPORT

The Plattsburgh College Foundation led the established SUNY Colleges of Arts and Science in generating total private support during the 1983-84 academic year, according to a recent report from SUNY Central. Plattsburgh's Foundation received $420,385 during that period, followed by Oswego with $339,767, and Buffalo with $306,821. The others received varying amounts ranging downward from $297,824 to a low of $48,389. Plattsburgh led the list in Business/Corporate giving with $122,805, 43% more than the next highest total in that category. Plattsburgh was second in Alumni contributions and third in contributions from non-alumni, as well as gifts to endowments. In addition, the campus Foundation received the second highest earnings on its investments.

Curtis Shipman, vice president of the Foundation, commented, "We're very thankful to everyone who has helped make our own Foundation so successful over the past few years. We're especially grateful to the countless volunteers who solicit those gifts, whether it's through calls to alumni or visiting local businesses. The goal of our Foundation is to help ensure that every deserving student can afford his or her college education here at Plattsburgh and we're very proud that we've been able to provide $300,000 in financial aid to nearly 600 students this year."

96% OF COLLEGE'S NURSING GRADUATES PASS LICENSING EXAMINATION ON FIRST TRY

Dr. Jeanette Coleman, director of nursing, reported this week that 96% of the college's 1985 nursing graduates who took the July licensing examination for registered nurses in New York State passed the test. Information has not yet been released on the state-wide passing average, but Coleman commented that Plattsburgh students have traditionally performed well above the state average on the licensing examination. There are currently 394 students enrolled as nursing majors on the Plattsburgh campus.

THIRD CANADA-US BUSINESS CONFERENCE SET FOR OCTOBER 27-29

Nearly 200 businesspersons, government officials and educators have already registered for the third Canada-United States Business Perspectives Conference being held October 27-29 in Montreal. Economists John Kenneth Galbraith and Robert Reich will be the headline speakers for the conference, which is co-sponsored by the college's Center for the Study of Canada and the Business Fund for Canadian Studies in the United States. Major topics to be addressed this year include industrial policy, free trade, financial policy, investment, the North American economy and the flow of information between the two countries.

Galbraith, Paul M. Warburg Professor of Economics Emeritus at Harvard University, will speak on "Industrial and Investment Policy in North America: Meeting World Competition" at the opening dinner on Sunday evening. Reich, professor of business policy at the John F. Kennedy School of Government at Harvard, will discuss "The Next North American Economy" at a luncheon meeting on Tuesday.

On Monday morning, Bernard Landry, Quebec's Minister of Finance, will address the participants on North American economic ties, particularly regarding Quebec and New York State.

Other speakers include, among others, William Dymond, coordinator of the Canada-United States Task Force for the Canadian Department of Internal Affairs; Geza Feketekuty, senior assistant U.S. trade representative for trade policy development and coordination; W.B. Hewat, executive vice president of marketing, Bell Canada; Robert Boone, director of international policy and planning; AT&T; John Wenninger, senior economist of the Federal Reserve Bank of New York; and Donald Stephenson, chief of monetary and financial analysis of the Bank of Canada.

FRESHMAN PRESIDENTIAL SCHOLARS CONTINUE TRADITION OF HIGH STANDARDS

The ten Presidential Scholars chosen from the incoming freshman class have continued the tradition of high standards for the program, according to Dr. David Mowry, director of the college's Honors Program. Mowry said that this year's Presidential Scholars entered college with a mean high school average of 94.33 and a mean SAT score of 1297. The ten freshman Presidential Scholars, their hometowns, and majors are: Jennifer Buhay, Apalachin, communications; Dina Casey, Ausable Forks, psychology; Theresa Fisher, Chazy, undeclared; Diana Fitzsimmons, Washingtonville, business; Janice Germiller, Poughkeepsie, English; Aaron Glascock, Mooers Forks, computer science; Kathy Kane, Elmira, business; Lynn Peterson, Clarence Center, communications; Bruce Van Schaick, Cape Vincent, accounting; and Judith Williams, Delanson, Spanish.

Presidential Scholars are chosen solely on the basis of academic merit to receive the equivalent of four-year full-tuition scholarships from the Plattsburgh College Foundation.

ALPHA PHI GAMMA CLAIMS BOTH PRESIDENT'S AND SCHOLARSHIP CUP

Alpha Phi Gamma sorority has won both the President's Cup and the Scholastic Cup for 1985. The awards, announced during last weekend's Homecoming activities, are given to the Greek organization having the best record of community service and the best overall grade point average, respectively. Student Association President Bill Mattar commented, "The Homecoming award winners were outstanding this year. I feel they present the student body and the SA in a very positive light."

FORENSIC TEAM HOSTS TOURNAMENT; PLACES THIRD

Plattsburgh students finished first in all three oral interpretation events at the 15th annual Plattsburgh State Forensic Tournament held last weekend. Gretchen Schawe and Eric Marler won the Dramatic Duo event, Marler also took first in Poetry, and Lisa Zabarowski won prose interpretation. The tournament drew 16 northeastern colleges and universities including Dartmouth, Cornell, Ithaca, University of Vermont, Brown, Emerson, and Suffolk University.

Other finalists from Plattsburgh included Deborah Pacyna in Prose and Duo, Gretchen Schawe in Prose and Duo, Ed Tomac in Epideictic Speaking and Duo, Dorothy Kelly in Duo, Eric Marler in Duo, and Cathy Berghan in Informative Speaking. The Varsity Debate team of Deanna Debrine and Mary Maloney finished fourth, with Maloney taking third place debate speaker.

As a team, Plattsburgh finished 3rd behind Cornell University and Emerson College.

BASKETBALL, HOCKEY TEAMS RECEIVE GIFT FROM COMMITTEE FOR ECONOMIC IMPROVEMENT

The men's varsity basketball and hockey teams at Plattsburgh State, with an assist from the Cardinal Booster Club, have received an unusual but welcome gift from the Committee for Economic Improvement (CEI) of Essex County. CEI, which administers the Job Training Partnership Act under auspices of the Private Industry Council, has presented the teams with 45 custom-made oak stools for their locker facilities at Memorial Hall and the Plattsburgh State Field House, respectively. The stools are finished handsomely with a silkscreen likeness of the Cardinal mascot embellishing each. Delivery of the furniture symbolically represents the finishing touch on extensive renovation of both locker facilities in the past year undertaken as a project and funded by the Cardinal Booster Club.

The stools are the product of a simulated work program carried out in CEI's "chair factory" at 14 Front Street in Keeseville. They were crafted by clients in the program — individuals ranging in age from 16 to 65 who are committed to developing the skills they need to find and keep jobs.

John Clark, coordinator of client service for CEI, learned of the need of Plattsburgh State's basketball and hockey teams for sturdy locker-room seating through Plattsburgh State Counselor Tom Carlsen, a personal friend and officer of the Cardinal Booster Club who was involved in the renovation projects. A sketch of the item required was made, and the stools went into production.

Carlsen pointed out that it would cost several hundred dollars to purchase stools in the quantity provided by CEI. "Even then," he added, "it's doubtful that their quality would be anywhere near the CEI product."

The Private Industry Council is an organization of business people, local officials and educators in a four-country region who oversee the Job Training Partnership Act. The Act replaced the Comprehensive Employment and Training Act (CETA), and differs from the latter in that it emphasizes cooperation between the private and public sectors in providing job training rather than training strictly for public agency employment.

TWO NEW MUSICAL GROUPS TO PERFORM NEXT WEEK

Two newly formed musical groups will offer their first public concerts during the next week. The Cardinal Singers will perform as part of a concert by the College Chorale on Sunday, October 27 at 8 p.m. in the Angell Center Ballrooms, and the College Sinfonia will make its debut at 8 p.m. on October 30 in the Hawkins Hall Small Auditorium.

Directing the Chorale and the Cardinal Singers this year is Richard Zielinski. The Chorale will perform classical works by Hassler and Schutz as well as contemporary choral arrangements. The Cardinal Singers, a twenty member ensemble, will perform show tunes and jazz-vocal arrangements.

The Sinfonia is a chamber ensemble composed of artists, faculty, and advanced students under the direction of Yenoin Guibbory. The eight-member group will perform chamber music of various periods in their campus debut.

Both concerts are sponsored by the Center for Art, Music and Theatre and are free and open to the public.

MARKETING CLUB MEMBERS TO PRESENT RESEARCH AT MEETING OF COLLEGE STORE MANAGERS

Two members of Plattsburgh State's Marketing Club will present results of a research project at a joint meeting of the College Stores of New England and New York being held next week in Albany. George Layman, manager of the Plattsburgh College Store and program chairman for the conference, said that Andrea Osborn and Marcella Spitaletti have conducted a survey of students regarding their preference in spiral notebooks, which are the greatest single purchase item except textbooks in the stores. They have also surveyed store managers on their opinions about what students want. Ron Hobson, lecturer in the School of Business and Economics and the advisor of the Marketing Club, will chair the session. Layman said that this will be the first time that students have participated in a conference of either organization and added that he will suggest to the participants that student marketing groups on the various campuses regularly be used for research projects of this nature.

SPORTS UPDATE: WOMEN PLACE SECOND IN SUNYAC CROSS-COUNTRY CHAMPIONSHIPS

The women's cross country team finished second at the SUNYAC championships at Brockport State. Ellen Kissane led the Cardinals with a fourth place finish. Freshman Kathy Kane added an 11th place performance for PSUC. The men's team finished sixth behind team champion Cortland. Andy Hill's 26th place finish was the top PSUC finish.

Sue Viscomi's women's soccer team won three games last week. The Cardinals defeated Skidmore 3-1 on Wednesday. The Cards swept their games against Union and Albany State, 4-1 and 3-1 respectively, running their record to 8-4-1.

The men's soccer team snapped an eight game winless streak by defeating RPI 2-1. Barry Bourgeois and Andrew Aguirre scored for the Cards. On Saturday PSUC lost to nationally ranked Union College 5-0.

The volleyball team participated in the SUNYAC East tournament in Albany on Saturday. The Cardinals lost to Potsdam State, 15-10, 15-12 and to Albany State 15-3, 14-16, 15-5. The Cards then rallied to defeat New Paltz, 12-15, 15-1, and 15-9.

weekly notes

Critters' Feet, a collection of poems by Dr. Thomas J. Braga, associate professor in the department of foreign languages, received an Honorable Mention in a recent chapbook competition sponsored by The Poet in Louisiana. . . Dr. Jeanette Coleman, director of nursing, presented a paper entitled "Conceptual Framework and Curriculum Development" at a Health Occupations Coordinators Workshop held last week and sponsored by the NYS Education Department, Bureau of Business, Health and Services Programs. . . Dr. Helen Deresky, assistant professor in the School of Business and Economics, will present two research papers at the upcoming Southern Management Association Conference set for Orlando, Florida in mid-November. The papers are entitled "Generic Strategic Missions: An Empirical Investigation of Typology Validity and strategy Content" in the Business Policy and Strategy Division, and "Incorporating the Strategic Element into Strategic Human Resource Management" in the Personnel and Labor Relations Division. . . Don Garrant, assistant to the president for college relations and development, has been re-elected to a three-year term on the 12-person Board of Directors of the SUNY Council for University Affairs and Development. Garrant will represent the fund-raising area on the board. . . Dr. Edwin Hamblet, professor of French, reviewed Quebec writer Michel Tremblay's novel Des Nouvelles d'Edouard in the October issue of "The French Review." . . Dr. Carrie Harris, who recently attended the 68th annual meeting of the American Dietetic Association in New Orleans, has been appointed to serve on the editorial board of a new professional journal entitled "Topics in Clinical Nutrition," which is published by the ASPEN Systems Corporation. Harris, associate professor of Human Resources, has also agreed to serve as a reviewer for the "Journal of Nutrition Education," published by the Society of Nutrition Education. . . Cheryl Hogle, associate director of campus life, has been invited to make a presentation entitled "Recreation Tournament — An Integral Component of the Orientation Program" at the 1985 National Orientation Directors Conference being held this week in Arizona. . . Dr. Houg Liu, dean of arts and science, has been appointed to serve on a SUNY Advisory Council of Physical and Occupational Therapy programs. The council is being created to study and make recommendations on SUNY-wide Physical and Occupational Therapy programs. Liu recently attended the SUNY Deans' Conference held in Raquette Lake. . . Dr. Joan Lynch, associate professor of nursing, participated in a poster presentation of her research entitled "The Relationship Between Obesity, Anxiety and Responsiveness to External Stimuli" at the NYS Nurses Association Convention held last week in Albany. . . Dr. Nicholas Troisi, dean of professional studies, will speak next week on "The Role of the Principal in an Effective School" to a gathering of elementary school principals of Clinton, Essex and Franklin counties. Troisi will also be the guest speaker at a meeting of the Adirondack Area School Boards' Association. Troisi will discuss "The Teacher Shortage: Is It Fact or Fiction." . . Members of the faculty of the School of Business and Economics have made a $250 contribution to the local chapter of the American Heart Fund in memory of the late Dr. Fouad El Taher.

this week on campus

Unless otherwise noted, all events are free and open to the campus and public.

THURSDAY, OCTOBER 24

10 am - 2 pm — Crime Prevention Display sponsored by the Department of Public Safety. Angell Center Lobby.

11:30 am - 12:45 pm — Women's Studies Forum presents Penny Clute, D.A. candidate, speaking on "The Only Problem With You is That You are a Woman: Women Running for Political Office." Angell Center Cardinal Lounge.

3 pm — Considering Graduate School sponsored by the office of Career/Life Planning and Placement. Open to the campus. Angell Center Conference Room.

7 pm — Students for Peace meeting. Angell Center Meeting Room 2.

7 pm — Plattsburgh State Weight Training Club guest speaker. Open to the campus. Angell Center Amnesty Room.

7 pm — Sexual Assault Prevention presentation by S/Sgt. Mark Blaisdell of Plattsburgh Air Force Base. Sponsored by the office of Campus Life. Angell Center Cardinal Lounge.

8 pm — Circle K meeting. Meeting Room 1 of the Angell Center.

8 pm — A lecture by Sandy Skoglund, photographer, sponsored by the Visual Artist Series. Angell Center Ballroom.

9 pm — Pi Alpha Nu Rush. Open to the campus. Angell Center Sundowner.

FRIDAY, OCTOBER 25

10 am - 2 pm — Crime Prevention Display sponsored by the Department of Public Safety. Angell Center Lobby.

11 am - 2:30 pm — Employment Information Session with the New York State Controller's Office. Sponsored by the office of Career/Life Planning and Placement. Angell Center Conference Room.

7:30 & 8:30 pm — Planetarium Show: "The Legacy." Free tickets may be picked up at Hudson Hall Main Office. North Country Planetarium. Hudson Hall.

SATURDAY, OCTOBER 26

9 am - 6 pm — Bus to Montreal sponsored by Campus Life. Round trip tickets are $8 and on sale at the Angell Center Desk. Bus departs from Memorial Hall at 9 a.m.

11 am - 5 pm — Peace Feast — An afternoon of music and speakers as well as home baked foods with the purpose of perpetuating peace on our planet. Sponsored by the Students for Peace. Hawkins Auditorium/Courtyard.

2 pm — International Relations Club general meeting on the food festival. Open to the campus. Angell Center Conference Room.

7 pm — Student Association Film Committee presents "Bugs Bunny Cartoon Festival" and "The Exorcist." Student tickets are 50¢, faculty $1 and on sale at the Angell Center Desk.

SUNDAY, OCTOBER 27

6:45 & 9:15 pm — Student Association Film Committee presents "The Shining." Student tickets are 50¢, faculty $1 and on sale at the Angell Center Desk. Hawkins Auditorium.

7:30 pm — Showing of the film "Be Not Afraid," followed by a discussion session. Co-sponsored by the Campus Ministry, the Newman Association, and Plattsburgh Students for Peace. Newman Center.

8 pm — College Chorale Concert, Richard Zielinski, conductor. Sponsored by the Center for Art, Music and Theatre. Hawkins small auditorium.

MONDAY, OCTOBER 28

4 pm — Seminar on "Counterion Condensation" featuring Dr. B. Ware of Syracuse University. Sponsored by the Plattsburgh State Student Chemical Society. Hudson Hall 104.

4 pm — R.A. Candidate Information Sessions sponsored by Campus Life. Open to the campus. Angell Center Cardinal Lounge.

6 pm — Environmental Action Committee meeting. Hudson 028.

10:15 pm — Student Association Senate meeting. Angell Center Conference Room.

TUESDAY, OCTOBER 29

3 pm — Career/Life Planning and Placement Services Workshop. Open to the campus. Angell Center Conference Room.

4 pm — R.A. Candidate Information Sessions sponsored by Campus Life. Open to the campus. Angell Center Cardinal Lounge.

5 pm — The Fall Series of Distinguished Visiting Professors of Journalism features Calvin Trillin. Angell Center Blue Room.

7:30 pm — Public lecture on "High Technology in California" by Dr. Michael Black. Sponsored by the Geography Honor Society. Angell Center Cardinal Lounge.

7:30 pm — "Ethics and the Space Program," a lecture by Dr. Paul Kelter of NASA. Hudson 106.

WEDNESDAY, OCTOBER 30

3 pm — Resumes and Cover Letters — A workshop sponsored by the office of Career/Life Planning and Placement. Open to the campus. Angell Center Conference Room.

5 pm — Yoga Exercise and Relaxation. New members welcome. Hawkins Hall Gym Room 153.

7:30 pm — "Chemical Magic Show" presented by Dr. Paul Kelter of the National Aerospace Administration. Sponsored by the Biology Club and the Student Chemical Society. Hudson Hall 106.

8 pm — Sinfonia Concert, Yenoin Guibbory, conductor. Sponsored by the Center for Art, Music and Theatre. Hawkins Small Auditorium.

8 pm — "Dating, Relating and Mating," a discussion on relationships. Sponsored by Planned Parenthood and R.A. Dan Capson. Open to the campus. Whiteface Hall Main Lounge.

THURSDAY, OCTOBER 31

11:30 am — Women's Studies Forum presents Diana Green, "Women in the Soviet Union." Cardinal Lounge.

3 pm — Targeting Your Job Search — A workshop sponsored by the office of Career/Life Planning and Placement. Open to the campus. Angell Center Conference Room.

6 pm — Reception for faculty and students. New members welcome. Sponsored by the Management Club. Open to the campus. Angell Center Cardinal Lounge.

7 pm — Students for Peace meeting. Angell Center Meeting Room 2.

7:30 pm — "Halley's Comet," a lecture by Dr. Paul Kelter of NASA. Hudson 106.

8 pm — Circle K meeting. New members welcome. Angell Center Meeting Room 1.

CALENDAR NOTES

Good-Better-Best Aerobics — Monday and Thursday at 5 pm, Tuesday and Wednesday at 7 pm, Friday at 3 pm and Sunday at 3 pm. Angell Center Blue Room.

Applications for 1986-87 Resident Assistant positions are available at the Angell Center Desk. Complete details of the application and selection process will be reviewed at General Information meetings on Monday, October 28 and Tuesday, October 29 both at 4 pm in the Angell Center Cardinal Lounge. Interested students should attend one of these meetings.

The Admissions Office is looking for student volunteers to act as Peer Recruiters during the Thanksgiving and Christmas vacations. The students will represent Plattsburgh State at their area high schools and community colleges. The Peer Recruitment Program offers prospective students the opportunity to become familiar with the college from a current student's viewpoint. Anyone interested in participating in the program must attend one of the two training sessions, which are scheduled for Tuesday, October 29 and Wednesday, October 30, from 6 - 7 pm in the Angell College Center's Cardinal Lounge. Additional questions should be referred to Ed at the Admissions Office (564-2040).

All Center for Earth and Environmental Science majors are urged to attend a pre-advisement information meeting in Hudson Hall, Room 106, at 4:10 pm on Thursday, October 24. Information about special course offerings, job information, etc. will be discussed. Undeclared majors are welcome to attend.

Advisement for the spring semester begins October 28 and continues through November 12. Questions should be directed to Tom Corigliano, Kehoe 314, 564-2080.

GALLERY EXHIBITIONS

Myers Fine Arts Gallery, through October 30

"Selections '85-'86

Myers Fine Arts Lobby, through December 20

"I Love N.Y. Paper: PSUC Student Works on Paper"

WEEKLY is published by the Office of College Relations each Wednesday while classes are in session. Notice of events to be listed in "This Week on Campus" must be submitted to Melanie Wheatley (564-3824) by Thursday the week prior to publication. News items will be accepted by Carolee Smith (564-2090) until noon on Monday of the week of publication.

State University of New York College of Arts and Science at Plattsburgh is an Equal Employment Opportunity Affirmative Action Employer.

CURRENT JOB LISTINGS

Department

Closing Date

Business & Economics

Accounting & Management Faculty

Open

Computer Science

Instructor/Assistant

12/15/85*

Foreign Languages & Literature

Part-Time Instructors

(German, French & Spanish)

Open*

Mathematics

Assistant/Associate Professor

12/1/85

Upward Bound

Counselor

10/31/85

*Or until qualified candidate is found

Complete details are available in the Office of Personnel and Affirmative Action

ACKERMAN FOUNDATION MAKES SECOND MAJOR GIFT TO COLLEGE

The Martin S. Ackerman Foundation of New York City has made a second major donation of art works, valued at approximately $145,000, to the Plattsburgh College Foundation to be added to Plattsburgh State's permanent art collection. Gallery Director Ed Brohel said that the latest gift consists of 158 works of art, including paintings, drawings, sculptures, photographs and prints. Some of the artists represented are Robert Rauschenberg, Ben Benn, Bernard Cohen and Jim Dine. Photographs by Berenice Abbott and W. Eugene Smith are also included.

Combined with the earlier Ackerman Foundation gift of more than 400 pieces, the total Ackerman collection on campus is now valued at well over a quarter of a million dollars, according to Brohel. He added that the second gift was arranged because the Ackerman Foundation was pleased that the first gift, presented to the college in 1981, was made so accessible to students, faculty and the community. Pieces from the first selection have been placed on view throughout the Myers Building, in the Admissions Office, on the second floor of the Kehoe Building, and in the Orchard Room and other areas of the Angell College Center.

"We began placing pieces from our permanent art collection around the campus with some degree of caution," Brohel said. "But after 3 years, we've had no damage and a great deal of interest. We're very pleased with the fact that we've been able to create a museum without walls, with much of its made possible with pieces from the Ackerman gift."

The second Ackerman gift is currently being catalogued and some pieces are being matted and framed. Next fall, the Center for Art, Music and Theatre will sponsor a major exhibition of the entire Ackerman collection.

Gallery Director Ed Brohel checks in portions of the Ackerman collection.

DR. JOHN GOLDTHWAIT PUBLISHES BOOK ON VALUE

Value, Language and Life, a book authored by Dr. John Goldthwait, professor emeritus of philosophy, has been published by Prometheus Books. In this book, Goldthwait explained, he has presented "a new theory of value through which traditional attempts at definition are transcended in order to explore the human act of expressing value judgments." Examining the everyday experience and use of language, he arrives "at a knowledge of value that can be applied in solving problems and reconciling disputes about value." Value, Language and Life, according to the publisher, presents new answers "to such perennial questions as 'What is Value?' and 'What makes things good?'"

Goldthwait retired from the college last summer after 21 years of service. He joined Plattsburgh State as professor of philosophy and chair of its division of Humanities. He later served as dean of the Faculty of Humanities and, for several years, as chair of the department of philosophy. In 1971, he received a grant from the College Foundation to plan and carry out a Conference on Morality Among Nations during the 1972 FISU Games. He translated and edited a book on Immanuel Kant entitled Observations on the Feelings of the Beautiful and Sublime. Goldthwait is currently living in St. Augustine Beach, Florida.

SEFA CAMPAIGN AT 54% OF GOAL

The 1986 State Employees Federated Appeal (SEFA) campaign is currently at 42% of its goal, with a total of $10,395.80 either pledged or paid to date. Campus chairperson Mayerlyn Miller said that this amount has been raised with contributions or pledges from only 14% of the college's total employees and she urged others to make their pledge or donation as soon as possible.

Departments that have recorded 100% participation from employees include the President's Office, Institutional Research, Personnel and Affirmative Action, College Relations and Central Duplicating and Printing.

Miller said that duplicate payroll deduction cards are available in the Office of Personnel and Affirmative Action. Persons wishing to make a one-time gift by check may send them to SEFA '86, c/o the Office of Personnel and Affirmative Action.

OSCAR WILDE COMEDY OPENS SATURDAY

The Center for Art, Music and Theatre's production of Oscar Wilde's The Importance of Being Earnest will begin an eight-performance engagement in Hartman Theatre of the Myers Fine Arts Building next Wednesday at 8 p.m. The light, farcical comedy, written by the Irish author and playwright before the turn of the century and in production ever since, will be presented nightly through Saturday of next week, then resume the following Wednesday for performances through Saturday, November 16. Tickets are $4 for the general public, $3 for faculty, $1 for students, and $2 for senior citizens and students under 18, and may be purchased at the Hartman Theatre box office.

SIGMA THETA TAU TO CONDUCT RESEARCH DAY ON NOVEMBER 8

The Plattsburgh State chapter of Sigma Theta Tau, the national honorary society for nursing, will host its second annual Research Day on November 8. The day-long seminar will be held in the Angell Center Cardinal Lounge and is open to all nurses and student nurses. The seminars are designed to provide registered nurses with an overview of nurses' roles in the research process and an understanding of nursing research application to clinical nursing. Dr. Fay Whitney, assistant professor and director of the Primary Care Graduate Program at the University of Pennsylvania, will present the keynote address on "Perils and Pleasures of Clinical Research." Also on the agenda will be presentations on "A Developmental Model of Nurses' Reactions to Suicidal Casework," "Health Problems of a Selected Aged Population and Utilization Patterns of a Nurse Managed Clinic," "Relationships Between Obesity, Anxiety and Responsiveness to External Stimuli," "Social Competence in the Kindergarten," and "Reflections on Nursing Research and the Community Health Care Setting." Additional information on the Research Day is available at 564-3124.

LAURA DOMINY NAMED ASSISTANT DIRECTOR OF FINANCIAL AID

Laura Dominy, financial aid advisor at SUNY Plattsburgh for the past seven years, has been named Assistant Director of Financial Aid effective November 1, 1985. Ms. Dominy administers the College Work Study and the Aid for Part-Time Study Programs on campus. In addition to her administrative duties, Ms. Dominy team-teaches a course on Peer Advising, serves as an academic advisor to undeclared majors, and supervises peer advisors in the field work experience. Ms. Dominy earned her bachelor's degree in biology at SUNY Plattsburgh. She expects to receive her Master's degree with concentrations in communications and educational administration within a year.

CAMPUS/ALUMNI GROUP MEETS TODAY WITH SED REPRESENTATIVES

Several campus representatives joined by recent education graduates are in Lake George today to discuss all facets of the College's programs in teacher education with Commissioner of Education Gordon Ambach and members of his staff. The discussion session, being held at the Lake George Elementary School, is focused on program philosophy and structure, enrollments in each teacher education major, qualifications for admission to education programs, and issues and concerns of Plattsburgh graduates new to the profession.

Representing Plattsburgh State will be Jerome Supple, vice president for academic affairs, Nicholas Troisi, dean of professional studies, Michael Wolfe, director of the Center for Teacher Education, Paul Hackett, coordinator of student teaching, Marilyn Chase, director of the Center for Human Resources, associate professors of education Byrne deGrandpre, Cheryl Gowie and Anna Nardelli, Judith Duken '59, a member of the SUNY Board of Trustees, and other alumni. In addition to Ambach, State Education Department representatives include executive deputy commissioner Robert Maurer, deputy commissioners Donald Nolan and Gerald Freeborne, and Laura Chodos, a member of the Board of Regents.

SPORTS UPDATE: HOCKEY CARDS TRIUMPH IN DEBUT; MEN'S, WOMEN'S SOCCER TEAMS RECORD VICTORIES

Steve Hoar's Cardinals opened the 1985-86 campaign in fine fashion with a 7-2 rout over Ryerson Tech of Toronto. Joey Ferras and Freshman Chris Panek each tallied a goal and a pair of assists to lead the PSUC cause. The Cardinals host St. Lawrence on Saturday at the Fieldhouse. Game time is 7:30 p.m.

The men's soccer team defeated Clarkson 2-0. Eric Wasserbach scored one goal and assisted Joe Robert's tally to lead the Cards to their second win in their last three games. PSUC concludes its regular season on Wednesday with a SUNYAC game against Albany State at the Fieldhouse.

Sue Viscomi's women's soccer team won its fifth straight contest with a 1-0 victory over Middlebury College. The Cards outshot the hosts 20-11, but it wasn't until Mary Jane Dillon scored with a little over two minutes remaining that Plattsburgh sealed the decision.

The volleyball team had a disastrous week, dropping six matches to fall to 15-14 on the season. The Cards failed to win even a single game at the Potsdam tournament, an event they won last season.

The men's cross country team competed at the Albany Invitational on Saturday and finished eighth in a 17-team field. The Cards were led by Andy Guay's eighth place finish and Glen Dow's 20th place effort. Guay was the second Division III runner to cross the finish line.

The women's team finished seventh at the NYSIAAW meet at Albany State. The Cards, who ran without senior Ellen Kissane in the lineup, were paced by Kathy Kane's 23rd effort.

HOCKEY ALUMNI CLASH SET FOR SATURDAY

Several of the top players in Plattsburgh State hockey history will return to campus this weekend to participate in the annual alumni vs. alumni game at the College Field House. The contest, scheduled for 2 p.m. on Saturday, is being sponsored by, and will benefit, the Cardinal Booster Club. It is being billed as a preliminary to Saturday evening's Plattsburgh State vs. St. Lawrence University game, and as a salute to the players of the 1973-75 era who initiated the sport here at the club level. Hockey became a Division III varsity sport at Plattsburgh effective with the 1975-76 season.

Admission to the alumni contest will be $1 for adults and 50 cents for students. The returnees include former goalie Rick Strack and defenseman Doug Kimura, both of whom earned All-America recognition at Plattsburgh, defensemen John Rice and John Swift from last season's SUNYAC championship team, Rick Young, Frank Bellefeuille, Mike Talbot, Dave Rattray, Kevin Kelly, Brad Ott, Howard Jennings, and several others.

weekly notes

Correction: Members of the faculty of the School of Business and Economics contributed $520 to the American Heart Fund in memory of the late Dr. Fouad El Taher. . . Dr. James Dawson, professor in the Center for Earth and Environmental Science, presented remarks and participated in a workshop on "The New York State Environmental Planning Lobby" sponsored by the Environmental Planning Lobby. . . Dr. Raney Ellis, director of the Academic Computing Center, made two presentations at a meeting of the Computer Officers Association held recently in Buffalo. The first presentation was on how Plattsburgh has used funds from the Student Computer Access Program and the impact of this program on our students, and the second was as part of a panel discussion on the delivery of services to computer users. Ellis was also elected vice-chair of the academic subcommittee of the association and secretary of the newly formed special interest group in the management of computing. . . Dr. Ralph Hunkins, professor in the Center for Teacher Education and Educational Services, recently made a presentation on "The One-Room School; Close Encounters of What Kind?" a part of a presentation on one-room schoolhouses sponsored by the Clinton County Historical Association. . . Dr. Ingrun Lafleur, associate vice president for academic affairs, presented a paper on "Values, Change and Continuity in Interdisciplinary Studies" at the Seventh National Conference of the Association for Integrative Studies, held recently at Eastern Kentucky University. Lafleur was also elected vice president of the Association and will serve as a referee for the organization's journal, Issues in Integrative Education. . . Al Montanaro, Jr., chairman of the department of communication, was re-elected president of the Northeast Forensic League. His responsibilities include the development of a tournament schedule for the league, coordination of the league's business and serving as liaison between the league and three national forensic organizations. . . Several members of the faculty of the Center for Earth and Environmental Science participated in the combined meetings of the NESTVAL-Middle States Divisions of the Association of American Geographers. The following faculty members presented papers: Dr. John Moravek, "Iron Mining and the Changing Ethnic Character of New York State's Adirondack-Champlain Region as Illustrated by the Townships of Dannemora in Clinton County and Moriah in Essex County, 1870-1920"; Dr. Bryan Higgins, "Urban Planning and Geography in Nicaragua Libre"; Dr. Richard Lamb, "Land Use Impacts Associated with the Fort Drum Expansion"; and Michael Burns and Dr. Thomas Rumney, "Canadian Land Investment Along Lake Champlain in Clinton County, New York." Also attending were David Ahnert and William Brady, members of Gamma Theta Upsilon, Plattsburgh's geography honor society.

this week on campus

Unless otherwise noted, all events are free and open to the campus and public.

THURSDAY, OCTOBER 31

11:30 am - 12:45 pm — Women's Studies Forum presents Diana Greene, instructor, Women's Studies speaking on "Women in the Soviet Union." Sponsored by the Women's Studies Program. Open to the campus and public, no charge. Angell Center Cardinal Lounge.

3 pm — Targeting Your Job Search — A workshop sponsored by the office of Career/Life Planning and Placement. Open to the campus. Angell Center Conference Room.

6 pm — Hillel weekly meeting. Open to the campus. Angell Center Meeting Room 2.

6 pm — Reception for faculty and students. New members are welcome. Sponsored by the Management Club. Open to the campus. Angell Center Cardinal Lounge.

7 pm — Film: "In Cold Blood" sponsored by Repertory Cinema. Open to the campus and public. Tickets are 50¢ for students and 75¢ for the public, and on sale at the Angell Center Desk. Yokum 200.

7 pm — Students for Peace meeting. Open to the campus and public. Angell Center Meeting Room 2.

8 pm — Circle K weekly meeting. New members are welcome. Angell Center Meeting Room 1.

FRIDAY, NOVEMBER 1

7 pm — Film: "Monty Python's and Now Something Completely Different," sponsored by Repertory Cinema. Tickets are 50¢ for students and $2.00 for the public, on sale at the Angell Center Desk. Angell Center Ballroom.

SATURDAY, NOVEMBER 2

10 am - 5 pm — Annual Fall Arts and Crafts Fair sponsored by Campus Life. Open to the campus and public. Angell Center.

7:30 pm — "Catch the Red Fever": Men's Ice Hockey — PSUC vs. St. Lawrence University. Student tickets are 50¢, general admission is $3 ($1 for students under 18) and are on sale at the door. Field House.

8 pm — Champlain Valley Symphonic Orchestra, Gerald Feintuch, conductor. Student tickets are $1; public: $4. Hawkins Hall Auditorium.

9 pm — Road Show Dance Party sponsored by WPLT Radio Station. Students tickets are 50¢ and will be on sale at the door. Angell Center Ballroom.

SUNDAY, NOVEMBER 3

2, 6:45 & 9:15 pm — Student Association's Film Committee presents "Ghostbusters." Open to the campus. Student tickets are 50¢, faculty: $1, and on sale at the Angell Center Desk. Yokum 200.

5 pm — International Food Festival '85 sponsored by the International Relations Club. Open to the campus and public. S.A. member's tickets are $2.50; public: $3; $2.50 for senior citizens and children, and will be on sale at the door and Angell Center Desk beginning October 22. Sibley Hall Cafetorium.

MONDAY, NOVEMBER 4

4 pm — Fall Lecture Series features Mr. G. Duval, Tupper Lake High School speaking on "Teaching High School Chemistry." Sponsored by the Plattsburgh State Student Chemical Society. Open to the campus and public, no charge. Hudson Hall Room 104.

7 pm — Guest Speaker: Will Miller sponsored by the Environmental Action Committee. Open to the campus and public, no charge.

6 pm — Environmental Action Committee meeting. Open to the campus and public. Hudson 028.

10:15 pm — Student Association Senate meeting. Open to the campus and public. Angell Center Conference Room.

TUESDAY, NOVEMBER 5

3 pm — Interview Techniques — A workshop sponsored by the office of Career/Life Planning and Placement. Open to the campus. Angell Center Conference Room.

4:15 pm — "Build a Better Term Paper — Without Plagiarism, Panic or Procrastination" — A workshop sponsored by S.S.P. Open to the campus. Angell Center Conference Room.

5 pm — A Graduate Opportunity Day sponsored by the Educational Opportunity Program. Open to members only. Angell Center Orchard Room.

7 pm — "Soviet Attitudes Towards the Arms Race" sponsored by the Students for Peace. Open to the campus and public. Angell Center Cardinal Lounge.

7 pm — Phi Eta Sigma general membership reception. Open to members only. Angell Center Amnesty Room.

8 pm — International Relations Club general meeting on the food festival. Open to the campus. Angell Center Conference Room.

WEDNESDAY, NOVEMBER 6

3 pm — Considering Graduate School — A workshop sponsored by the office of Career/Life Planning and Placement. Open to the campus. Angell Center Conference Room.

4 - 6 pm — Opening Reception for current exhibits — 19th Century French Prints, and Howard Jennings: Photographs. Sponsored by the Center for Art, Music and Theatre. Open to the campus and public, no charge. Myers Fine Arts Gallery Lounge.

4:15 pm — "Building A Better Term Paper — Without Plagiarism, Panic or Procrastination" — A workshop sponsored by S.S.P. Open to the campus. Angell Center Conference Room.

5 pm — Yoga Exercise and Relaxation. New members welcome anytime. Hawkins Hall Gym Room 153.

7 pm — Guest Speaker, Leith Bardon, "Flexibility and Weight Training" sponsored by the Plattsburgh State Weight Training Club. Open to the campus. Angell Center Amnesty Room.

7:30 pm — Support Group Meeting for Anorexia Nervosa and Bulimia sponsored by Health Services. Open to the campus and public. For more information call 564-2187 (business hours). Angell Center Conference Room.

7:30 pm — Men's Ice Hockey: PSUC vs. McGill. Open to the campus and public. Student tickets are 50¢; general admission is $3 ($1 for students under 18), and on sale at the door. Field House.

8 pm — College Theatre Production: "The Importance of Being Earnest." Sponsored by the Center for Art, Music and Theatre. Open to the campus and public. S.A. student tickets are $1; public: $4; faculty: $3; under 18 and senior citizens: $2. Tickets are on sale at the Hartman Box Office. Hartman Theatre.

THURSDAY, NOVEMBER 7

11:30 am — Women's Studies Forum present Jeanette Coleman, Director of Nursing at PSUC speaking on "Surviving in a Women's Profession." Sponsored by the Women's Studies Program. Open to the campus and public. Angell Center Cardinal Lounge.

6 pm — Hillel weekly meeting. Open to the campus. Angell Center Meeting Room 2.

7 pm — Biology Club Social — Coffee and doughnuts will be served. Open to the campus, no charge. Angell Center Cardinal Lounge.

7 pm — Students for Peace meeting. Open to the campus and public. Angell Center Meeting Room 2.

8 pm — College Theatre Production: "The Importance of Being Earnest." Sponsored by the Center for Art, Music and Theatre. Open to the campus and public. S.A. student tickets: $1; public: $4; faculty: $3; under 18 and senior citizens: $2. Tickets are on sale at the Hartman Box Office. Hartman Theatre.

CALENDAR NOTES

Good-Better-Best Aerobics — Monday and Thursday at 5 pm, Tuesday and Wednesday at 7 pm; Friday and Sunday at 3 pm. Open to all. No charge. Angell Center Blue Room.

The Office of Campus Life announces that applications for 1986-87 Resident Assistant positions will be available at the Angell Center Desk beginning Monday, October 21, 1985. Complete details of the application and selection process will be reviewed at General Information meetings on Monday, October 28 and Tuesday, October 29, both at 4 pm, in the Angell Center Cardinal Lounge. Interested students should plan to attend one of these meetings.

Annual Swing Soiree Dinner/Dance sponsored by the Office of Campus Life, C.A.S., S.A. Marriott and Alumni. November 9, 1985, Angell Center Ballrooms. Tickets: $5.25, S.A. member with meal card; $8.00, S.A. member; $9.00, faculty, staff and public. Tickets go on sale Wednesday, October 30 at the Angell Center Desk.

The Plattsburgh State Office of Campus Life proudly presents — The Annual Fall Arts and Crafts Fair on Saturday, November 2 from 10:00 am to 5 pm at the George Angell Center on Rugar Street in Plattsburgh. You are sure to enjoy this year's event featuring pottery, hand weaving, woodworking, quilting, metal craft, watercolors, oil painting, macrame, toys, jewelry, stained glass and much more by artists and craftsmen from all over Vermont and New York State. The perfect stop for those unique and personal Christmas gifts! Don't forget — the Falls Arts and Crafts Fair, Saturday, November 2 from 10:00 am to 5:00 pm at the Angell Center. Don't miss it.

GALLERY EXHIBITIONS

Myers Fine Arts Gallery, through December 20
"19th Century French Prints"

Rockwell Kent Gallery, through December 20
"Howard Jennings: Photographs"

Myers Fine Arts Lobby, through December 20
"I Love N.Y. Paper: PSUC Student Works on Paper"

CURRENT JOB LISTINGS

Department	Closing Date
Admissions
Clerk	11/3/85
Typist	11/3/85
Art, Music and Theatre
Lecturer	12/12/85
Business and Economics
Accounting and Management Faculty	Open
Computer Science
Instructor/Assistant Professor	12/15/85*
		Foreign Languages and Literature
		Part Time Instructors (German, French and Spanish) Open
		Mathematics
		Assistant/Associate Professor 12/1/85
		Upward Bound
		Counselor 10/31/85

*Or until qualified candidate is found

Complete details are available in the Office of Personnel and Affirmative Action

SUNY BUDGET INCLUDES $1.4 MILLION INCREASE FOR COLLEGE

The State University Board of Trustees last week approved a 1986-87 operating budget, which includes a $1,455,900 increase for Plattsburgh State. Assistant Vice President for Finance William Woltjen said that the SUNY approved budget contains a request for 16 additional positions for the local campus, and money for the restoration of overtime funds, inflationary price increases, a restoration of the level of temporary service funds, and salary adjustments, including adjustments for the early retirement program. At present, there is no money in the budget for UUP members since contract negotiations are incomplete. Further funds are requested for additional temporary service, and additional supplies and equipment.

The SUNY-wide budget request for the 29 State-operated campuses and five statutory colleges totals $1.594 billion, of which $421.1 million would be funded from University generated income and $1.173 billion from State funds. This represents a 9.4% ($136.8 million) increase over the amount appropriated for the current fiscal year. Executive Vice Chancellor Jerome B. Komisar commented, "We anticipate that this budget request, building upon progress supported by the Governor and the Legislature during the last two years, will continue the restoration of SUNY's resources to levels that will appropriately undergird its undergraduate and graduate educational programs, strengthen its research and public service activities, support its minority recruitment efforts and continue to address the University's critical need to preserve the State's investment in its equipment and facilities."

The budget calls for an additional $5.4 million in revenue to be funded through room rental increases. Woltjen explained that the increase in room rental is due to the fact that dormitory operations must be self-sufficient by September 1, 1986.

The SUNY budget request will be submitted to the Governor's Office for approval. It will then be included in the Governor's proposed State budget which will be acted upon by the State Legislature in the spring.

1985 CHEMISTRY GRADUATE IS TOPS ON U. OF MINNESOTA 'ATTAINMENT' EXAMINATIONS

John Bullock, who received his bachelor's degree in chemistry summa cum laude from the college last May, accumulated the highest total score in the "attainment" examinations administered to the 45 new chemistry graduate students at the University of Minnesota, according to Dr. George Sheats, professor of chemistry. The attainment exams comprise five separate exams in various areas of chemistry. Bullock scored in the 95th percentile in the GRE Chemistry Achievement Test last spring and was offered numerous fellowships from graduate schools. He accepted a first year graduate student stipend of $15,000 from the University of Minnesota and entered that graduate program in analytical chemistry in August. As a result of his score on this latest series of examinations, Bullock has received an additional stipend of $2,000.

Sheats commented, "John's performance puts him at the top of a group which is representative of the finest chemistry undergraduates from the United States and other countries. This is another firm item of evidence that the instructional program of this college is sound and that students can, and do, develop their full potential here."

COLLEGE OFFICIALS OPPOSE GRAMM/RUDMAN BILL

College officials have gone on record as opposing the Gramm/Rudman Bill, which is under consideration in Congress, and are asking Congressman David O.B. Martin, faculty, staff, students and their parents to join in the opposition. The bill, said Suzanne Sokolowski, director of financial aid, would deprive 553 Plattsburgh State students of more than $652,000 they are currently receiving through Pell Grants, Supplemental Educational Opportunity Grants and College Work-Study. She added that nearly one-half of the college's students have already borrowed more than $5 million for this academic year through the Guaranteed Student Bank Loan Program and cuts in this program would "seriously erode the ability of the middle class to afford a Plattsburgh education." Sokolowski said, "With the cost of education increasing annually, even stability in levels of aid will hurt, but the negative effect would be minimal compared to the devastation that would occur should the proposed deep aid cuts gain approval by our federal lawmakers."

President Joseph C. Burke urged Congressman Martin to oppose the bill, in a mailgram sent last week. Burke wrote, "Would appreciate your opposing Gramm/Rudman because of its disproportionate impact on education. Pell Grants would be reduced by at least 15%, eliminating 213 of our students from the program. Supplemental Opportunity Grants and work-study grants would be reduced by 60%, eliminating almost 340 of our students from these programs. The TRIO program would be cut by over 40%, eliminating all 110 students in our Upward Bound Program, which provides services to disadvantaged young people from 11 school districts in Clinton, Essex, and Franklin counties. As you can see, the impact of these cuts would be immense. Your opposition will be appreciated."

COLLEGE COUNCIL TO MEET ON THURSDAY

The next regular meeting of the Plattsburgh College Council will be held at 3:30 p.m. on Thursday, November 7 in the Angell College Center Cardinal Lounge. Agenda items include action on proposed guidelines governing the 21-year-old alcohol purchase law on campus and a discussion of regulations regarding the use of campus athletic buildings.

ANNUAL CANADA DAY SCHEDULED FOR NOVEMBER 8

The annual Canada Day festivities, sponsored by the college's Center for the Study of Canada, will be held on Friday, November 8. The Quantity Food Class, however, has scheduled a Canada Day Dinner the evening before at 5:30 p.m. in the Sibley Hall Dining Room. On Friday, Club Canada will staff a Canadian Studies Information Booth in the Angell Center lobby from 10 a.m. through 8 p.m. At noon, a film entitled "Music and Dance of the Mohawks" will be shown, along with the video "White Corn," in the Angell Center Conference Room. Following the film will be a commentary by representatives of the Mohawk Nation. The showing is sponsored by Akwekon, the Native American Student Club. The Orchard Room will offer a special Canadian meal between noon and 2 p.m., featuring such well known recipes as onion soup and tourtiere.

Dr. Sidney Wide, dean of graduate studies and professor of history at Carleton University in Ottawa will speak on "The Influence of the United States on Canadian Life: Harmful or Beneficial?" at 3 p.m. in the Angell Center Orchard Room. Dr. Martin Lubin, professor of political science, will serve as moderator.

At 3:45 p.m., Canadian Consul General Robert Johnstone will speak on "Canada-U.S. Economic Relations," also in the Orchard Room. Dr. Prem Gandhi, professor of business and economics, will serve as moderator.

Montreal singer Pascal Normand will be the featured entertainment at a "Canadian Cabaret" from 7:30 to 9 p.m. in the Orchard Room. Tickets are free and available at the Center for the Study of Canada at 133 Court Street.

COLLEGE RECEIVES APPRECIATION AWARD FROM HEAD START PROGRAM

Plattsburgh State has received a plaque from the Clinton County Head Start program in appreciation of the college's support of Head Start for the past 20 years. The plaque was given "to Plattsburgh State faculty and students in appreciation for the years of dedicated volunteer service given to the Head Start families," and was accepted by Dr. Marilyn Chase, director of the Center for Human Resources, on behalf of the college. Head Start was organized in Clinton County twenty years ago and one of its first centers was located in Sibley Hall. A few years later, a second on-campus center was opened in Ward Hall. Both centers are still in operation and students from the psychology, child and family service, and early childhood education majors do observations in the centers.

FOREIGN STUDENT ENROLLMENT UP 27% OVER LAST FALL

Enrollment of foreign students at Plattsburgh State for the fall semester has increased by 27% over the fall, 1984 semester, according to a report prepared by Jaimie Trautman, foreign student advisor. Trautman said that 141 foreign students from 25 countries are currently enrolled, compared to 111 last fall. Of that number, 35 are new to the college this fall, 115 are undergraduates, and 26 are graduate students. Canada represents the largest delegation, with 42 students enrolled, followed by Malaysia with 37. Other countries represented include Aruba, Barbados, Cayman, W.I., Chile, China, Cyprus, El Salvador, England, Germany, Hong Kong, India, Indonesia, Jamaica, Japan, Kenya, Lebanon, Nigeria, Panama, Sri Lanka, St. Vincent, W.I., Taiwan, Trinidad, and Uganda. The highest number of foreign students (33) are enrolled in a business major, followed by education (16), computer science (14), and engineering (12).

TWO ART EXHIBITS OPEN IN CAMPUS GALLERIES

Two art exhibits, sponsored by the Center for Art, Music and Theatre, have opened in the campus art galleries and may be seen through December 20. An exhibition of "Nineteenth Century French Prints and Drawings, with special selections of Impressionist Painters and Early Military Subjects," is on display in the Myers Fine Arts Gallery. The exhibition includes 120 works and has been drawn from the college's permanent collection, the Childs Gallery in Boston, Kennedy Galleries in New York, Skidmore College in Saratoga, and from private collections in New York City and Plattsburgh.

A collection of works by Howard Jennings, who is well known for his photographs of social documentation, is on display in the Rockwell Kent Gallery. Also included are works by Jennings' students from Clinton Correctional Facility and Northern Adirondack Central School. Jennings has had many one-man exhibitions and several group and juried shows.

SPORTS UPDATE: THREE SOCCER PLAYERS EARN SUNYAC ALL-STAR STATUS

The men's soccer team closed out the 1985 season with a convincing 4-0 rout of Albany State. Donovan Scott, Joe Roberts, Bryan Darmody and Dan McDermott all scored for the Cardinals who finished with an overall record of 5-9-2. Scott was named to the All-SUNYAC first all-star team while Roberts and Andrew Aguirre were named to the second team.

Jim Nichols' men's cross country team ran to an impressive 10th place finish at the NYSTCFA meet. Glen Dow and Andy Guay led the Cards by finishing 18th and 20th respectively. The men and women are both in action this weekend at the ECAC championship.

The women's soccer team finished its season by losing two games at the NYSAIAW tournament in Rochester. In the first round, PSUC lost to William Smith College 2-1. In the consolation bracket, the Cards lost to St. Lawrence 1-0. Earlier in the week, Sue Viscomi's squad defeated Castleton State 3-2. The Cardinals closed the season with a record of 10-6-1. Three Cardinal players were named to SUNYAC all-star teams. Emily Sickler and Darlene LeVielle were named to the first team while Sue Fox earned honorable mention status.

Steve Hoar's hockey team dropped a tough 6-4 decision to Division I powerhouse St. Lawrence. The Cardinals were led by sophomore Joey Ferras' three power play goals. Senior Dan Bedard made 38 saves for the 1-1 PSUC icers.

Donovan Scott

Emily Sickler

Darlene LeVielle

SWING SOIREE SET FOR SATURDAY NIGHT

Wally Siebel and the All-Star Big Band will provide the music on Saturday evening for a festive Swing Soiree. Ray Saba, who is chairing the event, said that the evening's festivities will begin with a cash bar cocktail hour from 6 to 7 p.m. in the Angell Center Cardinal Lounge, followed by dinner and dancing in the Ballroom. Tickets are on sale at the Angell Center Desk and are $5.25 for SA members with meal tickets, $8 for SA members without meal tickets, and $9 for members of the faculty, staff and community. Saba said that he planned the event with the intention of providing an opportunity for students to enjoy an evening with members of the faculty and community.

weekly notes

Dr. James Dawson, professor in the Center for Earth and Environmental Science, participated in a panel discussion on "Appropriate Development for the Adirondacks" at the recent Forest Preserve Centennial Symposium held in St. Hubert's. Dawson also served as a discussant on a panel on "The New York State Environmental Bond Act" at the Environment '85 conference at Silver Bay. . . Alex Donnell, manager of Marriott's Angell Center operations, won first prize in Marriott's corporation-wide Food Service Management's "Now Cuisine" recipe contest. Donnell won for his pumpkin walnut cheesecake recipe. . . Dr. Carl Engelhart, professor emeritus of English, is teaching at Nankai University in the People's Republic of China. Engelhart wrote that his neighbor, a Chinese American, was Dr. George Pasti's Chinese teacher in California quite a few years ago. . . An article by Dr. Sylvie Debevec Henning, assistant professor of foreign language, entitled "The Guffaw of the Abderite: Murphy and the Democritean Universe," recently appeared in the Journal of Beckett Studies. . . "The Rhetoric of Jesse Jackson," an essay by Dr. J. Justin Gustainis, assistant professor of communication, has been accepted for publication in the book Twentieth Century American Political Orators, to be published by Greenwood Press in 1986. . . Roger Knakal, a 1983 graduate in biochemistry/biophysics, was recently on campus and informed his former professors that a paper, "Expression of a Mammalian Na-H Exchanger in Muscle Fibres of the Giant Barnacle," of which he was senior author, was recently published in Nature. Knakal is a research assistant in the Yale School of Medicine's department of physiology. . . Dr. Richard Lamb, associate professor in the Center for Earth and Environmental Science, has received a $1,000 grant to continue his regional planning studies in connection with the Fort Drum expansion in Watertown. This grant represents a continuation of the work begun this past summer on a grant of $4,725 from the Temporary State Commission on Tug Hill. . . Daniel Stearns, associate professor of computer science, recently presented two workshops on microcomputers at the 8th Annual WIC Association Conference.

this week on campus

Unless otherwise noted, all events are free and open to the campus and public.

THURSDAY, NOVEMBER 7

11:30 am — Women's Studies Forum presents Jeanette Coleman, Director of Nursing at PSUC on "Surviving in a Women's Profession." Sponsored by the Women's Studies Program. Angell Center Cardinal Lounge.

4:15 pm — The Management Club presents speaker Nancy Church. Angell Center Conference Room.

5:30 pm — Canada Day Dinner, sponsored by Quantity Foods Class. Sibley Hall Dining Room.

6 pm — Hillel weekly meeting. Open to the campus. Angell Center Meeting Room 2.

7 pm — Biology Club Social — Coffee and doughnuts will be served. Open to the campus. Angell Center Cardinal Lounge.

7 pm — Students for Peace meeting. Angell Center Meeting Room 2.

7 pm — Philosophy Colloquium presents speaker John Jacobs. Angell Center Conference Room.

8 pm — College Theatre Production: "The Importance of Being Earnest." Sponsored by the Center for Art, Music and Theatre. Open to the campus and public. S.A. student tickets: $1, public: $4, faculty: $3, under 18: $2, and senior citizens: $2. Tickets are on sale at the Hartman Box Office. Hartman Theatre.

FRIDAY, NOVEMBER 8

8 am — Second Research Day sponsored by Sigma Theta Tau. Angell Center Cardinal Lounge.

10 a.m. - 8 p.m. — Canadian Studies Information Booth. Angell Center Lobby.

12 noon — Film "Music and Dance of the Mohawks." Angell Center Conference Room 1.

3 pm — "The Influence of the United States on Canadian Life: Harmful or Beneficial," a lecture by Dr. Sidney Wise, moderated by Dr. Martin Lubin. A Canada Day activity. Angell Center Orchard Room.

3:45 pm — "Canada-U.S. Economic Relations," a speech by Robert Johnstone, Canadian Consul General, New York City, moderated by Dr. Prem Gandhi. A Canada Day activity. Angell Center Orchard Room.

7:30 - 9 pm — Canadian Cabaret with Montreal singer Pascal Normand. Angell Center Orchard Room. Free tickets are available, but must be picked up at the Center for the Study of Canada.

7:30 & 8:30 pm — "A Comet Called Halley" — Planetarium Show open to the campus and public, no charge. Pick up free tickets from the main office in Hudson Hall. North Country Planetarium, Hudson Hall.

8 pm — College Theatre Production: "The Importance of Being Earnest." Sponsored by the Center for Art, Music and Theatre. Open to the campus and public. S.A. student tickets: $1, public: $4, faculty: $3, under 18: $2, and senior citizens: $2. Tickets are on sale at the Hartman Box Office. Hartman Theatre.

SATURDAY, NOVEMBER 9

9 am — Fund Raiser for African Relief sponsored by Intervarsity Christian Fellowship. Angell Center Lobby.

1 pm — Circle K Run for Fun. 4 x ½ Mile Relay Race. All proceeds to benefit MDA. Immediately following the race is a free pizza party for all runners. Open to the campus. Each team must raise a $50 entrance fee. The race will be held on campus.

8 pm — College Theatre Production: "The Importance of Being Earnest." Sponsored by the Center for Art, Music and Theatre. Open to the campus and public. S.A. student tickets: $1, public: $4, faculty: $3, under 18: $2, and senior citizens: $2. Tickets are on sale at the Hartman Box Office. Hartman Theatre.

SUNDAY, NOVEMBER 10

6:45 & 9:15 pm — Student Association Film Committee presents "Gremlins." Open to the campus. S.A. members tickets are 50¢, faculty tickets are $1 and on sale at the Angell College Center Desk. Hawkins Halls Auditorium.

10 pm - 2 am — Tuck in Service with a choice of two bedtime stories. Sponsored by Alpha Chi Rho. Open to the campus. Cost per tuck in is $1.50.

MONDAY, NOVEMBER 11

3 - 5 pm — The Copeland Company will be recruiting for Account Executive. Sponsored by Career/Life Planning and Placement. Open to the campus. Angell Center Cardinal Lounge.

4 pm — Dr. Roger Heintz speaking on "Thyroid Hormone Receptor Proteins." Sponsored by the Plattsburgh State Student Chemical Society. Hudson Hall Room 104.

6 pm — Environmental Action Committee meeting. Hudson 028.

8 pm — Campus Poets Series 85-86 presents Elliot Richman. Sponsored by the Faculty of Arts and Science. Angell Center Cardinal Lounge.

8 pm — Faculty/Student Volleyball Game sponsored by Campus Life and the Management Club. Open to the campus. Hawkins Gym.

10:15 pm — Student Association Senate meeting. Angell Center Conference Room.

TUESDAY, NOVEMBER 12

11:45 pm — Music Brown Bag performance sponsored by the Center for Art, Music and Theatre. Myers Fine Arts Gallery.

4:15 pm — Lary Shaffer: Feeding, Foraging and Chipmunks sponsored by Tuesday Reflections. Angell Center Cardinal Lounge.

7 pm — Ecosystems and the Need for Environmentalism sponsored by the Environmental Action Committee. Angell Center Cardinal Lounge.

WEDNESDAY, NOVEMBER 13

5 pm — Yoga Exercise and Relaxation. New members welcome. Hawkins Hall Gym Room 153.

7:30 pm — "History of the Mafia in America," sponsored by the History Club. Open to the campus and public, no charge. Angell Center Cardinal Lounge.

8 pm — Air Band Auditions sponsored by Campus Life. Open to members only. Angell Center Ballrooms.

8 pm — College Theatre Production: "The Importance of Being Earnest." Sponsored by the Center for Art, Music and Theatre. Open to the campus and public. S.A. student tickets: $1, public: $4, faculty: $3, under 18: $2, and senior citizens: $2. Tickets are on sale at the Hartman Box Office. Hartman Theatre.

THURSDAY, NOVEMBER 14

4:30 pm — Marketing Club meeting. All students are welcome. Angell Center Ballroom.

6 pm — Hillel weekly meeting. Open to the campus. Angell Center Meeting Room 2.

7 pm — Featured speaker — Peter Borelli sponsored by the Environmental Action Committee. Angell Center Ballrooms.

8 pm — College Theatre Productions: "The Importance of Being Earnest." Sponsored by the Center for Art, Music and Theatre. Open to the campus and public. S.A. student tickets: $1, public: $4, faculty: $3, under 18: $2, and senior citizens: $2. Tickets are on sale at the Hartman Box Office. Hartman Theatre.

CALENDAR NOTES

Good-Better-Best Aerobics — Monday and Thursday at 5 pm, Tuesday and Wednesday at 7 pm, Friday and Sunday at 3 pm. Open to all no charge. Angell Center Blue Room.

Annual Swing Soiree Dinner/Dance sponsored by the office of Campus Life, C.A.S., S.A., Marriott and Alumni. November 9, 1985, Angell Center Ballrooms. Tickets: $5.25, S.A. member with meal card; $8.00, S.A. member; $9.00, faculty, staff and public. Tickets go on sale Wednesday, October 30 at the Angell Center Desk.

The 1985-86 edition of the Academic Advising Handbook was distributed to faculty during the week of October 21-25. The student edition of the handbook is available at the Student Outreach Center in the College Center. Faculty who have not received a handbook should call Tom Corigliano

CORRECTION: The International Food Fair sponsored by I.R.C. was incorrectly listed as occurring on Sunday, November 3 in the last "Weekly." The correct date is Sunday, December 8.

The Office of Personnel and Affirmative Action will sponsor a blood drive from 10 a.m. to 3 p.m. on November 13 in the Angell Center Ballroom. Faculty, staff, students, and members of the community are urged to participate.

GALLERY EXHIBITIONS

Myers Fine Arts Gallery, through December 20
"19th Century French Prints"

Rockwell Kent Gallery, through December 20
"Howard Jennings: Photographs"

Myers Fine Arts Lobby through December 20
"I Love N.Y. Paper: PSUC Student Works on Paper"

CURRENT JOB LISTINGS

Department	Closing Date
Art, Music and Theatre		Foreign Languages and Literature
Lecturer	12/12/85	Part-Time Instructors (German, French and Spanish)	Open
Business and Economics		Mathematics
Accounting and Management Faculty	Open	Assistant/Associate Professor	12/1/85
Career/Life Planning and Placement		Psychology
Typist	11/07/85	Assistant/Associate Professor	2/1/86
Computer Science
Instructor/Asisstant Professor	12/15/85*	*Or Until qualified candidate is found

Complete details are available in the Office of Personnel and Affirmative Action

COLLEGE COUNCIL APPROVES NEW CAMPUS ALCOHOL POLICIES

The College Council, at its regular meeting last week, unanimously approved a set of resolutions and recommendations regarding the use of alcohol on campus, in response to the increase of the legal alcohol purchase age to 21, which becomes effective on December 1, 1985. The proposals and recommendations were submitted by an Ad Hoc Campus Alcohol Committee, which was chaired by Peter Luguri, assistant to the vice president for student affairs, and had as members: Paul Berry, SA executive vice president; Robert Clinton, director of Marriott; William Laundry, director of Campus Life; William Mattar, SA president, Darcey Ramsey, Residence Hall Council; Teresa Rosati, SA senator; Stanley Supinski, director of College Auxiliary Services; and Jaimie Trautman, campus judicial coordinator.

The new policies include the following points:

- That the Point Bar be allowed to continue operations after December 1, 1985, with the following modifications: access will be limited to only those individuals who can legally purchase alcohol, alcohol shall not be permitted to leave the area, and seating will be modified to accommodate the legal occupancy (68) and the ambiance will be enhanced.
- That events involving alcohol within the residence halls (e.g. hall, floor, suite, and room parties) will no longer be authorized and violators will be subject to college judicial procedures.
- That events involving alcohol which must now take place outside of the residence halls (e.g. Angell Center, Rugar Woods, etc.) be modified as follows: all alcohol for these events must be purchased through the CAS sub-contract caterer (Marriott), and a group of students who are 21 or older must reserve college facilities other than the residence halls for events involving alcohol in accordance with effective policies.

In addition to the formally adopted policies, several recommendations were approved, as follows:

- An ad hoc committee will be appointed to evaluate the Point Bar operation and will assess its positive impact on student life on the campus, as well as the on-going feasibility of allowing the Point Bar to remain in operation. A recommendation as to whether to continue its operation after the spring semester will be made in April, 1986.
- Comprehensive information regarding the new legislation will be provided to the campus community through campus media.
- A brochure about the new legislation and its implications will be prepared and disseminated to the entire college community. Information will be provided to incoming students during orientation sessions.
- A member of the staff from the offices of the vice president for student affairs and campus life will continue to work closely with the SA, SA organizations, fraternities and sororities in regard to their responsibilities and liabilities as they pertain to the new legislation.
- A standing committee will be formed to monitor the policies involving alcohol on the campus and will make recommendations as appropriate. The committee, to be comprised of students, staff, faculty and administrators, will also assess campus programming in the context of alternatives to events that historically included access to alcohol.
- A College/Community Liaison Committee will be established, with membership to include the college president, the mayor, the vice president for student affairs, the police chief, the assistant to the president for college relations, the director of campus public safety, the president of the Student Association, the chair of the SA College/Community Relations Board, the city court judge, the director of Campus Life, the campus judicial coordinator, the district attorney, the fire department chief, and appropriate aldermen.

COLLEGE COUNCIL URGES DEFEAT OF GRAMM/RUDMAN AND CONTRACT SETTLEMENT

The Plattsburgh College Council has gone on record opposing the proposed cuts in federal financial aid programs which are being considered in Congress as part of the Gramm/Rudman Bill. The Council unanimously passed a resolution condemning the proposed cuts, which would eliminate Pell Grants to 231 of the college's undergraduates, eliminate Supplementary and Work-Study Grants to 340 students, and eliminate all 110 students from the college's Upward Bound Program. The Council resolved to go "on record as opposing Gramm/Rudman because of its detrimental impact on higher education and those who benefit from it"; and further resolved "that copies of this resolution be sent to Congressman Martin, Senators Moynihan and D'Amato and to the chairpersons of the Senate Finance and House Ways and Means committees.

Finally, the Council passed a resolution on the negotiations between UUP and the State of New York, as follows: "Whereas, the United University Professions, the bargaining unit for teaching and non-teaching professionals on the Plattsburgh campus, is currently negotiating a contract with the State of New York; be it resolved, that the Council urges both sides in the negotiating process to reach a contract settlement as soon as possible."

NOVEMBER 20 DECLARED ADULT LEARNING DAY; ADULT LEARNERS TO BE HONORED

November 17 - 23 has been designated as Adult Learning Week as part of the New York State Education Department's campaign to encourage adults to continue their education at the state's post secondary institutions. In keeping with that theme, Plattsburgh Mayor Carlton Rennell and the Plattsburgh City Council have proclaimed November 20 as Adult Learning Day in the city. The Center for Lifelong Learning will host a reception to honor Adult Learners at Plattsburgh State. The reception will take place from 4:30 to 6 p.m. on November 20 in the Angell Center Cardinal Lounge and everyone on campus is invited to attend. Dr. Griffin Walling, director of the Center for Lifelong Learning commented, "Nearly 1,000 students here at the college are considered 'adult learners.' This occasion gives us a good opportunity to salute these students who so frequently overcome real difficulties in order to obtain a college education." Reservations may be made by calling the Center at 564-2050.

UUP EXECUTIVE BOARD PASSES RESOLUTION ON ACADEMIC FREEDOM

The Executive Board of the Plattsburgh State UUP Chapter recently passed a resolution on academic freedom. The resolution read as follows: "Whereas a group calling itself Accuracy in Academic (AIA) has begun a nationwide effort to have students monitor college instructors of 'leftist' biases; such efforts being a transparent attempt to impose the group's own biases on college, and whereas effective teaching requires that facts be presented in a broad context which may have political implications; and whereas there are means available to prevent instructors from requiring that students share their biases, be it resolved that the Plattsburgh Chapter of United University Professions condemns efforts by the AIA or any other group or individual to monitor the political views of instructors, and be it further resolved that the Chapter calls upon all college administrators, faculty and students to support academic freedom and the presentation of all political views on campus, and especially, in the classroom."

JOHN BROOKS TO SPEAK ON MONDAY AS PART OF DISTINGUISHED VISITING JOURNALIST SERIES

John Brooks, noted financial and Wall Street reporter for the New Yorker magazine, will visit campus next Monday, November 18, as part of the Distinguished Visiting Professor of Journalism Series. In addition to conducting student workshops during the day, Brooks will be the featured guest at a Faculty Forum to be held at 4 p.m. in the Angell Center Cardinal Lounge. Members of the campus community and the public are invited to a public reading of Brooks' work at 8 p.m. in the Angell Center Ballroom.

Brooks has been associated with the New Yorker for many years and won the Loeb Magazine Award in 1964 and again in 1968 for articles published in that magazine. Brooks has written three novels, The Big Wheel, A Pride of Lions, and the Man Who Broke Things. He has also published numerous non-fiction books, including, among others, The Go-Go Years, The Autobiography of American Business, and The Fate of the Edsel and Other Business Adventures.

ALPHA CHI RHO TO SPONSOR A 'GIVE PLATTSBURGH THANKSGIVING' FAST DAY

Alpha Chi Rho, in conjunction with the Marriott Corporation, will sponsor a "Give Plattsburgh Thanksgiving" Fast Day on December 3. Members of the fraternity are asking students with meal cards to sign away their breakfast on that day. For each meal signed away, Marriott will donate $1.11 to the Plattsburgh Ecumenical Food Shelf. Alpha Chi Rho brothers will staff sign-up tables during lunch and dinner hours from November 18 - 22 in Clinton and Algonquin Dining Halls and in the Angell College Center.

ANNE ENGELHART TO PRESENT WOMEN'S STUDIES FORUM ON WOMEN'S HISTORY

Archivist Anne Engelhart, curator of manuscripts at Radcliffe College's Schlesinger Library on the History of Women in America, will be the guest speaker at the November 14th Women's Studies Forum. Engelhart's talk is entitled "Up in Grandmother's Attic: Collecting Women's Past" and will be accompanied by slides. The Women's Studies Forum will be held at 11:30 a.m. in the Angell Center Cardinal Lounge. It is free and open to all.

During her visit to campus, Engelhart will also meet with members of the history club interested in research, oral history and archival practice.

JAZZ ENSEMBLE TO PRESENT CONCERT NOVEMBER 21

The Plattsburgh State Jazz Ensemble will present a concert on Thursday evening, November 21, at 8:00 p.m. in Hartman Theatre. The Ensemble will display various jazz styles including mainstream, rock, odd-meter, and ballad. In tribute to the late Count Basie the Ensemble will perform "Magic Flea," and in honor of Duke Ellington, "In a Mellow Tone." Other mainstream selections are "Sister Sadie"; "Don't Git Sassy," by Thad Jones; "Frame from the Blues," a slow blues tune from the repertoire of Maynard Ferguson, and a contemporary composition by Phil Woods called "O.P." Also included in the program is Herm Matlock's arrangement of the standard ballad, "Don't Blame Me." Two rock tunes have been selected for the program, "Coragon," a Carole King composition from the Woody Herman Library, and "Quiet Friday," a tone poem in 5/4 meter by Hank Levy. The featured singer for the concert will be Debbie Snyder, singing "Wait a While," "Nice and Easy," and "MacArthur Park."

FORENSIC TEAM PLACES FOURTH AT SUFFOLK UNIVERSITY TOURNAMENT

The college's forensic team placed fourth, behind Cornell University, Emerson College and Boston College, at the annual Suffolk University Tournament held recently in Boston. The field of 21 schools included, among others, teams from Harvard, Brown, MIT, Northeastern, and NYU.

Plattsburgh's Gretchen Shawe took top honors in Prose Interpretation. Other finalists included Deborah Pacyna (Prose, Interpretive Speaking, Dramatic Duo), Eric Marler (Dramatic Duo), and Ed Tomac (After Dinner Speaking). The team's next appearance will be in New Haven on November 16.

ENVIRONMENTAL SCIENCE INTERNSHIP FUNDED BY GRANT FROM EDNA BAILEY SUSSMAN FUND

The Edna Bailey Sussman Fund has awarded an environmental internship with the New York State Department of Environmental Conservation to Howard Heims, a senior environmental science major from Port Washington. The internship provides a four month placement and a $2,000 stipend, with the purpose of the program, according to the Sussman Fund's regulations "to help those individuals pursuing careers, the activities of which affect the environment, to understand the interaction of their chosen profession with environmental concerns." Dr. Malcolm Fairweather, director of the Center for Earth and Environmental Science, said that Heims will be working directly with Malcolm Coutant, legal counsel with the NYS Department of Environmental Conservation in Ray Brook.

SPORTS UPDATE; BASKETBALL TEAM TO OPEN SEASON WITH RED-WHITE GAME

Steve Hoar's icers travelled to Burlington last Wednesday to face the University of Vermont, and lost, 4-1. The Division I Catamounts grabbed a 2-0 lead before the right wing Jean Simon Bibeau swatted home a loose puck from just outside the UVM crease. Any hopes of a Cardinal upset were dashed, however, when the hosts tallied in the opening seconds of the third stanza. Freshman Craig Barnett turned in a fine performance for the Cards, recording 30 saves in his first collegiate start. On Sunday, PSUC defeated Canton ATC in an exhibition test, 7-4, to bring home the Paul Calkins Memorial Trophy. Ed Boyle tallied two goals and an assist for the icemen.

The women's cross country team participated in the ECAC championships at Smith College in Springfield, Massachusetts. The Cardinals finished fourth out of 21 schools behind team champion Ithaca College. Ellen Kissane led the way for PSUC with a 19th place finish. Freshman Kathy Kane was the next Cardinal runner with a 28th place effort of 19:17. Both the men's and women's teams travel to SUNY-Stony Brook to run in the NCAA Division III New York State regional championship.

Norm Law's men's basketball team opens up its 1985-86 season with the annual Red-White scrimmage game this Friday at Memorial Hall. Game time is 7:30 p.m. The following weekend, the Cardinals open up their regular season by hosting the Pepsi Classic invitational. PSUC will host Hobart College in the first round. Fredonia State and Utica Tech will also be competing.

weekly notes

Dr. Stuart Baum, professor of chemistry, presented a paper entitled "Biotechnology: Friend or Foe" to a conference of the Science Teachers Association of New York State held last week in Ellenville. . . Dr. Griffin Walling, director of the Center for Lifelong Learning, presented a paper entitled "Graduate Programs in Rural Settings: Questions of Quality" at the Ninth Annual National Conference on Quality in Off-Campus Programs held in October in Orlando, Florida. The paper was accepted for publication in Issues in Higher Education. Walling was also recently elected to the Executive Committee of the Continuing Education Association of New York State at the annual conference held in October in Rochester. . . Diana Green, director of institutional research, and Jean Morlock, associate for institutional research, attended the Twelfth Annual Conference of the North East Association for Institutional Research held recently in Hartford, CT. Morlock presented a paper the two had co-authored, entitled "A Longitudinal Study of College Impact: Freshmen to Alumni."

this week on campus

Unless otherwise noted, all events are free and open to the campus and public.

THURSDAY, NOVEMBER 14

11:30 am - 12:45 pm — Women's Studies Forum presents Anne Engelhart, Radcliffe College speaking on "Up in Grandmother's Attic: Collecting Women's Past." Sponsored by the Women's Studies, C.A.S. and Dean of Arts and Science. Angell Center Cardinal Lounge.

3:30 pm — Discussion on "Liberation Theology in Central America" with Earl Johnson and Jack Studebaker. Sponsored by the Students for Peace. Angell Center Ballroom A.

4:30 pm — Marketing Club meeting. All students are welcome. Angell Center Ballroom B.

6 pm — Hillel weekly meeting. Open to the campus. Angell Center Meeting Room 2.

7 pm — Walt Disney Information Session sponsored by Cooperative Education. Open to the campus. Angell Center Cardinal Lounge.

7 pm — Featured speaker — Peter Borelli sponsored by the Environmental Action Committee. Angell Center Ballrooms.

8 pm — College Theatre Production: "The Importance of Being Earnest." Sponsored by the Center for Art, Music and Theatre. Open to the campus and public. S.A. student tickets are $1, public is $4, faculty $3, under 18 $2 and senior citizens $2. Tickets are on sale at the Hartman Box Office. Hartman Theatre.

FRIDAY, NOVEMBER 15

2 pm — Nicaraguan Experience with Dr. Bryan Higgins. A workshop sponsored by the Students for Peace. Angell Center Amnesty Room.

6 pm — The Champlain Valley Management Club presents speaker, Ann Stewart, discussion "Moving Your Organization into the Future Through Planned Change." This is a dinner meeting and tickets will be sold at the door. Sponsored by Career/Life Planning and Placement. Angell Center Orchard Room.

7:30 & 8:30 pm — "A Comet Called Halley" — Planetarium Show. Pick up free tickets from the main office in Hudson Hall. North Country Planetarium, Hudson Hall.

8 pm — "1001 Black Inventions" — A play sponsored by Akeba. S.A. member tickets are $2.50, public tickets are $3.50 and on sale at the Angell Center Desk. Hawkins Large Auditorium.

9 pm — Air Band Contest sponsored by Campus Life. Open to the campus. Tickets are $1 and on sale at the Angell Center Desk. Angell Center Ballrooms.

8 pm — College Theatre Production: "The Importance of Being Earnest." Sponsored by the Center for Art, Music and Theatre. Open to the campus and public. S.A. student tickets are $1, public is $4, faculty $3, under 18 $2 and senior citizens is $2. Tickets are on sale at the Hartman Box Office. Hartman Theatre.

SATURDAY, NOVEMBER 16

9 am — Montreal Bus — Leaves Memorial Hall 9 am and departs from Place Bonaventure, Montreal at 6 pm. Round trip tickets are $8 and go on sale beginning Monday, November 11 at the Angell Center Desk.

9 am - 12 noon — The Champlain Valley Management Club presents speaker, Ann Stewart discussing "Moving Your Organization into the Future Through Planned Change." This is a breakfast/seminar and open to members only. Angell Center Cardinal Lounge.

7:30 pm — Men's Ice Hockey: PSUC vs. Brockport. S.A. tickets are 50¢, public is $3 and under 18 $1 and on sale at the door. Fieldhouse Ice Arena.

8 pm — College Theatre Production: "The Importance of Being Earnest." Sponsored by the Center for Art, Music and Theatre. Open to the campus and public. S.A. student tickets are $1, public is $4, faculty $3, under 18 $2 and senior citizens is $2. Tickets are on sale at the Hartman Box Office. Hartman Theatre.

8 pm — Plattsburgh Little Theatre presents "Death Trap." Tickets ($3.75) on sale at Angell Center Desk. Reserved seating. Orchard Room.

9 pm — "Caribbean Night" — Annual semi-formal sponsored by El Pueblo. Open to the campus and public. S.A. tickets are $1.50, public $2 and on sale at the Angell Center Desk. Angell Center Ballroom B.

SUNDAY, NOVEMBER 17

6:45 & 9:15 pm — Student Association Film Committee presents "All the Right Moves." S.A. members 50¢, faculty $1. Tickets are on sale at the Angell Center Desk. Hawkins Large Auditorium.

8 pm — Plattsburgh Little Theatre presents "Death Trap." Tickets ($3.75) on sale at Angell Center Desk. Reserved seating. Orchard Room.

MONDAY, NOVEMBER 18

11 am - 2 pm — Bagel Sale — Send a bagel to a friend. Sponsored by Hillel. Open to the campus. Cost is 50¢ each. Angell Center Lobby.

7 pm — Film: U.S. Involvement in Central America. Sponsored by the Students for Peace. Yokum 208.

8 pm — Distinguished Visiting Professor Program features John Brooks giving a public reading. Angell Center Ballrooms.

8 pm — Ski Club meeting. Open to the campus. Angell Center Cardinal Lounge.

TUESDAY, NOVEMBER 19

11 am - 2 pm — Bagel Sale — Send a bagel to a friend. Sponsored by Hillel. Open to the campus. Cost is 50¢ each. Angell Center Lobby.

11:45 am — Center for Art, Music and Theatre sponsors a student recital with Louise Dionne, piano, and Heidi Miller, flute. Myers Gallery.

4:15 pm — Omicron Delta Kappa meeting. Open to members only. Angell Center Amnesty Room.

7 pm — World Court Debate: Nicaragua vs. United States. Sponsored by the Students for Peace. Angell Center Cardinal Lounge.

WEDNESDAY, NOVEMBER 20

11 am - 2 pm — Bagel Sale — Send a bagel to a friend. Sponsored by Hillel. Open to the campus. Cost is 50¢ each. Angell Center Lobby.

11 am - 3 pm — CVPB Blood Drive sponsored by Theta Alpha Lambda. Angell Center Ballrooms.

4:30 pm — Adult Student Reception sponsored by the Center for Lifelong Learning. Open to the campus. Angell Center Cardinal Lounge.

5 pm — Yoga Exercise and Relaxation. New members welcome anytime. Hawkins Hall Gym Room 153.

7 pm — Rules Interpretation Clinic for Section 7 Girls' Basketball Coaches. Memorial Hall Gymnasium.

7 pm — A discussion with Professor John Thompson on the recent summit meeting. Sponsored by the Students for Peace. Angell Center Cardinal Lounge.

THURSDAY, NOVEMBER 21

11:30 am - 12:45 pm — Women's Studies Forum presents Heather McGann, PSUC student speaking on "Palestinian Women Today." Sponsored by Women's Studies, C.A.S. and Dean of Arts and Science. Angell Center Cardinal Lounge.

6 pm — Hillel weekly meeting. Open to the campus. Angell Center Meeting Room 2.

7:30 pm — Men's Ice Hockey: PSUC vs. Norwich. S.A. tickets are 50¢, public is $3 and under 18 $1 and on sale at the door. Fieldhouse Ice Arena.

8 pm — The Center for Art, Music and Theatre presents the Jazz Ensemble, conducted by Herm Matlock. Hartman Theatre

GALLERY EXHIBITIONS

Myers Fine Arts Gallery, through December 20
"19th Century French Prints"

Rockwell Kent Gallery, through December 20
"Howard Jennings: Photographs"

Myers Fine Arts Lobby, through December 20
"I Love N.Y. Paper. PSUC Student Works on Paper"

WEEKLY is published by the Office of College Relations each Wednesday while classes are in session. Notice of events to be listed in "This Week on Campus" must be submitted to Melanie Wheatley (564-3824) by Thursday the week prior to publication. News items will be accepted by Carolee Smith (564-2090) until noon on Monday of the week of publication.

State University of New York College of Arts and Science at Plattsburgh is an Equal Employment Opportunity Affirmative Action Employer

CURRENT JOB LISTINGS

Department	Closing Date	Foreign Languages and Literature
Art, Music and Theatre		Part-time Instructors (German, French & Spanish)	Open
Lecturer	12/12/85	Mathematics
Business and Economics		Assistant/Associate Professor	12/1/85
Accounting & Management Faculty	Open	Psychology
Dean	1/15/86*	Assistant/Associate Professor	2/1/86
Computer Science
Instructor/Assistant Professor	12/15/85*	*Or until qualified candidate is found

Complete details are available in the Office of Personnel and Affirmative Action

FRESHMEN CHOOSE PLATTSBURGH FOR PROGRAM, ATMOSPHERE, LOCATION

The typical freshman chose Plattsburgh State because of its academic programs, atmosphere, and location, according to the results of a survey completed by 74% of the 979 new freshmen enrolled this fall. Some of the other information contained in the survey is as follows:

- 20% have family members who attended Plattsburgh, while 6% have one or more parents who attended Plattsburgh.
- 61% intend to pursue an advanced degree.
- The average number of hours spent studying per week in high school was 9½.
- Members of the class of 1989 say they are less likely than 1984 freshmen to make at least a B average or drop out temporarily.
- The most influential factors in their decision to attend Plattsburgh were its distance from home, costs, and friendliness of college atmosphere.
- Plattsburgh was the first college choice for 54%, and the second choice for 36%.
- The typical freshman rated as important or very important "obtaining specific skills that will be useful on a job (93%)," "discovering vocational interests (91%)," and "improving the chances of making money (87%)."
- 60% or more freshmen rated him/herself above average at developing long-term friendships, independence, and social knowledge.
- 30% or more rated themselves below average on artistic ability, public speaking ability, and mechanical ability.

FIVE ANTHROPOLOGY STUDENTS TO PRESENT RESEARCH AT REGIONAL MEETING

Five anthropology students have been invited to attend the 26th annual meeting of the Northeastern Anthropological Association and present reports on their original research projects. Students invited to participate and their project titles are John Gibbons, "Variations in Success Concepts: A Cognitive Approach"; Robert Trianni, "What Class Should I Take? Student Culture, General Education and Decision Making"; Lisa Carpentieri, "Daytime and Primetime Soaps: Female Representation in Television Advertising"; John Penman, "Sports and Big Business in Advertising"; and Al Thronsen, "American Television Advertising as a Model of American Society." The student presentations will be part of a session titled "SUNY College at Plattsburgh: Student Research," which will be moderated by Drs. James Armstrong and Phil DeVita, assistant and associate professor respectively, of psychology.

PLATTSBURGH, CANTON ATC SIGN JOINT ADMISSIONS AGREEMENT

Plattsburgh State and Canton Agricultural and Technical College have signed a joint admissions agreement. The agreement was signed by acting Plattsburgh President Jerome Supple and Canton ATC President Earl MacArthur (photo left) on the occasion of the Annual Paul Calkins Memorial Hockey Game held recently in Canton. The two presidents later dropped the ceremonial puck to start the annual game, which Plattsburgh went on to win, 7-4.

GRANTS IN AID OF RESEARCH AVAILABLE IN BIOLOGY DEPARTMENT

A research fund has been established in the department of biological sciences through the generosity of a former biology student, according to Dr. Ralph Clark, chairman of the department. Clark said the anonymous benefactor wishes to encourage research by undergraduates, so the grants-in-aid will be called Beaumont Research Grants. Individual grants-in-aid, he said, will generally be limited to $100. To qualify for consideration, students must enroll in BIO 495 (Undergraduate Research) and must have prepared the documents for registering for this course by the deadline date (December 1 or April 15). The Committee will base its decisions on the merits of the submitted research plans.

BARIE AND DEBRINE CAPTURE VARSITY DEBATE TITLE AT SOUTHERN CONNECTICUT TOURNAMENT

Debateurs Stacey Barie and Deanna DeBrine captured the varsity debate title at the Southern Connecticut State University Forensic Tournament held last weekend. Barie and DeBrine, with a 5-1 record, outpointed teams from Yale, St. John's, SUNY Cortland, Virginia Military Institute and New York University. Barie was named second place varsity speaker for her efforts, and debate team coach Justin Gustainis was presented with the coach's award.

SEARCH UNDERWAY FOR DEAN OF SCHOOL OF BUSINESS AND ECONOMICS

A search committee has been formed and a national search is underway for a Dean of the School of Business and Economics. Dr. Prem Gandhi, who is chairing the search committee, said that applicants "should have an earned doctorate in an appropriate field, a demonstrated record of leadership and administrative skills, experience in planning and development activities, and commitment to excellence in teaching, scholarship and research. Some variations from these requirements may be made for candidates who possess significant experience in relevant non-academic environments." Advertisements will be placed in "The Chronicle of Higher Education" and "The New York Times." Anyone wishing to nominate a potential candidate may contact Gandhi or any of the members of the search committee, who are Dr. Richard Beach, Dr. Marilyn Chase, Dr. Warren Dixon, Jan Edwards, Dr. Raymond Guydosh, William Kelting, Dr. Hough Liu, Dr. John O'Hara, and Dr. Nicholas Troisi. Formal screening of applicants will begin January 15 and will continue until the position is filled.

NEW YORKER WRITER JANE KRAMER TO VISIT CAMPUS DECEMBER 3

Jane Kramer, the fourth in the series of Distinguished Visiting Professors of Journalism, will visit the Plattsburgh State campus on December 3. In addition to meeting with journalism classes and conducting a workshop for students, Kramer will host a Faculty Forum at 4 p.m. in the Angell Center Conference Room (103) and will give a public reading of her works at 8 p.m. in the Angell Center Ballroom. Kramer has for several years written the "Letter From Europe" column for "The New Yorker." Several of these columns are collected in her current book, which is entitled Unsettling Europe. She won the Front Page award for best magazine feature, "The Invandare," which appeared in "The New Yorker" in 1977. Her saturation reporting on a ranch hand in Texas, The Last Cowboy, won the American Book Award (formerly known as the National Book Award) in 1981 for general nonfiction in paperback.

Kramer's appearance concludes the fall series of the Distinguished Professors of Journalism. Two other writers from "The New Yorker" will be guests on campus through the same series during the spring semester.

SIGMA XI LECTURE SERIES TO PRESENT DR. ETHAN R. NADEL

Sigma Xi will host a public lecture by Dr. Ethan R. Nadel of the Yale University School of Medicine at 8 p.m. on December 2 in Hudson Hall 106. Nadel is well known for his contributions to the field of exercise physiology. His studies have focused on temperature regulation, hyperthermia, and control of blood flow, all of which are important factors in understanding the limits of endurance. Nadel is a member of the Board of Trustees of the American College of Sports Medicine, and is also a member of several editorial boards. Nadel's discussion is free and open to the public and should be of special interest to people involved in aerobic or other forms of exercise.

VISUAL ARTISTS SERIES TO HOST CERAMIC SCULPTOR TONY HEPBURN

Tony Hepburn, ceramic sculptor, will lecture on campus at 8 p.m. on Thursday, December 5 in the Angell Center Ballroom B. Hepburn was born and educated in England, and has taught in London, New York City and Chicago, as well as at Carnegie-Mellon University in Pittsburgh, and Haystack in Maine. He is currently teaching ceramics at Alfred University and is head of the Division of Art and Design. Hepburn's lecture is free and open to the public. His visit is sponsored by the Visual Artists Services of the Center for Art, Music and Theatre.

BASKETBALL, HOCKEY TEAMS EACH TO HOST CARDINAL CLASSIC TOURNAMENT OVER HOLIDAY

Norm Law's men's basketball team tips off the 1985-86 season by hosting the Cardinal-Pepsi Classic on November 22-23. In the opening game, at 6 p.m. on Friday, Fredonia State will square off against Utica Tech. Plattsburgh will meet Hobart College in the other preliminary game at 8 p.m. On Saturday, the consolation game will begin at 6 p.m., with the championship match slated for 8 p.m. All games will be played in Memorial Hall.

The hockey Cardinals will host its version of the Cardinal-Pepsi Classic November 29-30. North Adams State and Holy Cross will tangle in Friday's first game (5 p.m.) and the Cardinals will square off against the Iowa State Cyclones at 8 p.m. The consolation and final matchups on Saturday will begin at 5 p.m. and 8 p.m. respectively.

All passes are suspended for both tournaments.

COLLEGE TO UNOFFICIALLY CLOSE ON NOVEMBER 29

As in past years, the college will again unofficially close on the Friday after Thanksgiving, November 29, 1985, according to Mayerlyn Miller, director of personnel and affirmative action. Only essential services will be maintained. Employees should check with their department supervisor to determine if they are required to work. Professionals and Civil Service employees will be required to charge appropriate leave credits for that date. If the employee does not have sufficient leave credits (annual, compensatory, or personal), credits may be advanced provided the employee makes appropriate arrangements with their supervisor and payroll. Employees who wish to work on that day rather than charge leave credits should inform their supervisor who in turn should contact the Office of Personnel and Affirmative Action where work assignments for those people will be made. Hourly and per diem Civil Service employees with less than 38 weeks of State service will be on leave without pay. Please contact the Office of Personnel and Affirmative Action if you have any questions.

SPEECH AND HEARING CENTER TO HOLD MEMORIAL CEREMONY FOR FORMER STUDENT

A Cecelia Shimer Memorial Dedication Ceremony will be held at the Speech and Hearing Center in Sibley Hall on December 6, at 4 p.m. A plaque will be unveiled revealing the names of two students who received the 1984-85 Cecelia Shimer Memorial Honors Award in the Speech-Language-Hearing Handicapped Education (Patricia Trudeau) and Hearing and Speech Science major (Linda Condit). The names of future students receiving these annual departmental honors awards will be inscribed on this memorial plaque. Cecelia Shimer was a student in the Hearing and Speech Science department who was killed in an automobile accident two years ago. Members of her family will be in attendance at this dedication ceremony. The ceremony is open to the campus community.

SPORTS UPDATE: FRESHMAN RUNNER QUALIFIES FOR NATIONALS

Freshman Andy Guay of Rouses Point qualified for the NCAA Division III cross country championships at Emory University, by finishing 13th last weekend at the New York State regional qualifier. The men's team placed 11th overall. The women's squad came in third behind Ithaca and Cortland State, narrowly missing a trip to Atlanta. Senior Ellen Kissane turned in a 10th place performance, missing the qualification cutoffs by one position.

Steve Hoar's hockey team lambasted Brockport State 14-1 Saturday night at home. Sophomore Joey Ferras led the Cardinal onslaught with a goal and six assists. Senior co-captain Steven Plaskon added three goals and an assist for the 2-2 Cardinals. PSUC outshot the Golden Eagles by a whopping 81-41 margin. The Cardinal snipers fired an incredible 41 shots at the Brockport net in the second period alone.

The men's and women's swimming team opened the 1985-86 campaign by competing in the Great Dane Relays at Albany State. The men finished sixth behind New Paltz State and the women swam to a fifth place position behind division I nemesis, Vermont. In the process, four Cardinal records fell. The PSUC men set a record in the 300 yard breaststroke relay while the women established new marks in the 400 yard freestyle relay, the 800 yard freestyle relay and the 200 yard butterfly relay.

weekly notes

Dr. Suzann Buckley, coordinator of women's studies and professor of history, lectured on Kate Chopin's The Awakening as part of the Essex Humanities Series entitled "A Woman's Place." . . Dr. James Dawson, professor in the Center for Earth and Environmental Science, presented a workshop on "Land Trusts: Alternative Methodologies for Wild Lands Protection" at the "Wilderness Recreation Conference" held in October at North Country Community College. Dawson also chaired a workshop on "State Parks" at the Fall Forum for Action sponsored by the New York Parks and Conservation Association held in November at the Saratoga Spa State Park. Dawson was appointed to serve on the Association's interim Board of Directors. . . Dr. J. Justin Gustainis, assistant professor of communication, recently presented two papers, "The Trial of the Cantonsville Nine" and "The Black Order: Rhetorical Dimensions of the Nazi SS," at the meeting of the Speech Communication Association in Denver. . . Dr. Joan Lynch, associate professor of nursing, recently presented a paper based on her doctoral dissertation study, "Relationship Between Obesity, Anxiety and Responsiveness to External Stimuli" at the Research Day of the PSUC Gamma Delta Chapter of Sigma Theta Tau. . . Dr. Ben Morreale, professor of history, presented a paper entitled "Immigration, Identity as Odyssey," before the 18th Annual Conference of the American Italian Historical Association held recently in Providence, Rhode Island.

this week on campus

Unless otherwise noted, all events are free and open to the campus and public.

THURSDAY, NOVEMBER 21

11:30 am - 12:45 pm — Women's Studies Forum presents Heather McGann, PSUC student speaking on "Palestinian Women Today." Sponsored by the Women's Studies, C.A.S. and the Dean of Arts and Science. Angell Center Cardinal Lounge.

7:30 pm — Men's Ice Hockey: PSUC vs. Norwich. SA members 50¢, public $3, under 18 $1. Tickets will be on sale at the door. Fieldhouse Ice Arena.

8 pm — Jazz Ensemble Concert, conducted by Herm Matlock. Sponsored by the Center for Art, Music and Theatre. Hartman Theatre.

FRIDAY, NOVEMBER 22

6 & 8 pm — Cardinal Classic: Preliminary Round Men's Basketball (Fredonia, Utica Tech, Hobart and Plattsburgh). SA member tickets are 50¢ and on sale at the Angell Center Desk and at the door. Memorial Hall.

SATURDAY, NOVEMBER 23

6 & 8 pm — Consolation and Final of Cardinal Classic Basketball Tournament.

7:30 pm — Men's Hockey: PSUC vs. University of Alaska. SA members 50¢, public $3, under 18 $1 and on sale at the Angell Center Desk and at the door. Fieldhouse.

FRIDAY, NOVEMBER 29

5 & 8 pm — Men's Ice Hockey Cardinal Classic: Preliminary — North Adams vs. Holy Cross at 5 pm. PSUC vs. Iowa State University at 8 pm. SA members 50¢, public $3, under 18 $1. Tickets are on sale at the Angell Center Desk and at the door. Fieldhouse.

SATURDAY, NOVEMBER 30

5 & 8 pm — Men's Ice Hockey Cardinal Classic: Consolation and Final. SA members 50¢, public $3, under 18 $1. Tickets are on sale at the Angell Center Desk and at the door. Fieldhouse.

MONDAY, DECEMBER 2

7 - 9:30 pm — Employment Information Session with Ames Department Store. Sponsored by Career/Life Planning and Placement. Open to the campus. Angell Center Cardinal Lounge.

8 pm — "Physiology of Exercise" by Dr. Ethan Nadel. Sponsored by the Sigma XI and the Biology Department. Hudson Hall Room 106.

8 pm — Ski Club Reception. Open to the campus. Angell Center Ballroom.

TUESDAY, DECEMBER 3

4 pm — Men's and Women's Swimming: PSUC vs. UVM. Memorial Hall.

4:15 pm — Meeting for all mass media majors and other individuals interested in forming a mass media society at Plattsburgh. The organization will sponsor speakers, field trips, scholarships and conferences. Yokum 136F. For more information, call Nancy Yake, 564-2111.

6:45 pm — Betsy Frye, piano and Leo Mayer, viola (student recital). Sponsored by the Center for Art, Music and Theatre. Open to the campus and public, no charge. Angell Center Cardinal Lounge.

8 pm — Distinguished Visiting Professor Series presents: Jane Kramer public reading. Angell Center Ballrooms.

WEDNESDAY, DECEMBER 4

5 pm — Yoga Exercise and Relaxation. New members welcome anytime. Hawkins Hall Gym Room 153.

7:15 pm — Co-op Information Session. Open to the campus. Angell Center Cardinal Lounge.

THURSDAY, DECEMBER 5

11:30 am - 12:45 pm — Women's Studies Forum features Ingrun LaFleur speaking on "Report on National Women's Studies Conference: Scholarship and Community Activism." Sponsored by the Women's Studies, C.A.S. and the Dean of Arts and Science. Angell Center Cardinal Lounge.

4 pm — Greek Organizations/Faculty Reception sponsored by Campus Life. Open to the campus. Angell Center Cardinal Lounge.

4:30 pm — Marketing Club meeting. All students are welcome. Angell Center Ballroom.

4:30 pm — Distinguished Visiting Professor Program presents Dr. Jack Thompson speaking on "Post Summit Blues: Where Do We Go From Here?" Angell Center Amnesty Room.

8 pm — Slide Lecture sponsored by Visual Artists Series. Open to the campus and public, no charge. Angell Center Ballroom B.

CALENDAR NOTES

"Give Plattsburgh Thanksgiving"

Alpha Chi Rho, with the help of Marriott, is sponsoring a Fast Day on December 3rd. Students are asked to donate breakfast on that day. In return Marriott will contribute $1.11 per breakfast donated. Alpha Chi Rho will be manning tables in Clinton, Algonquin and Angell College Center on November 18 - November 22 during lunch and dinner. This is a benefit for the Plattsburgh Ecumenical Food Shelf which is sponsored by the Plattsburgh Interfaith Council.

Auditions for "Fiddler on the Roof" will be held at 7 pm on December 4, 5 and 6 in the Hartman Theatre. The play will be sponsored by the Center for Art, Music and Theatre.

GALLERY EXHIBITIONS

Myers Fine Arts Gallery, through December 20
"19th Century French Prints"

Rockwell Kent Gallery, through December 20
"Howard Jennings: Photographs"

Myers Fine Arts Lobby, through December 20
"I Love N.Y. Paper: PSUC Student Works on Paper"

WEEKLY is published by the Office of College Relations each Wednesday while classes are in session. Notice of events to be listed in "This Week on Campus" must be submitted to Melanie Wheatley (564-3824) by Thursday the week prior to publication. News items will be accepted by Carolee Smith (564-2090) until noon on Monday of the week of publication.

State University of New York College of Arts and Science at Plattsburgh is an Equal Employment Opportunity Affirmative Action Employer

CURRENT JOB LISTINGS

Department	Closing Date
Art, Music and Theatre		Mathematics
Lecturer	12/12/85	Assistant/Associate Professor	12/1/85
Business and Economics		Nursing
Accounting and Management Faculty	Open	2 Part-Time Lecturers
Dean	1/15/86*	(1) Pediatric Nursing	12/1/85*
Center for Teacher Education & Educational Services		(1) Obstetrical Nursing
Assistant Professor — Health Education	1/1/86	Psychology
Computer Science		Assistant/Associate Professor	2/1/86
Instructor/Assistant Professor	12/15/85*	*Or until qualified candidate is found
Foreign Languages & Literature
Part-Time Instructors
(German, French and Spanish)	Open

Complete details are available in the Office of Personnel and Affirmative Action

STUDENTS TO VOTE ON CONSTITUTIONAL CHANGES

Members of the Student Association will vote on December 10 for members of the Executive Council and Senate and for one of three Constitutional propositions. A lack of competition marks the races for seats on the Executive Council, with the post of Vice President for Student Services the only contested election (Bill Giesler versus Laurie Mante). All other candidates are unopposed. They include: President — Perry Cuocci; Vice President for Finances — Diane Fox; Vice President for Activities — Jeffrey T. Agnoli; Executive Vice President — Woody Freese; Vice President for Academics — Kimberly Kenyon; Vice President for the Arts — Rick Woodside; Chief Justice — Ann McLaughlin; Associate Justice (four to be elected) — Arthur Shade, Jr., Dana Collins, Yvette Christiansen, and Craig Lane; and SASU Delegate — Robert Reuss. Twenty-nine students are running for the fifteen Senate seats.

Also on this year's ballot is a referendum on the SA constitution, with three options. The first option is to continue operations under the present Constitution. The second proposal would increase the number of Senators from 15 to 30 and provide for their election by district. It would also change election dates and terms, with Executive Council members to be elected in the late spring, and Senators elected early in the fall semester. The third option would maintain the number of Senators at 15, but would assign them to districts.

Voting will be held on Tuesday, December 10 at the Angell College Center from 10 a.m. to 5 p.m.; at Clinton Dining Hall from 11 a.m. - 2 p.m. and from 4:30 to 7 p.m.; and at Algonquin Dining Hall from 11:30 a.m. - 1:30 p.m. and 4:30 - 7 p.m.

SENIOR SELECTED TO ATTEND DIRECT MARKETING COLLEGIATE INSTITUTE

Ms. Laurie Smith, a senior marketing major, has been selected to be one of thirty attendees at a Direct Marketing Collegiate Institute in New York City. Smith was chosen from a pool of several hundred students who were nominated by their professors. The Collegiate Institute is running from December 1st through 6th, and noted professionals in the field of Direct Marketing are making presentations and running workshops. Smith is the second student from Plattsburgh State who has been chosen for the Collegiate Institute. Jacqueline Irving attended last year, and as a result, was offered a position with Grey Direct Advertising (where she is currently working).

NEW YORK NETWORK DONATES MORE EQUIPMENT TO COMMUNICATION DEPARTMENT

The New York Network, SUNY's television network production center, has provided Plattsburgh's department of communication with an additional $15,000 worth of surplus television equipment. According to Ira Singer, director of network services for New York Network, the equipment is being assigned to Plattsburgh on indefinite loan. The package consists of two Ikegami IH-33 cameras. Last spring, the New York Network assigned $250,000 of surplus equipment to the department of communication.

SIX STUDENTS SELECTED TO RECEIVE CANADIAN STUDIES SCHOLARSHIPS

Six students have been selected to receive Canadian Studies scholarships for the spring semester, according to Dr. Richard Beach, director of the Center for the Study of Canada. The six scholarships are funded through gifts to the College Foundation from four Canadian corporations. The sponsoring companies and students are: Brascan Limited — Matthew Stanley; Hiram Walker — Kathleen Rollo and Daniel Marshall; Imasco Limited — John Morrissey; and Northern Telecom — Carolyn Marzigliano and Martel Rynderman.

FORENSIC TEAM PLACES SECOND IN CORNELL TOURNAMENT

The Plattsburgh State Forensic Team finished second, behind Emerson College, at the Cornell University Tournament held November 22-23. The competition involved teams from such schools as Bryn Mawr, Brown, Wellesley, Albany State, and the U.S. Coast Guard Academy. Finalists from Plattsburgh State included Lisa Zaborowski (first in dramatic duo and sixth in prose), Gretchen Schawe (first in prose), Debbie Pacyna (fourth in rhetorical criticism and fifth in prose), Eric Marler (fourth in poetry), and Geri Papiernick (fourth in prose). The team has now concluded its fall schedule of tournaments and will return to competition at Brown University in February.

COOPERATIVE EDUCATION PROGRAM RECEIVES SUPPLEMENTAL GRANT

The college's Cooperative Education Program has received a Supplemental Grant Award of $9,700, according to Dr. Ann Hasting, director of the program. Hasting said the funds will be used to present special on-campus Cooperative Education workshops, invite speakers, provide Cooperative Education materials for Summer Orientation, and hold a mini-conference on Cooperative Education and the Liberal Arts. The funds were awarded by the U.S. Department of Education to provide special Cooperative Education projects.

CENTER FOR ART, MUSIC AND THEATRE OFFERS MUSICAL EVENTS

Several music performances are on the program for the Center for Art, Music and Theatre during the next few days. This weekend, the Choral Arts Society of Northeastern New York, conducted by Richard Probert, will open its third season with two performances of "The Messiah" by George Frederick Handel. Featuring soloists Richard Zielinski, Angela Brown, Paula Valyo, and Steven Tachell, the Society will perform in Hawkins Hall Auditorium at 8 p.m. on Saturday, December 7 and again at 3 p.m. on Sunday, December 8. Tickets are available at the Myers Box Office, from chorus members, and at the Spinning Wheel.

On December 10 at 8 p.m. in the Hartman Theatre, the College Chorale and Sinfonia will join forces to present J.S. Bach's Christmas cantata "Uns ist ein Kind Geboren (For Us A Child Is Born)." The Sinfonia is a chamber ensemble composed of artists, faculty and advanced students and is directed by Yenoïn Guibbory. The Chorale is directed by Richard Zielinski.

The Symphonic Band, directed by Herm Matlock, will present a concert at 8 p.m. on December 12 in the Hartman Theatre. The program includes "Chester" by William Billings; "Sinfonia Nobilissima" by Robert Lager; "Amporita Roca," a Spanish march; "Finlandia" by Jean Sibelius; "Festive Overture" by Dimitri Shostakovich; and "Canzona" by Peter Menin. Both of these concerts are free and open to the public.

FAMILY HISTORY WORKSHOP STUDENTS PRESENT RESEARCH AT NATIONAL CONFERENCE

Three participants in last summer's Family History Workshop were among fifty young people attending a Regional Youth Humanities Seminar held in Washington, D.C. Michele Hill, Amiee Martineau, and Teresa Nardelli prepared and delivered a slide presentation describing the Family History workshop, which involved 25 students from 11 schools in a five-week project last summer. The workshop was funded in part by a Youth Projects grant from the National Endowment for the Humanities and administered through the college's Women's Studies Program, with Dr. Patricia Higgins and Dr. Suzann Buckley as project directors. Workshop participants also produced a "Student-to-Student Guide" and an "Instructor's Guide." An exhibit displaying some of the results of the workshop is available for use in area schools.

FINANCIAL AID APPLICATION PROCESS FOR 1986-87 EXPLAINED

Plattsburgh students can apply for over two hundred seventy-five thousand dollars in College Foundation Scholarship money for the 1986-87 academic year, according to Suzanne Sokolowski, financial aid director. Financial need as determined by an analysis of family income and assets is the prime criteria, but several awards are made based only on academic achievement.

The application process involves sending a Financial Aid Form to the College Scholarship Service before March 1 and submitting signed copies of parents' 1985 federal and state income tax returns to the Financial Aid Office by April 15.

All application forms are available at the Financial Aid Office and the Outreach Center located near the Point in the College Center.

Guaranteed Student Bank Loan applications for summer school will be accepted after March 1. For the 1986-87 academic year bank loan applications can be submitted to the Financial Aid Office after May 1. Parent and student federal tax returns must be submitted to the campus Financial Aid Office before loan applications will be processed.

NOMINATIONS BEING SOUGHT FOR DISTINGUISHED TEACHING PROFESSORSHIP AWARD

The Committee on the Distinguished Teaching Professorship Award is soliciting nominations for this award from members of the PSUC community. The award, which is made SUNY-wide, confers the permanent rank of Distinguished Teaching Professor, a significant salary increase, and other benefits. Dr. Edgar Barton, professor emeritus in the Center for Art, Music and Theatre, received the award in 1985, and was the first Plattsburgh faculty member to be so honored.

Any member of the full-time teaching faculty holding the rank of Associate Professor or higher may be nominated for the award. Those interested in making such a nomination should be aware that the process involves the preparation of an extensive dossier by the nominator.

Anyone desiring further information on the award or the nominating procedure should contact a member of the committee before December 20th. The committee members are Dr. Justin Gustainis, Dr. Charles Mitchell, Dr. Vladimir Munk, Dr. Rachel Pollow, Dr. Mary Roark, and Sue Viscomi.

SPORTS UPDATE: CARDS WIN OWN TOURNAMENTS OVER VACATION

The men's hockey team rebounded from a three game winless streak by winning the Cardinal Pepsi Classic last weekend. The Cards defeated Iowa State 9-1 in the first round. Tournament most valuable player Joey Ferras tallied two goals and two assists while Dave Piromalli added a goal and three assists. In the championship contest, the Birds jumped out to a 5-2 lead before holding off a furious North Adams rally to win, 5-4. All-tournament selection Neil Mulcahy scored two goals for the Cardinals. Besides Ferras and Mulcahy, defensemen Craig Marshall and Chris Panek were named to the all-tourney team. On Tuesday, the Cards lost to the University of Alaska-Anchorage 9-2.

Norm Law's men's basketball team won their own Cardinal Pepsi Classic before Thanksgiving, then dropped a pair of tough roadgames this weekend. On Saturday against Hunter College the Cardinals raced out to a 15 point halftime lead before getting caught by a tough Hunter second half rally. The following afternoon PSUC travelled to Stony Brook to face a powerful Patriot squad and dropped a tough 76-71 decision. Guy Garrow led the Cardinals, scoring 19 points against Hunter and 10 against Stony Brook. The Cards are home this Saturday against Albany State.

Both swimming teams routed St. Michael's College last week. The men are 1-0 while the women are 2-0 on the young season. Both teams will be in action this weekend against Albany State.

weekly notes

Dr. James Dawson, professor in the Center for Earth and Environmental Science, has been reappointed to a five-year term on the NYS Department of Environmental Conservation's Forest Preserve Advisory Committee. The FPAC advises the Division of Land and Forests on policy and management as it applies to state lands in the Adirondack and Catskill State Parks. Dawson also recently organized, moderated and gave a presentation at a special session entitled "Liming the New York State Forest Preserve" at the Liming Acidic Waters' Environmental and Policy Concerns Conference. . . Dr. Helen Deresky, assistant professor in the School of Business and Economics, has had an article, entitled "Generic Strategic Missions: An Empirical Investigation of Typology Validity and Strategy Content," accepted for publication in the "Strategic Management Journal." . . Dr. Carl Engelhart, professor emeritus of English, who is teaching in China, recently read a paper entitled "The Heresy of the Didactic" at a symposium held in celebration of the 65th birthday of Nankai University. . . David Franzi, assistant professor in the Center for Earth and Environmental Science, recently attended the Second Toxic Waste-Ground Water Contamination Technical Meeting sponsored by the US Geological Survey in Massachusetts. He was a co-author of two papers presented at the meeting, "The Surficial and Subsurface Distribution of Aquifer Sediments at the Bemidji Research Site, Bemidji, Minnesota" and "The Inorganic Geochemistry of Ground Water and Aquifer Matrix, Bemidji Toxic Waste Research Site, Northern Minnesota." Both papers will be published by the USGS. . . Dr. Jon Gottschall, associate professor of political science, gave a lecture recently at Colgate University on "Reagan's Judicial Appointments: The Continuation of a Judicial Revolution." He delivered a paper on the same topic at the Northeast Political Science Association Meeting held in Philadelphia recently. Gottschall's research on this subject was cited in the October 14 issue of "U.S. News and World Report." . . Two articles by Dr. Angelo La Mariana, professor emeritus of music, appeared in recent issues of "The School Musician." "Music for Violin and Piano" was published in the March issue and "Music for String Orchestra" was published in the August/September issue. . . Dr. Martin Lubin, associate professor of political science, gave a lecture at Hunter College entitled "Is Nationalism in Quebec Dead?" and presented a paper on "Quebec-U.S. Relations: An Overview" at the meeting of the Association of Canadian Studies. . . Dr. Charles Simpson, associate professor of sociology, presented a paper entitled "Nature as News: Science Reporting and Metaphor in 'The New York Times,' 1898 to 1983" at the 11th Annual Conference of Social Theory, Politics and the Arts, held in October at the New School for Social Research and Adelphi University. Susan Sweeney-Patnode, a student in the department of history, served as a research assistant for the paper. . . Dr. Nicholas Troisi, dean of professional studies, will be serving this week on a Middle States Association Visitation Committee which is evaluating Hauppauge High School. The visitation team consists of 27 members, with Troisi the only member representing a college or university. . . Dr. Robert Weiss, assistant professor of sociology, presented a paper on private policing and one on private prison industries before the American Society of Criminology in San Diego. . . Dr. Michael Wolfe, director of the Center for Teacher Education and Educational Services, presented a workshop on "Time Management for Teacher Education and Educational Services, presented a workshop on "Time Management for Teachers" at the TASCED Conference in Houston, Texas. Wolfe also spoke to the regional principal's SAANYS meeting on "Enhancing School Climate." . . Three members of the Latin American Studies Committee participated in the recent NYS Joint Conference on Asia, Africa and the Americas. Dr. Francis Bethlen presented a paper entitled "North-South Tensions: The Disputes Between the United States and Mexico Regarding Winter Vegetable Marketing." Thomas Rumney assisted in a workshop on "The Implications of the New Social Studies Curriculum on Latin American Studies in New York State," and Dr. Stuart Voss organized and chaired a panel on "North-South Relations: Canada and Latin America." Voss also recently served as commentator and chair of two panels at the VII Conference of Mexican and United States Historians in Oaxaca, Mexico. The panels were titled "Sonora and Chihuahua in the Eighteenth and Nineteenth Centuries" and "Family Ties Between City, Countryside, and Border." . . The Upward Bound Program has two new staff members, Phyllis Komlos, counselor, who was formerly with the Connecticut State Department of Education, and Judy Lynn Carlsson, who will serve as Tutorial and Activities Coordinator.

this week on campus

Unless otherwise noted, all events are free and open to the campus and public.

THURSDAY, DECEMBER 5

11:30 - 12:45 pm — Women's Studies Forum features Ingrun LaFleur speaking on "Report on National Women's Studies Conference: Scholarship and Community Activism." Sponsored by the Women's Studies, C.A.S. and Dean of Arts and Science. Angell Center Cardinal Lounge.

3:30 pm — Meeting — North Country Food Service Advisory Council. Sponsored by the Center for Lifelong Learning. Open to members only. Angell Center Conference Room.

4 pm — Distinguished Visiting Professor Program presents Dr. Jack Thompson speaking on "Post Summit Blues: Where Do We Go From Here?" Angell Center Amnesty Room.

4 pm — Greek organizations/faculty reception sponsored by Campus Life. Open to the campus. Angell Center Cardinal Lounge.

4:30 — "Post Summit Blues: Or Where Do We Go From Here?" A lecture by Dr. John Thompson, Distinguished Visiting Professor of History. Angell Center Amnesty Room.

4:30 pm — Marketing Club meeting. All students are welcome. Angell Center Ballroom.

7 pm — Auditions for "Fiddler on the Roof" sponsored by the Center for Art, Music and Theatre. Myers Hartman Theatre.

7 pm — "Nicaragua Today" sponsored by the Geography Club. Yokum 208.

7:30 pm — Student Association Speakers Forum presents "An Evening with Phil Esposito." S.A. member tickets are $3, public $5 and on sale at the Angell Center Desk. Hawkins Hall Large Auditorium.

7:30 pm — "Post-Revolutionary Nicaragua: The Contra Attacks and Regional Development," a presentation by Roberto Chavez. Co-sponsored by the Geography Club, Latin American Studies, Anthropology Club, Philosophy Club, Planning Program, and the Center for Earth and Environmental Science. Yokum 208.

8 pm — Slide Lecture by ceramist Tony Hepburn sponsored by the Visual Artists Series. Angell Center Ballroom B.

FRIDAY, DECEMBER 6

3 pm — Faculty Conversations meeting on General Education sponsored by Academic Affairs. Open to the campus. Angell Center Ballroom A.

4 pm — Informational meeting for new initiates of Omicron Delta Kappa. Open to members only. Angell Center Cardinal Lounge.

7 pm — Auditions for "Fiddler on the Roof" sponsored by the Center for Art, Music and Theatre. Myers Hartman Theatre.

SATURDAY, DECEMBER 7

8 am - 8 pm — Men's intercollegiate soccer indoor tournament. Field House Gym.

8:30 am - 1 pm — High School Volleyball Tournament sponsored by the Women's Volleyball Booster Club. Field House Gymnasium.

1 pm — Men's and Women's Swimming: PSUC vs. Albany State. Memorial Hall.

4 pm — Food Festival meeting for International Relations Club. Open to the campus. Angell Center Conference Room.

6 pm — Women's Basketball: PSUC vs. Albany State. Memorial Hall.

8 pm — The Choral Arts Society of Northeastern New York presents "The Messiah" by George Frederick Handel. Open to the campus and public. Reserved seats are $10, open seating is $5. Tickets are on sale at the Hartman Box Office. Hawkins Hall Large Auditorium.

8 pm — Men's Basketball: PSUC vs. Albany State RED FEVER NIGHT S.A. members 50¢, public $1.50. Memorial Hall.

8 pm — Chevrolet Music Video Dance Party and the Ramones in Concert. Sponsored by the Student Association and Campus Life. Open to the campus and public. S.A. member tickets are $4, public $4 and on sale at the Angell Center Desk. Angell Center Ballrooms.

SUNDAY, DECEMBER 8

3 pm — The Choral Arts Society of Northeastern New York presents "The Messiah" by George Frederick Handel. Open to the campus and public. Reserved seats are $10, open seating is $5. Tickets are on sale at the Hartman Box Office. Hawkins Hall Large Auditorium.

5 pm — International Food Festival 1985 sponsored by the International Relations Club. Open to the campus and public. S.A. members $3, public $3.50, children and senior citizens $3. Sibley Hall Cafetorium.

MONDAY, DECEMBER 9

4:15 pm — Reagan's Judicial Appointments," an academic lecture sponsored by the political science department. Angell Center Amnesty Room.

8 pm — Campus Poets Series 85-86 sponsored by the Faculty of Arts and Science. Angell Center Cardinal Lounge.

TUESDAY, DECEMBER 10

4:15 pm — Tuesday Reflections features Ann Tracy. Angell Center Cardinal Lounge.

4:15 pm — "Reagan Administration Policy on Affirmative Action," an academic lecture sponsored by the Political Science Department. Angell Center Amnesty Room.

7 pm — Study Abroad — England Exchange Programs — Chester and Liverpool sponsored by the Center for International Education. Open to the campus. Angell Center Cardinal Lounge.

8 pm — College Chorale and Sinfonia, Richard Zielinski and Yenoin Guibbory, conductors. Hartman Theatre.

WEDNESDAY, DECEMBER 11

3 pm — Greek Advisors meeting sponsored by Campus Life. Open to members only. Angell Center Conference Room.

5 pm — Yoga Exercise and Relaxation. New members welcome anytime. Hawkins Hall Gym, Room 153.

6 pm — Women's Basketball: PSUC vs. St. Lawrence. Memorial Hall.

8 pm — "Moving Off-Campus" sponsored by Campus Life. Angell Center Cardinal Lounge.

8 pm — Men's Basketball: PSUC vs. St. Lawrence. S.A. members 50¢, public $1.50. Memorial Hall.

THURSDAY, DECEMBER 12

11:30 am - 12:45 pm — Women's Studies Forum presents Joanna Davenport, PSUC Athletic Director speaking on "History of Women in Sports." Sponsored by the Women's Studies, C.A.S. and Dean of Arts and Science. Angell Center Lounge.

4 pm — Adult Christmas Reception sponsored by Adult Student Group. Open to the campus. Angell Center Conference Room.

8 pm — Symphonic Band, Herm Matlock, conductor. Hartman Theatre.

CALENDAR NOTES

Gay Alliance at SUNY Plattsburgh (GAP) general meeting off campus the week of December 9, 1985. Topic: AIDS. For further information, call 563-7045.

Channel 5's "Focus '85" Show on December 9 will be on adult learners at PSUC.

GALLERY EXHIBITIONS

Myers Fine Arts Gallery, through December 20
"19th Century French Prints"

Rockwell Kent Gallery, through December 20
"Howard Jennings: Photographs"

Myers Fine Arts Lobby, through December 20
"I Love N.Y. Paper: PSUC Student Works on Paper"

CURRENT JOB LISTINGS

Department	Closing Date	Computer Science
Art, Music and Theatre		Instructor/Assistant Professor	12/15/85*
Lecturer	12/12/85	Foreign Languages and Literature
Business and Economics		Part-time Instructors
Accounting & Management Faculty	Open	(German, French, & Spanish)	Open
Dean	1/15/86*	Psychology
Center for Teacher Education & Educational Services		Assistant/Associate Professor	2/1/86
Assistant Professor — Health Education	1/1/86	*Or until qualified candidate is found

Complete details are available in the Office of Personnel and Affirmative Action

APPROXIMATELY 300 TO RECEIVE DEGREES DURING WINTER COMMENCEMENT

About 300 students will receive bachelor's or master's degrees or certificates of advanced study during the annual winter commencement ceremony scheduled for 2 p.m. on Friday, December 20 in the Memorial Hall Gymnasium. Three students will receive their degrees with highest honors (grade point average of 3.9 or higher out of a possible 4.0). They are: Richard Charles Kay of Severna Park, MD; Jeannette A. Randy, Chazy; and Susan M. Sweeney-Patnode, Jay. Receiving degrees with high honors (gpa of 3.7-3.89) are: Brian Scott Flint, Cherry Valley; Debra L. Jerkovich, Congers; David L. Marshall, Keeseville; Ronald Wayne Sannicando, Pound Ridge, and Michael Jay Shermer, Lake Grove. Sixteen students will graduate with honors (gpa between 3.4 and 3.69). They include: Thomas R. Amato, Lake Ronkonkoma; Susan L. Clifford, Glens Falls; Peter G. Diana, Hicksville; Jeanne M. Jeffers, Farmingdale; Krista M. Kanninen, Hopewell Junction; Patricia L. Kuriger, Plattsburgh; Karen A. Labombarda, Plattsburgh; Tony V. Likhite, Plattsburgh; Tracy N. Masters, Plattsburgh; David M. Race, Binghamton; Lorrie Renadette, Plattsburgh; Joseph V. Roccaro, Jr., East Northport; Erica D. Roesch, Hopewell Junction; Catherine A. Sassone, South Glens Falls; Marjorie Brown Weinberg, Plattsburgh; and Robert F. Woodcock, Whitehall.

Dr. Nicholas Troisi, dean of professional studies, will deliver the commencement address during the ceremony.

A reception for graduates, their families, and faculty members will be held in the Angell College Center Ballroom.

DR. PADMINI GULATI WINS CANADIAN STUDIES RESEARCH GRANT

Dr. Padmini Gulati, assistant professor in the Center for Human Resources, has been awarded a Canadian Studies Research Grant by the Canadian Government. Under the grant, Gulati will do research on the similarities and the differences between the delivery of personal social services in the Province of Quebec and the State of New York.

Dr. Richard Beach, director of the Center for the Study of Canada, explained that the Research Grants were initiated by the Canadian Government last year to encourage American scholars to do research on Canadian issues, and Dr. Suzann Buckley, professor of history, won a grant in the initial round of funding. About 140 applications were submitted for the approximately 50 awards which were made throughout the United States. "We're delighted that our faculty have already established a record of accomplishment in this new grant program," Beach commented.

CENTER FOR TEACHER EDUCATION EVALUATING COMPUTER SOFTWARE

An IBM PC Jr. and 39 licensed software programs are currently being evaluated by students and faculty from the college's Center for Teacher Education and Educational Service, according to Dr. Mary Ellen Dallman, assistant to the dean of professional studies. Dallman said this week that the computer and software are currently on loan to the center, but will become the property of the center when the evaluation period is completed at the end of June. "The intention of the program," she said, "is to have this software evaluated by teachers, college faculty and education students to determine the suitability of both the machine and the software for use by public school students." The software packages include such titles as Turtle Power, Comma Cat, Dictionary Dog, and Monster Math, but also includes some sophisticated science programs, like Genetics, Photosynthesis, and Cell Functions. Faculty members, students, and area teachers who use the Teacher Resource Center, will complete evaluation forms on the software and return the forms to IBM. The value of the equipment and software, Dallman said, is in excess of $3,000.

HONORS PROGRAM TO OFFER SEMINARS IN SPRING

Students in the college's Honors Program may choose from five honors seminars being offered during the spring semester, according to Dr. David Mowry, director of the Honors Program. That is the largest number of honors courses offered to date in one semester, Mowry said. The courses being offered this spring represent five out of the six general education distributive requirements, and include: New Approaches to History, to be taught by Dr. Altina Waller; The Politics of Economic Development, Dr. William Culver and Dr. Cornel Reinhart; Crossing the Arts, Dr. Janet Groth and Dr. John Shout; The Biology of Genes and Intelligence, Dr. Lary Shaffer; and an honors section of Calculus, Dr. John Bodenrader.

Mowry said that 60 students are currently active in the Honors Program and new freshmen will again be considered when their fall grade point averages are calculated. Students with a gpa of 3.5 are automatically eligible for the program, while students with slightly lower gpas may be accepted upon recommendation by faculty members. Mowry added that the Honors Council has approved upper level programs in psychology, in vitro cell biology, and English, and that several other programs and departments are working on proposals. Upper level students may do honors work through independent study projects if their major department has not yet developed a formal program.

ART INSTALLATIONS MADE IN VARIOUS PUBLIC AREAS OF CAMPUS

Several major art installations have been made in various public areas of the campus, according to Ed Brohel, gallery director. A cooperative effort of the Campus Beautification Committee, the art galleries, the Office of Campus Life, and the Angell College Center Advisory Committee, the installations have been made during the past two months. "We're continuing to develop the idea of a museum without walls on campus," Brohel commented, "insofar as security considerations will allow." He added, "The primary intention is to allow the college community, particularly our students, to have access to the rich resources of our permanent art collection by making art a part of the campus environment."

Among the art pieces placed on public display are two Nina Winkel works. Her bronze cast, entitled "Song of Songs" has been installed outside the east entrance to the Myers Fine Arts Building, and "Wrestling With the Angel" has been placed in the main stairwell of the Angell College Center. The 1939 Rockwell Kent Christmas Seal Highway Billboard has been framed and mounted in the rear stairwell of the Angell College Center. A five part series of acrylic paintings by William Crosby, professor in the Center for Art, Music and Theatre, entitled "Champlain Adirondack Region" has been permanently installed in the lobby of Redcay Hall. Finally, two abstract sculptures by new faculty member Don Osborne, associate professor in the Center for Art, Music and Theatre have also been placed on display, one in the lobby of the Feinberg Library and the other on the second floor of the Angell College Center.

Nina Winkel's "Wrestling With the Angel"

ALPHA CHI RHO SPONSORED FAST DAY RAISES $1,400+ FOR FOOD SHELF

The December 3rd Fast Day sponsored by the brothers of Alpha Chi Rho fraternity raised $1,472.97 for the Ecumenical Emergency Food Shelf. According to the Marriott Corporation, 1,327 students signed away their breakfast on that day, and, for each of those students, Marriott is giving the Food Shelf $1.11. Margaret Hunkins, volunteer coordinator of the Food Shelf, said that this is the largest single gift the Food Shelf has received, and she commended the students for their generosity and support.

The Ecumenical Emergency Food Shelf is a community and church-wide volunteer service which provides food to the hungry in the City of Plattsburgh and Clinton County.

TEN INDUCTED INTO HOME ECONOMICS HONOR SOCIETY

The college's Beta Epsilon Chapter of Phi Upsilon Omicron, the national honor society in home economics, recently inducted ten new members. Dr. Martha Frost, advisor, chapter president Kim Lawrence and current officers and members welcomed the new members, during a candle ceremony followed by a reception. Membership in the honor society is based on outstanding academic achievement, leadership ability, professional promise and a well-rounded participation in home economics. The new members and their hometowns are: Andrea Aidone, Warnerville; Corinne Budzynski, Lancaster; Krista Forte, West Babylon; Karen Geisbuesch, Fairport; Colleen O'Brien, Bronx; Pam Owens, New Paltz; Laurie Piliere, Ballston Lake; Laura VanVrankin, Stillwater; Kimberly Whiteford, Canton; and Amy Wilmarth, Delhi.

FINANCIAL AID APPLICATION PROCESS FOR 1986-87 EXPLAINED

Plattsburgh students can apply for over two hundred seventy-five thousand dollars in College Foundation Scholarship money for the 1986-87 academic year, according to Suzanne Sokolowski, financial aid director. Financial need as determined by an analysis of family income and assets is the prime criteria, but several awards are made based only on academic achievement.

The application process involves sending a Financial Aid Form to the College Scholarship Service before March 1 and submitting signed copies of parents' 1985 federal and state income tax returns to the Financial Aid Office by April 15.

Application forms will be available at the Financial Aid Office after December 16 and the Outreach Center located near the Point in the College Center.

Guaranteed Student Bank Loan applications for summer school will be accepted after March 1. For the 1986-87 academic year bank loan applications can be submitted to the Financial Aid Office after May 1. Parent and student federal tax returns must be submitted to the campus Financial Aid Office before loan applications will be processed.

HOLIDAY PARTIES SLATED FOR THIS WEEK

The Campus Life Office and the Marriott Corporation are co-sponsoring two holiday parties this week, according to Melanie Wheatley of the Campus Life Office. A "Decorate-the-Tree" party will be held from 8 p.m. to midnight on Thursday, December 12 in the Point, and each person is asked to bring a tree ornament. Wheatley said that holiday films, like "The Grinch Who Stole Christmas" will be shown and free refreshments will be served.

On Saturday, December 14 from 8 p.m. to midnight, a holiday celebration for students, faculty, staff and their families will be held in the Angell Center Ballroom. Faculty and staff members are encouraged to bring their children. Santa Claus will be present and Burghy will serve as his Christmas elf. Polaroid photographs will be taken of the children with Santa. A disc jockey will provide holiday music and refreshments will be served.

HEALTH INSURANCE OPTION TRANSFER PERIOD ENDS DECEMBER 31

Due to the unresolved negotiations process, employees represented by the UUP will continue to be eligible for either the Statewide or GHI Health Insurance Options, according to Stephen Adams of the office of personnel and affirmative action. For this reason, there will be a special UUP Option Transfer Period which ends December 31, 1985. Employees represented by UUP may request an option transfer to either of these plans. They are not eligible for the new Empire Plan. Additionally, a new rate schedule will go into effect with the paycheck dated December 25, 1985. Anyone interested in filing an option transfer request or in obtaining further information about the plans may do so in the Office of Personnel and Affirmative Action in the Kehoe Administration Building no later than December 31, 1985.

SPORTS UPDATE

Steve Hoar's icers snapped a two game losing streak Saturday night by defeating Geneseo State 9-2. Freshman Andre Giroux, who recently returned to the Cardinal lineup after an injury, scored four goals to fuel the rout. The night before, the Cards faced a fiery Oswego State team at Romney Arena and lost, 6-3. On Tuesday, the Cardinals travelled to Potsdam State and were upset, 7-6 in overtime. PSUC returns home this weekend to face Kent State in a two game set.

The men's basketball team faced two difficult SUNYAC opponents last week, and lost to both of them, 85-69 to Potsdam and 72 - 65 to Albany State. In the Potsdam game, the Cards' trailed their nationally ranked hosts by only four points at the half before the Bears came out and scored the first eight points of the second half. Rudy Outlaw led PSUC with 23 points. Norm Law's troops returned home Saturday and proved to be generous hosts as their 19 turnovers and poor shooting enabled the Danes to squeeze out the seven point win. The Cardinals host New Paltz State on Sunday.

Dave Robertson's swimming teams lost to both the University of Vermont and Albany State last week. Against Albany, the Cardinals were led by Bridgett O'Brien who won the 100 and 200 meter freestyle races. The New Hartford freshman set a school record in the 200 with a time 2:09.21. The men were paced by a quartet of swimmers who all won two events. Mark Beamish stood out, swimming the 400 medley relay anchor leg and winning the 500 yard freestyle.

Phoebe Sturm's women's basketball team opened its 1985-86 season by defeating Potsdam State 66-54. Donna Dixon led PSUC with 18 markers in that contest. On Saturday, the Cardinals dropped a close 64-61 decision to Albany State. The following afternoon, an obviously tired Cardinal squad watched a close game with nationally ranked Nazareth turn into a 86-53 blowout at the final buzzer. The Cards host Clarkson on Friday and New Paltz State on Sunday.

weekly notes

Dr. Mary L. Roark, assistant professor in the Center for Human Resources, recently published an article in ACPA Developments, newsletter of the American College Personnel Association, reporting on the national task force on "Victimization and Violence on Campus." . . . Gary Robinson, assistant director of the Educational Opportunity Program, has been selected by a university-wide committee as one of the three SUNY nominees for a Luce Foundation Scholarship. The Luce Scholarship program is a highly competitive national program which each year places a select group of young Americans in a variety of positions in the Far East. Only 60 colleges and universities nationwide are invited to submit applications.

this week on campus

Unless otherwise noted, all events are free and open to the campus and public.

THURSDAY, DECEMBER 12

11:30 am - 12:45 pm — Women's Studies Forum presents Joanna Davenport, PSUC Athletic Director speaking on "History of Women in Sports." Sponsored by Women's Studies, C.A.S. and the Dean of Arts and Science. Angell Center Cardinal Lounge.

4 pm — Greek organizations/faculty reception sponsored by Campus Life. Open to the campus. Angell Center Cardinal Lounge.

4 pm — Adult Christmas Reception sponsored by Adult Student Group. Open to the campus. Angell Center Conference Room.

7 pm — Men's Volleyball Club practice. Spectators appreciated. Hawkins Hall Gymnasium.

8 pm — Symphonic Band, Herm Matlock, conductor. Hartman Theatre.

8 - 12 pm — "Decorate The Tree Party." Students are invited to the Point for a Decorate the Tree Party. Bring a tree decoration. Free refreshments. Holiday films. Sponsored by Marriott and Campus Life.

FRIDAY, DECEMBER 13

7:30 pm — Women's Basketball: PSUC vs. Clarkson. Memorial Hall.

7:30 & 8:30 pm — SUNY North Country Planetarium Show — "Star of Wonder." Free tickets are available from the Hudson Hall Main Office. Hudson Hall Planetarium.

7:30 pm — Men's Ice Hockey: PSUC vs. Kent State University. S.A. members 50¢, public $3 and under 18 tickets are $1.50. Fieldhouse.

8 pm — Holiday Talent Show — proceeds to benefit the United Way. Sponsored by the Campus Life Office. Tickets are 50¢. Angell Center Ballrooms.

SATURDAY, DECEMBER 14

11 am - 3 pm — CVPH Blood Drive sponsored by Theta Alpha Lambda. Angell Center Ballrooms.

7:30 pm — Men's Ice Hockey: PSUC vs. Kent State University. Tickets for S.A. members is 50¢, public $3, and under 18 is $1.50. Fieldhouse.

8 - 12 pm — Holiday Celebration for students, faculty, staff and families. Santa Claus will attend and Burghy will serve as his elf. Polaroid pictures of children with Santa Claus will be available. Holiday music, refreshments. Free. Sponsored by Marriott and Campus Life.

SUNDAY, DECEMBER 15

1 pm — Women's Basketball: PSUC vs. New Paltz State. Memorial Hall.

3 pm — Men's Basketball: PSUC vs. New Paltz State. S.A. member's tickets are 50¢, public is $1.50. Memorial Hall.

4 pm — Concert by the College Community Orchestra. Sponsored by the Center for Art, Music and Theatre. Hawkins Hall Auditorium.

6:45 & 9:15 pm — Student Association Film Committee presents "Beverly Hills Cop." Tickets for S.A. members is 50¢, faculty $1 and on sale at the Angell Center Desk. Hawkins Hall Auditorium.

MONDAY, DECEMBER 16

5 pm — "Guiding Economic Development in Clinton County: Trends and Alternatives." Sponsored by the Planning Program. Angell Center Conference Room.

7 pm — Annual Open House by the Adirondack Dance Theatre sponsored by the Center for Lifelong Learning. Sibley Hall Cafetorium.

WEDNESDAY, DECEMBER 18

5 pm — Yoga Exercise and Relaxation. New members welcome. Hawkins Hall Gym Room 153.

THURSDAY, DECEMBER 19

11:30 am - 12:45 pm — Women's Studies Forum presents "Readings of Feminists" by PSUC faculty, staff and students. Sponsored by Women's Studies, C.A.S. and the Dean of Arts and Science. Angell Center Cardinal Lounge.

7 pm — Men's Volleyball Club practice. Spectators appreciated. Hawkins Hall Gymnasium.

FRIDAY, DECEMBER 20

2 pm — Commencement Ceremony. Memorial Hall. Reception to follow. Angell Center Ballroom.

7 pm — Commuter Club Christmas Party -- all are welcome. Angell Center Cardinal Lounge.

SATURDAY, DECEMBER 21

2 pm & 7 pm — "Nutcracker" Excerpts Acts I & II (Ballet) sponsored by the Adirondack Dance Theatre and the Center for Lifelong Learning. Student tickets are $2.50, adult-public tickets are $4 and on sale at Family Drug, Plaza Book House, Adirondack Dance Theatre Office (Hawkins 127, Monday, Wednesday and Friday from 9 am - 1 pm). Myers Hartman Theatre.

MONDAY, DECEMBER 30

7:30 pm — Men's Ice Hockey: PSUC vs. Notre Dame. S.A. member's tickets 50¢, public $3, under 18 $1.50. Fieldhouse.

TUESDAY, DECEMBER 31

7 pm — Men's Ice Hockey: PSUC vs. Notre Dame. S.A. member's tickets 50¢, public $3, under 18 $1.50. Fieldhouse.

SATURDAY, JANUARY 4

8 pm — Men's Ice Hockey: PSUC vs. Royal Military College. S.A. member's tickets are 50¢, public $3, under 18 $1.50. Fieldhouse.

SUNDAY, JANUARY 5

2 pm — Men's Ice Hockey: PSUC vs. Royal Military College. S.A. member's tickets are 50¢, public $3, under 18 $1.50. Fieldhouse.

SATURDAY, JANUARY 11

2 pm — Women's Basketball: PSUC vs. Hartwick. Memorial Hall.

7:30 pm — Men's Ice Hockey: PSUC vs. Oswego State. S.A. member's tickets are 50¢, public $3, under 18 $1.50. Fieldhouse.

CALENDAR NOTE

The Printing/Duplicating Center has an opening for a temporary (one-month) full-time clerk. Apply in the Personnel Office.

GALLERY EXHIBITIONS

Myers Fine Arts Gallery, through December 20

"19th Century French Prints"

Rockwell Kent Gallery, through December 20

"Howard Jennings: Photographs"

Myers Fine Arts Lobby, through December 20

"I Love N.Y. Paper: PSUC Student Works on Paper"

WEEKLY is produced by the Office of College Relations every Wednesday while classes are in session. The deadline for news items is noon on Monday. To submit news items, mail to Kehoe 806 or call 564-2090. Calendar items should be submitted to Melanie Wheatley, Angell College Center, 564-2289 by 4 p.m. on the Thursday prior to publication.

State University of New York College of Arts and Science at Plattsburgh is an Equal Employment Opportunity Affirmative Action Employer

CURRENT JOB LISTINGS

Department	Closing Date	Computer Science
Admissions		Instructor/Assistant Professor	12/15/85*
Admissions Counselor	1/1/86	Foreign Languages and Literature
Art, Music and Theatre		Part-Time Instructors
Lecturer	12/13/85	(German, French and Spanish)	Open
Assistant Professor — Printmaking	3/1/86	Human Resources
Business and Economics		Lecturer — Food and Service Management	12/13/85
Accounting and Management Faculty	Open	Printing and Duplicating
Dean	1/15/86*	Technical Assistant	12/20/85
Center for Teacher Education & Educational Services		Psychology
Assistant Professor — Health Education	1/1/86	Assistant/Associate Professor	2/1/86

*Or until qualified candidate is found

Complete details are available in the Office of Personnel and Affirmative Action

LISE BISSONNETTE TO RECEIVE SUNY HONORARY DEGREE

State University of New York trustees today approved a nomination by Plattsburgh State President Joseph C. Burke for an honorary Doctor of Humane Letters degree to be conferred upon Lise Bissonnette, former editor-in-chief of the Canadian newspaper "Le Devoir." Bissonnette is well known on campus for her support of and participation in the Canadian Studies program. Dr. Richard Beach, director of the Center for the Study of Canada, commented, "As the leading political analyst in Canada, Ms. Bissonnette is often called upon to discuss governmental affairs and has, on numerous occasions, brought her expertise and insights into our classrooms. She regularly conducts sessions within the Introduction to Canada course. Over the past six years, she has contributed her time, effort and expertise to the success of our Quebec Summer Seminar, and for the past two years, she has been actively involved with our French-Canadian Institute for Language and Culture. Still further, Ms. Bissonnette has continually supported our programs through her contacts with others in and out of Canada."

Acting President Jerome Supple commented. "We're very pleased that the State University trustees have approved our request to confer an honorary degree upon Lise Bissonnette. She has greatly benefited our campus and our Canadian Studies Program and has been a true friend to our college."

Bissonnette was educated at the University of Montreal, the University of Strasbourg and the University of Paris. After teaching for several years at the University of Quebec in Montreal, she began her career with "Le Devoir," first as an education writer, then as the correspondent covering the National Assembly. In 1978, she assumed an editorial position with the newspaper, and in 1982 was named editor-in-chief. In 1980-81, Bissonnette spent a year as a senior associate for the Carnegie Endowment for International Peace working on Quebec-U.S. relations. She recently resigned her position as editor-in-chief to devote more time to several book projects. She continues as a senior columnist for "Le Devoir" and covers primarily Canadian politics and international issues, along with cultural affairs.

The honorary degree will be conferred upon Bissonnette during this year's Academic Convocation, which is scheduled for April 20.

1930 ALUMNUS AND WIFE DONATE SILVER COLLECTION TO COLLEGE

Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Millet have donated a collection of silver pieces, valued at approximately $25,000, to the College Foundation. The collection includes twelve place settings, with 13 pieces in each setting, a tea and coffee set with tray, a turkey platter with gravy ladle, ice tongs, and several serving pieces. The silver, which is similar to that used in a number of embassies around the world during Mr. Millet's long career in the Foreign Service, will be housed in the President's Home and will be used in perpetuity for official functions.

Dr. Jerome Supple, acting president, officially accepted the gift and commented, "What makes the gift extraordinary is its practical as well as aesthetic value. The silver will grace the table for special occasions at the President's Home, where the guest list traditionally has included Pulitzer and Nobel Prize recipients, candidates for national office, visiting dignitaries from foreign lands, distinguished scholars from all over the world, and of course, our students and faculty and many of our wonderful North Country neighbors."

Alfred Millet was enrolled in the commercial program at Plattsburgh Normal School and graduated in 1930. He taught school for several years, and later became principal. During World War II, he served in the American Foreign Red Cross in the Far East. Following the war, he joined the Foreign Service and served as an auditor and financial advisor in 22 countries, including British Guiana, Viet Nam, Cambodia, Laos, Uganda, Peru, and Nicaragua. While in Japan, he served under General Douglas MacArthur as part of the Supreme Command for the Allied Powers. In that position, he was detailed to the War Crimes Trials for the French phase of the trial as the official simultaneous French interpreter. When the French prosecutor became ill, Millet replaced him and conducted the rebuttal to the Marquis Kido who submitted 295 pages of defense testimony. He retired from the Foreign Service in 1967 and the Millets now live on Cumberland Head.

Dr. Jerome Supple expressed the college's appreciation to Mr. and Mrs. Millet.

FACULTY SENATE VOTES TO ABOLISH PHYSICAL EDUCATION REQUIREMENT

By a close margin, the Faculty Senate voted last week to abolish the two-hour physical education graduation requirement. The vote came after several years of discussion on the topic. A year ago, the Undergraduate Studies Committee, by another close vote, recommended to the Senate that the requirement be maintained. At the same time, the Resources and Planning Committee reported that members saw no budgetary or resource considerations within the proposal other than those included in the President's budget, but made no recommendation on the proposal itself. An alternative resolution, however, was made on the Senate floor to abolish the requirement. Discussion was then postponed on the issue until December 10 to allow the physical education department to review the long-term effects of the resolution. Following lengthy discussion at that meeting, the resolution to abolish the requirement was passed. The resolution is being transmitted to the president for action.

Dr. Jerome Supple, acting president, said he anticipates that the change will not adversely affect enrollments in the physical education courses, since students may take up to four credit hours in that area as part of the 125 credit hours required for graduation. The implementation date for the change has not yet been decided.

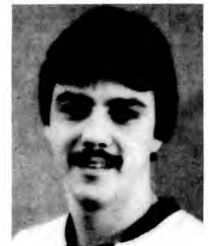

The Faculty Senate also approved the creation of a hotel management major, to be housed in the Center for Human Resources. Supple said that the proposal must be approved by SUNY Central Administration and then by the State Education Department prior to implementation. He added that he expects the new major to be fully operational by fall, 1987.

The Senate also narrowly defeated a resolution set forth by the Undergraduate Studies Committee to abolish "S" and "U" grades on mid-term grade reports. That resolution had come to the Faculty Senate after the Student Senate had passed a resolution encouraging the change.

In other action, Senators discussed at length the deadline for submitting final grade reports. The deadline has now been extended from 4 p.m. on December 26 through the end of that evening.

CUOCCI, FREESE TO HEAD 1986 STUDENT GOVERNMENT

Perry Cuocci, who ran unopposed, was selected last week to head the Student Association for the upcoming year. Cuocci, a junior political science major from Islip Terrace, has served as a Student Association Senator for the past four semesters, and has been a member of the College Auxiliary Services Board of Directors, the Legislative Review Board, and the College Community Relations Board.

Cuocci

Woody Freese will serve as Executive Vice President of the Student Association. Freese, a senior special education major from Catskill, is a resident assistant in Macdonough Hall and has served as an SA Senator and as an orientation leader.

Also elected to Student Association offices were: Diane Fox, vice president for finances; Jeff Agnoli, vice president for activities; Laurie Mante, vice president for student services; Rick Woodside, vice president for the arts; Kimberly Kenyon, vice president for academics; Ann McLaughlin, chief justice court of appeals; Arthur L. Shade, Jr., Yvette Christiansen, Dana Collins, and Craig Lane, associate justices court of appeals; and Robert Reuss, SASU delegate. Fifteen students were elected as Senators. They include: Edward Reilly, Larry E. Leger, Pat Mulligan, Michele Loomis, Sandra Pipitone, Kimberly Welch, Kevin Pierson, Gregory Slaterry, Jacqueline Cianfrocco, Ed O'Brien, Brian Fortune, David A. Calogero, Richard Davino, Carolyn Marzigliano, and Michele DeChristopher.

TWENTY-NINE STUDENTS NAMED TO 'WHO'S WHO'

Twenty-nine students have been selected for inclusion in the most recent edition of Who's Who Among Students in American Universities and Colleges. A campus nominating committee selected the students based on their academic achievement, service to the college and the community, leadership in extracurricular activities and potential for continued success.

Students selected for this honor include: Edward E. Asselin, Jr., Paul C. Berry, Linda Bourgault, Patricia Congdon, Eric DeCarlo, Jehan Ghouse, Alan S. Goldstein, Thomas R. Gonyea, Mark Holoska, Debra Lee Jerkovich, Claire Johnston, Richard C. Kay, Randa Khader, and Lauren Krams.

Also, Kim Allison Lawrence, William K. Mattar, Gerard M. Mignone, Traci Moorcroft, Margaret Morone, Karen Lavallee Norton, Terrence P. O'Hanlon, Ralph F. Perrotto, Jill Ann Perry, Heidi L. Reed, Laurie Smith, Dawn Ann Steiner, Michael Wallace, Marjorie Weinberg, and Barbara Wilck.

SEFA CAMPAIGN NEARS $16,000

The 1985 State Employees Federated Appeal at Plattsburgh State has received pledges and contributions totalling $14,977.38, according to campus chairperson Mayerlyn G. Payne. Payne said on Monday that contributions and pledges may still be forwarded to the Office of Personnel and Affirmative Action. Several offices and departments have achieved a 100% participation rate. They include the President's Office, the Office of Personnel and Affirmative Action, the College Relations Office, the Institutional Studies Office, the Payroll Office, and the Office of the Assistant Vice President for Finance. Payne expressed her appreciation on behalf of the SEFA Campaign to all those who responded to the appeal, and encouraged all those who have not yet responded to consider making a gift or a pledge before the end of the year.

SPORTS UPDATE: HOCKEY TEAM WINS TWO AGAINST KENT STATE

Steve Hoar's Cardinal hockey squad finally unleashed its awesome scoring power last weekend against Kent State. The Cards thumped the Golden Flashes twice, winning by scores of 8-3 and 9-3. Junior Dave Piromalli had a big weekend for the icers, netting two goals and six assists while freshman defenseman Chris Panek tallied two goals to go along with four assists. Forwards Andre Giroux and Jean Simon Bibeau both scored three goals in the two game set for the 9-6-1 Cardinals. PSUC hosts the fighting Irish of Notre Dame on December 30-31.

Norm Law felt the frustration that is often times synonymous with being a head basketball coach as this team dropped a heartbreaking 86-81 overtime decision to New Paltz State on Sunday. The Cards forced the overtime when Joey Wright hit a 15 foot jump shot with four seconds to go in regulation. On Wednesday PSUC defeated St. Lawrence 73-71. Alain Moore came off the bench in the second half to score 16 of his game high 20 points. The hoopsters are idle for the rest of the semester and will resume play on January 8, when they travel to Middlebury.

The women's basketball team lost two out of three contests last week, but the lone victory was an important SUNYAC contest. On Sunday, Darcy Gilbo's 12 points led a balanced attack as the Cards defeated New Paltz 79-69. Donna Dixon added 10 points as PSUC improved its record to 2-4 overall, and 2-1 in the SUNYAC. Earlier in the week, the Lady Cards dropped a pair of non-league games to North Country rivals St. Lawrence and Clarkson by scores of 86-70 and 68-49 respectively.

weekly notes

Hyman Freeman, professor of hearing and speech science, has been invited by the Cochlear Corporation of Colorado to attend a professional presentation. Cochlear obtained the first U.S. Food and Drug Administration approval for the Nuclear 22 Channel Cochlear implant, which is among the newest developments in electronics and microprocessing offering hope for the deaf to receive sound. The presentation is covering the theory of implants, case selection, implant centers, patient training programs, maintenance of the implant and introduction of implant procedures in academic curricula. . . Dr. Patricia Higgins, associate professor of anthropology, has been elected to a three-year term as a member-at-large on the Board of Directors of the Council on Anthropology and Education. CAE is a unit of the American Anthropological Association with 650 voting members. During her first year, Higgins will serve as co-chair of CAE's Program Committee and will help plan and organize the 1986 annual meetings. In her second year, she will chair CAE's membership committee, and during the final year of her term, she will chair the nominations committee. . . Dr. Joan Lynch, associate professor in the department of nursing, was recently appointed as a member of the Council on Continuing Education of the New York State Nurses Association. . . Dr. Thomas Rumney, assistant professor of geography, recently received notice that two publications were accepted. They were a review of A.A. den Otter's Civilizing the West: The Galts and the Development of Western Canada in The American Review of Canadian Studies and "The Geography of Agriculture: A Selected World Regional Bibliography" by Vance Bibliographies of Monticello, Illinois. . . At the invitation of the CVPH nursing administration, Dr. Caridad Buncab, Cynthia Taylor and Helen Waterhouse, psychiatric nursing faculty, recently gave an inservice education program on "Nursing Diagnosis," which was attended by the CVPH Mental Health Unit staff and the Director of Psychiatry.

this week on campus

Unless otherwise noted, all events are free and open to the campus and public.

THURSDAY, DECEMBER 19

11:30 am - 12:45 pm — Women's Studies Forum presents "Readings of Feminists" by PSUC faculty, staff and students. Sponsored by Women's Studies, C.A.S. and the Dean of Arts and Science. Angell Center Cardinal Lounge.

7 pm — Men's Volleyball Club practice. Spectators appreciated. Hawkins Hall Gymnasium.

FRIDAY, DECEMBER 20

2 pm — Commencement Ceremony. Memorial Hall. Reception to follow. Angell Center Ballroom.

7 pm — Commuter Club Christmas Party -- all are welcome. Angell Center Cardinal Lounge.

SATURDAY, DECEMBER 21

2 pm & 7 pm — "Nutcracker" Excerpts Acts I & II (Ballet) sponsored by the Adirondack Dance Theatre and the Center for Lifelong Learning. Student tickets are $2.50, adult-public tickets are $4 and on sale at Family Drug, Plaza Book House, Adirondack Dance Theatre Office (Hawkins 127, Monday, Wednesday and Friday from 9 am - 1 pm). Myers Hartman Theatre.

MONDAY, DECEMBER 30

7:30 pm — Men's Ice Hockey: PSUC vs. Notre Dame. S.A. member's tickets 50¢, public $3, under 18 $1.50. Fieldhouse.

TUESDAY, DECEMBER 31

7 pm — Men's Ice Hockey: PSUC vs. Notre Dame. S.A. member's tickets 50¢, public $3, under 18 $1.50. Fieldhouse.

SATURDAY, JANUARY 4

8 pm — Men's Ice Hockey: PSUC vs. Royal Military College. S.A. member's tickets are 50¢, public $3, under 18 $1.50. Fieldhouse.

SUNDAY, JANUARY 5

2 pm — Men's Ice Hockey: PSUC vs. Royal Military College. S.A. member's tickets are 50¢, public $3, under 18 $1.50. Fieldhouse.

SATURDAY, JANUARY 11

2 pm — Women's Basketball: PSUC vs. Hartwick, Memorial Hall.

7:30 pm — Men's Ice Hockey: PSUC vs. Oswego State. S.A. member's tickets are 50¢, public $3, under 18 $1.50. Fieldhouse.

GALLERY EXHIBITIONS

Myers Fine Arts Gallery, through December 20

"19th Century French Prints"

Rockwell Kent Gallery, through December 20

"Howard Jennings: Photographs"

Myers Fine Arts Lobby, through December 20

"I Love N.Y. Paper: PSUC Student Works on Paper"

CALENDAR NOTE

The Office of Personnel and Affirmative Action will hold an informational program on Monday, December 23 from 12:00 noon until 2:00 pm in the Angell Center Cardinal Lounge to share the available information concerning the details of the new Empire Health Insurance Plan.

WEEKLY is published by the Office of College Relations each Wednesday while classes are in session. Notice of events to be listed in "This Week on Campus" must be submitted to Melanie Wheatley (564-3824) by Thursday the week prior to publication. News items will be accepted by Carolee Smith (564-2090) until noon on Monday of the week of publication.

State University of New York College of Arts and Science at Plattsburgh is an Equal Employment Opportunity Affirmative Action Employer

COLLEGE CALENDAR SPRING SEMESTER 1986

January 12	Residence halls open.
January 12 - 13	Advisement and Registration for new students who have not registered.
January 15	Classes begin.
January 21	Course adjustment period ends.
February 14 - 17	No classes.
March 7	End of quarter.
March 14	Spring recess begins.
March 24	Classes resume. Course selection and registration for fall begins.
April 4	Unrestricted course withdrawal period ends. Course selection and registration for fall ends.
May 2	Semester ends.
May 4	Commencement

CURRENT JOB LISTINGS

Department	Closing Date	Chemistry
Admissions		Assistant Professor — (Biochemist)	2/15/86
Admissions Counselor	1/1/86	Foreign Languages & Literature
Art, Music & Theatre		Part-Time Instructors
Assistant Professor — Printmaking	3/1/86	(German, French & Spanish)	Open
Business & Economics		Philosophy
Accounting & Management Faculty	Open	Instructor P/T	12/30/85
Dean	1/15/86*	Printing & Duplicating
Center for Teacher Education & Educational Services		Technical Assistant	12/20/85
Assistant Professor — Health Education	1/1/86	Psychology
		Assistant/Associate Professor	2/1/86

Complete details are available in the Office of Personnel and Affirmative Action

*Or until qualified candidate is found